STEVE BISCIOTTI

OWNER

COLLEGE: SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY
BORN: 4/10/60, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 15/15

Steve Bisciotti wants consistency. His goal is to have the Ravens in the playoff mix every season, avoiding dips that plague some franchises.

"We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal. We want to be a consistent winner that avoids big lulls and not being in the playoffs for any length of time."

Under Bisciotti, the Ravens have joined an elite group – they are now one of 12 NFL teams with multiple Super Bowl victories. Seven franchises have won one title. Nine others have earned a berth in the game and lost, while four teams have never advanced to the Super Bowl. More importantly, with the Super Bowl XLVII Championship, the Ravens (two) joined the Patriots (three) and the Giants and Steelers, with two each, as teams that have won more than one NFL title since the turn of the century in 2000.

The Ravens are one of four teams (Colts, Packers and Patriots) to earn an NFL-best five postseason berths in the last six years. Prior to last year (2013), Baltimore was the only NFL team to earn the playoffs each of the previous five seasons (2008-12), with the Ravens winning at least one postseason game each of those years.

Even a year ago, when Baltimore finished 8-8 and did not make the playoffs, the team fell just one game short and was playing in the season finale to earn the postseason. The Ravens, who have made the playoffs six of the last eight years, have recently advanced to three AFC Championship games (2012, 2011 and 2008.)

The passionate Bisciotti, who at 54 is the second-youngest owner in the NFL (Washington's Daniel Snyder - 49), bought a minority interest in the Ravens from Art Modell in 2000, completing the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004. Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship team. Today, his influence in the NFL continues to rise – he currently is a member of two important ownership committees: Broadcast and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 15th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired John Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Along with the Super Bowl XLVII victory following the 2012 regular season, Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first five years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern-day (since 1970) head coach to go to and win a playoff game in each of his first five seasons.

"We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success," Bisciotti says. "There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area that we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."

– Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."

– Former Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams on Steve Bisciotti

"[Steve] is a great leader. The players love him. They love when he's around. He's an inspiration to all of our guys, to me, to this organization. He sets the tone here. It's a great organization because of his vision."

– John Harbaugh on Steve Bisciotti

STEVE BISCIOTTI

TOP 10 OWNER

CBS Sports* named Bisciotti as the No. 3 NFL owner fans would want running their favorite team: "Since Bisciotti bought the [majority of the] team in 2004, the Ravens have suffered only two losing seasons and, in five of the past [eight] years, Baltimore has won at least 10 games. Bisciotti doesn't make himself a huge part of the story, but the decision to hire coach John Harbaugh in 2008 has worked out pretty well. According to Forbes, the team has doubled in worth since Bisciotti became owner, but he also understands how to raise morale." (May, 2013)

Business Review USA* magazine ranked Bisciotti No. 10 among all U.S. professional sports franchise owners. Three other NFL owners made the Top 10: 1) Stanley Kroenke, Rams (Kroenke also owns the Denver Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche); 3) Robert Kraft, Patriots and 6) Jeffrey Lurie, Eagles. (February, 2012)

Sports Illustrated* named Steve Bisciotti one of the NFL's Five Best Owners: "Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field." (May, 2009)

Since taking over as the Ravens' full owner, Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs a total of six times, including the AFC's No. 2 seed in 2006 with a franchise-record 13-3 mark. His 2004 (9-7) and 2013 (8-8) teams missed the playoffs by just one game.

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (MD) State University in 1982 with a degree in liberal arts, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (at age 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees.

Aerotek grew into the Allegis Group, which currently is the largest staffing firm in the United States. The company, which is headquartered just outside Baltimore and has offices throughout North America, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia Pacific, has over 12,000 internal employees and 140,000 high-end contract workers. Allegis Group places employees in positions from engineers, to cable installers, to computer programmers, to marketing specialists.

Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level, or even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile, before purchasing the Ravens. "I'm OK if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, is quietly dedicated to a number of important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing and boating. He and his wife, Renée (Foote), are the parents of two sons: Jason, who has a master's in business, and Jack, who earned a degree in sports and entertainment management. Renée helped design the interior and selected the furnishings at the Ravens' training complex.

(Bisciotti is pronounced: bih-SHAH-tee.)

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts' players if I could wear their helmets."

DICK CASS
PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: PRINCETON / YALE LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 1/13/46, WASHINGTON, D.C.
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 11/11

Dick Cass is in his 11th year as president of the Ravens. Cass oversees every area of the organization, including player and staff personnel, the coaching team, corporate sales, communications and business ventures. In addition to his time with the Ravens, Cass has served as counsel to a number of NFL owners, including both the Washington Redskins and the Dallas Cowboys, as well as the NFL Office.

"Dick has had involvement with every aspect of an NFL team," Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti said. "His legal expertise, his working knowledge of the business, his relationships at the league office, and the respect he has earned around the league are significant assets for the franchise."

2004-14: (with Baltimore) 2013: ESPN The Magazine's "Ultimate Standings" ranked the Ravens as America's 10th-best U.S. professional sports franchise (and second-best NFL franchise). 2012: The Ravens defeated San Francisco, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII, capturing the franchise's second-ever Lombardi Trophy. 2009: A regional business group awarded Cass its Regional Visionary Award for setting a high standard for community service in the Baltimore region. 2008: Among all NFL clubs, the Ravens ranked in the top tier in sponsorship revenue, new sponsorship deals and ticket renewal rate following the '08 season...Helped guide a committee of eight to interview and select head coach John Harbaugh. 2007: Even though Baltimore was the country's then-27th-largest television market, the Ravens ranked in the NFL's top tier in total revenue...Forbes Magazine recognized the Ravens as having the NFL's second-fastest growing brand over the past three years (Aug. issue)...Cass keyed fundraising efforts for the $100,000 renovation of Collington Square School's playground. 2006: Saluted by former NFL commissioner Paul Tagliabue for Dick's input to the revenue-sharing plan of the NFL Collective Bargaining Agreement…Initiated fundraising after Hurricane Katrina that resulted in $1.2 million donated from the Ravens…Though dismissed by Cass, was mentioned prominently by media as a possible successor to Tagliabue...Instrumental in raising $1.2 million to refurbish Baltimore Polytechnic Institute's football stadium…The field allows all 18 Baltimore City public high schools to play at least two games per season at the venue. 2004: Cass was named president of the club in April and was Steve Bisciotti's first hire as new owner of the Ravens…Cass brought a wealth of business knowledge, plus legal and negotiating expertise to the club…Orchestrated a midseason move to the team's new facility in Owings Mills, coupling football operations and corporate into one complex.

1972-2003: (with Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering) A partner of the D.C.-based law firm of WCP for 31 years…Was chairman of the firm's Business Transactions Section and a member of its Management Committee…Had a general corporate and securities practice, representing companies and entrepreneurs in complex corporate partnership and securities transactions. 2003: Counsel to the Independent Commission of the US Olympics Committee. 2002: Was counsel to the owner of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets in the team's relocation to New Orleans. 2000: Represented Steve Bisciotti in the purchase of the Ravens from the Modell family. 1999: Represented the estate of Jack Kent Cooke in the sale of the Redskins to Daniel Snyder. 1992-93: Retained by the NFL as an advisor pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement with players. 1980s: Represented Cowboys owner Jerry Jones in the acquisition of the team and Texas Stadium…Advised Jones on a variety of matters, including sponsorship contracts, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and salary cap, NFL broadcast arrangements, NFL Internet policies, stadium financing, estate planning, local broadcast partnerships and the NFL substance abuse programs. 1979: Promoted to partner of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering law firm. 1972: Served his first year as a member of WCP.

COLLEGE: Graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton in 1968…A knee injury, coupled with surgery, kept him from athletics his first two years…Played rugby as a junior and senior…Graduated from Yale Law School in 1971.

PERSONAL: Clerked for a federal judge in Connecticut for a year before joining WCP, a firm with global offices…Father was in the Coast Guard…As a child, Dick moved around the country with his parents, making stops in Virginia, Maryland, Michigan, California, Washington, D.C., Florida and Massachusetts…Graduated from Mercersburg (PA) Academy, where he was student body president and captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams…He serves on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute, Baltimore Community Foundation and Bert Bell NFL Players Pension Plan…He has served on the boards of trustees for both Princeton and Mercersburg Academy…He continues as chairman of the Ravens Foundation…Dick's wife, Heather, owns an architecture firm, Cass and Associates…She is also a graduate of Yale (School of Architecture) and is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects…Their daughter, Courtney, is a Columbia graduate who taught in New York City public schools for three years and has since earned a law degree from the University of Virginia…She is currently the executive director of Teach for America Baltimore…Their son, Willy, is a graduate of St. Albans School in Washington, D.C., and a 2008 Yale University graduate (biomedical engineering)...He is currently enrolled at the University of Maryland Medical School.

OZZIE NEWSOME

GENERAL MANAGER & EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: ALABAMA
BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SHOALS, AL
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 37/19 (13 PLAYING / 24 FRONT OFFICE)

Ozzie Newsome's legacy is unlike any the game of football has ever seen.

Though he has flourished at every point of his football career, it's wrong to say that Newsome has followed a successful path. Instead, he has blazed the trail – one on which success has actually followed him. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV and Super Bowl XLVII championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager (2002).

"Ozzie's credibility is what stands out the most," Ravens head coach John Harbaugh states. "And it's not just about what he has accomplished. To me, it's his commitment and focus while striving to do more."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped on the gridiron with the hope of playing college football. That dream turned into a reality when he went on to star for Alabama under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the history of the game. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a tight end until Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (Tony Gonzalez has since set every such record).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome and Co. tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (the fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowl honors, Ogden became the first Ravens' draft choice elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2013), while Lewis, who retired following the 2012 campaign, is a surefire lock to be enshrined in Canton. Fittingly, the duo will join Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome has consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 18 drafts (1996-2013), Baltimore selected 18 first-rounders who have earned a total of 55 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens have had a high pick, they haven't missed. Of the seven players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, LB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis, the 2003 NFL Offensive Player of the Year, and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year) have earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore has picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis was twice named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap, chosen 31st, went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; S Ed Reed, the 24th pick, was tabbed an All-Star nine times and also earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004; QB Joe Flacco, selected 18th, was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP, leading the Ravens to their second World Championship in 2012.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history, Newsome and his staff have drafted 15 players who have earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott and 2013 Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker, who signed as rookie free agents in 2002 and 2012, respectively, Baltimore has produced 17 homegrown Pro Bowl players in just 18 NFL seasons.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Newsome has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with the scouts who work under him. The Ravens boast a methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. The "process" includes 18 full-time members of the personnel department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Most of Ozzie's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," a group that consists of members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

The Ravens do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a log of reports on players eligible for the draft. Instead, they make their own list, and that means looking at every player on a collegiate roster. "We do a lot of cross-checking," says Ravens assistant general manager Eric DeCosta, a graduate of Newsome's "20/20 Club." "A number of us look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

Newsome encourages all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that he wants to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, Ozzie believes the biggest strength of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"What sets us apart is that we have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, learning the way we do things," Newsome affirms. "And we have had some great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's not Ozzie. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

Newsome also fosters a working environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven Way," Newsome aims to create a synergy that manufactures success among the scouts, coaches and players. As a result, Baltimore has had many of its assistants move on to become head coaches both on the collegiate and NFL level: Jim Caldwell (Lions), Jack Del Rio (Jaguars), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Hue Jackson (Raiders), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Chuck Pagano (Colts), Mike Pettine (Browns), Rex Ryan (Jets), Jim Schwartz (Lions), David Shaw (Stanford), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals/Titans).

"[Ravens] players believe, and that's the beauty of it," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "Ozzie brings in the right kind of players, and one thing we've always talked about is we don't want to coach effort. And that's the thing – we don't. [Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with. That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

Newsome's motivation and work ethic are also reasons many people respect him. One specific way that devotion shines through is in his everyday routine. If Ozzie's not in his office or out on the practice field, he can be found on the treadmill in the Ravens' weight room. Exercising daily (and often putting in two-a-days), Ozzie says his workouts are just another way he tracks the pulse of the team.

"By being around the coaches and players out at practice," Newsome states, "and being in that weight room around those players, I think I get a chance to build some things in my mind of how I'd like the makeup of our football team."

"Talk to anyone who has watched [Ozzie] Newsome and his staff work up close, and they'll repeat a variation of the same theme: He made the rare transition from great player to great team executive and personnel evaluator by prioritizing listening, learning before talking, and being able to assimilate vast amounts of information and condense it down to its most salient points. Somehow, Newsome is able to block out the noise and avoid drowning in the details, which paves the way to more decisive and reasoned decision-making in the inherently inexact science that is football scouting and evaluation." – Don Banks, SI.com, 2013

A year-by-year look at Newsome's career:

2013: For the first time since 2008 – the year the Ravens hired John Harbaugh – Baltimore did not make the playoffs, falling one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North (the Ravens were 3-3 in the division, splitting with all three rivals)…Baltimore played an NFL-high nine games decided by 3 points or less (5-4 record in those contests)…Entering 2014, the Ravens, Colts, Patriots and Packers are the only teams to earn a playoff berth in five of the previous six seasons, with Baltimore making six postseason appearances in the past eight years…LB Daryl Smith, a key free agent acquisition, had 19 passes defensed, setting a Ravens' record by a linebacker (Ray Lewis, 13 in 2003)…Smith finished with career highs in sacks (5), INTs (3) & PD (19) and led the team in tackles (123)…OLB Terrell Suggs (10) and OLB Elvis Dumervil (9.5), another top free agent offseason signing, combined for 19.5 sacks, with Suggs earning his sixth Pro Bowl invite…NT Haloti Ngata was elected to his fifth Pro Bowl, while CB Lardarius Webb's 22 PD ranked as the NFL's second most… WR Torrey Smith tallied 1,128 receiving yards, the second most in single-season team history (Michael Jackson - 1,201 in 1996) and had a career-high 65 catches, posting the NFL's fifth-best yards-per-catch average (17.4)… Undrafted rookie WR Marlon Brown's 7 receiving TDs tied (Torrey Smith, 2011) for the most by a rookie in team history, while he also finished second (Smith, 2011) in catches (49) and receiving yards (524) by a Ravens' rookie…Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker set franchise records in FGs made (38) and FGs attempted (41) and produced a franchise-record 140 points (tied for sixth in NFL)…Tucker also had 6 FGs of 50-plus yards and kicked 3 game-winning FGs, including a team-record 61-yarder at Detroit.

2012: Capturing the franchise's second World Championship with a victory in Super Bowl XLVII, the Ravens finished with a 10-6 record (14-6 overall) en route to earning their fifth-straight playoff berth and second-consecutive AFC North title…Baltimore became the only NFL team to make the playoffs in each season from 2008-12 – with the Ravens also winning at least one playoff game each year…The Ravens also seized the franchise's fourth-ever division title with a 4-2 mark in AFC North play and an 8-4 overall conference record…Baltimore set a single-season franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most per game (24.9)…The Ravens scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg…Baltimore also surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a franchise single-season record low…The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular: In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), WR/RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7). Rookie K Justin Tucker, an undrafted free agent signing, made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and also the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history…En route to winning Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in New Orleans, the Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history: Averaging 410.3 yards of offense (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass) per game, Baltimore scored 31.0 points per contest while allowing just 22.0. WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while Jones posted a 29.4 receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards. (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl.)…With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying

RAVENS KEY FREE AGENT SIGNINGS

Not only have the Ravens' drafts been productive, but their free agent signings have proven masterful. "We've been able to recruit and sign veterans who helped us win Super Bowls and kept us competitive in other seasons," Newsome states.

the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008). (Flacco and Montana did not throw an interception during those respective postseasons.) Flacco finished the Super Bowl 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating (eighth-best mark in SB history) and earned game MVP honors…The Ravens' defense was also stout during the playoffs, registering 10 take-aways (6 INTs and 4 FRs) to produce a +6 overall turnover differential. The unit posted 9 sacks in four playoff games, including 4.5 by OLB Paul Kruger…For their regular season efforts, six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and Jones (first).

2011: The Ravens became the only NFL team to earn the playoffs from 2008-11, also winning the AFC North by sweeping the division for the first time in franchise history…Producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, Baltimore also went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season… Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, but the Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a last-second, 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game…The Ravens' defense, which finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed…RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in rushing (1,364)...Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs…WR Torrey Smith, the Ravens' 2011 second-round draft pick, was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards…Eight Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), 2011 free agent acquisition FB Vonta Leach (second), RB Ray Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first)…Suggs was also named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, marking the fourth time a Raven has won the honor (Reed - 2004, and Lewis - 2003 & 2000).

2010: Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2)…Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10…The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row (the Ravens later extended their record to five years in 2012)…In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed, 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons…John Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to take over a sub-.500 team and then win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons…Five Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh), and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth)…Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, acquired by Newsome in an offseason trade with Arizona, tallied team highs of 64 catches and 837 receiving yards.

2009: After posting a 9-7 record, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09)...Behind an offense that ranked ninth in NFL scoring (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards (300.5 ypg) and points (16.3 ppg) allowed, the Ravens upended the Patriots (33-14) in the Wild Card round, becoming the first road team to win a playoff game at New England since 1978...For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season... Five Ravens were voted into the Pro Bowl, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and Rice (first)...Rookie T Michael Oher, who started all 16 games, finished second for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) and earned All-Rookie team honors.

2008: Along with owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and several other front office executives, Newsome headed the search committee that hired first-year head coach John Harbaugh...The Ravens posted an 11-5 regular season record and advanced to the AFC Championship game, where they fell to the eventual Super Bowl champion Steelers… Led by Newsome and Harbaugh, Baltimore produced 13 total victories, which set an NFL record for most wins by a first-year head coach (Harbaugh) and rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco)…Baltimore's stifling defense – ranked No. 2 in the NFL – set several franchise records, while the Ravens also had five players earn Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, ST Brendon Ayanbadejo, OLB Terrell Suggs and FB Le'Ron McClain…Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

2007: Despite finishing 5-11 in an injury-marred season (Baltimore lost 77 games to starters), the Ravens sent four players to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed and RB Willis McGahee...Former free agent acquisition WR Derrick Mason (2005) set a Ravens' single-season record with 103 receptions...Ravens had six different rookies start a game, tying for the second most in the NFL.

2006: Baltimore produced the best record in franchise history with a 13-3 mark before falling to Indianapolis in the Divisional Playoff, 15-6...Thanks to key offseason free agent additions like 2003 NFL co-MVP QB Steve McNair, four-time Pro Bowl DT Trevor Pryce and Pro Bowl special teamer Gary Stills, the Ravens improved in all three phases of the game... Additionally, the Ravens had five rookie draft picks start at least one contest, including first-rounder DT Haloti Ngata (16 games) and fifth-round pick S Dawan Landry (14 games)... Both Ngata and Landry earned PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team honors and were integral pieces of Baltimore's No. 1-ranked defense...Ravens produced eight Pro Bowl players, including McNair...After the Ravens' 27-26 win at Tennessee, keyed by McNair's 376-yard, 3-TD effort and Pryce's game-clinching FG block, Newsome was awarded the game ball for his efforts in building the 2006 team.

2005: A difficult season ended with a 6-10 record…The Ravens lost 67 games to starting players with injuries, third most in the NFL…Pro Bowlers WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle, were added for the campaign…T Jonathan Ogden made his ninth-straight Pro Bowl…First-round draft choice WR Mark Clayton set then-rookie records with single-season franchise highs in catches (44) and yards (471).

2004: Baltimore, with key starters missing a total of 53 games, fell one game short of the playoffs, finishing with a 9-7 mark…S Ed Reed, the Ravens' first pick in 2002, was named the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year…Reed, LB Ray Lewis, CB Chris McAlister, T Jonathan Ogden and OLB Terrell Suggs all made the Pro Bowl…In June 2004, the Pro Football Writers Association honored Newsome with the Jack Horrigan Award for his cooperation and understanding of the media.

2003: Ravens won their first division title with a 10-6 record... Baltimore hosted the Titans in the Wild Card game, but fell, 20-17…Ravens sent an NFL-best (tied with KC) eight players to the Pro Bowl, all of whom were originally drafted by Baltimore…The Ravens picked OLB Terrell Suggs (first round, 10th overall), who posted a team rookie-record 12 sacks and earned NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors…RB Jamal Lewis was named the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year, posting the second-most rushing yards in league history (2,066)…LB Ray Lewis earned his second (2000) Defensive Player of the Year honor.

2002: Newsome and his staff assembled the youngest team in NFL history…Most observers predicted the Ravens would win very few games, but Baltimore entered Week 15 with a 7-7 mark and a chance to be the AFC's top Wild Card playoff team… Two last-minute losses to Cleveland (14-13) and at Pittsburgh (34-31) gave Baltimore a 7-9 mark…That year's draft produced two immediate starters (S Ed Reed & DE Anthony Weaver) and standout returner Lamont Brightful…Reed led the Ravens with 5 INTs and made every NFL All-Rookie team.

2001: Picking late in each round after winning Super Bowl XXXV, Newsome and his staff continued to draft well by selecting TE Todd Heap (first round, 31st overall), who finished his Ravens career in 2010 as the franchise's all-time leader in TD catches (41)…Ravens concluded the season with a 10-6 record and won at Miami (21-3) in the Wild Card game before falling in the Divisional Playoff at Pittsburgh (27-10)…Six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors.

2000: Newsome was voted the NFL's Executive of the Year… Finishing 12-4, the Ravens earned a Wild Card berth and won Super Bowl XXXV, 34-7, over the New York Giants… Baltimore's bruising defense, considered one of the best in league history, permitted just 970 rushing yards and 165 points – both NFL records in a 16-game season…The architects of the Ravens' Super Bowl championship team, Newsome and his staff hit gold with the selection of RB Jamal Lewis (the team's all-time leading rusher) with the fifth pick in the first round…As a rookie, Lewis set a then-Ravens' team record with 1,364 rushing yards…The Ravens had five Pro Bowlers, including key free agents DT Sam Adams and S Rod Woodson, whom Newsome signed to the team.

1999: The Ravens finished 8-8 in Brian Billick's first season as head coach and had five players named to the Pro Bowl… Newsome continued a hot hand at drafting by tabbing Arizona CB Chris McAlister (10th overall), who earned three Pro Bowls (2003-04 and 2006) in Baltimore.

1998: Coordinated the selection of CB Duane Starks with the Ravens' first pick (10th overall)…Starks tied for the NFL's INT lead among rookies that year (equaling Charles Woodson's 5)…Starks then added 5 more thefts in his second season and led the Ravens with 6 picks in 2000, including a 49-yard INT for a TD against the NY Giants in Super Bowl XXXV.

OZZIE NEWSOME

1997: In their second draft, the Ravens picked eventual four-time Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware, LB Jamie Sharper, S Kim Herring and C Jeff Mitchell – all of whom became starters against the Giants in the Super Bowl XXXV victory… Boulware, the Ravens' No. 2 all-time sacks leader (70, behind OLB Terrell Suggs - 94.5), was the consensus choice for NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and led the AFC in sacks (15) in 2001.

1996: Art Modell invited Newsome to join him as the Ravens' VP of player personnel when the team moved from Cleveland to Baltimore…Under Newsome's direction, the 1996 draft produced two perennial Pro Bowlers in T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis, who was MVP in Super Bowl XXXV and the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000 and 2003… Also earning the Pro Bowl as a returner was WR Jermaine Lewis (1998 and 2001), a fifth-rounder in that draft, who still holds many franchise career return records.

1991-95: (with Cleveland) First position in the Browns' front office was as a special assignment scout…Two years later (1993), Newsome was promoted to a very comprehensive assignment – assistant to the head coach (Bill Belichick)/ offense/pro personnel…In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel…Although he continued to help on the field, Newsome provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire.

NFL PLAYER: 1978-90: (with Cleveland) Newsome retired after 13 years as a premier NFL tight end…Entering 2014, his 662 receptions and 7,980 receiving yards both rank fifth most all time by a TE (each mark also stands as the most ever by any player in Browns history)…Newsome also caught 47 career touchdown passes, fourth most in Browns annals… Newsome ended his career as the fourth-leading NFL receiver of all time…He earned three Pro Bowls (1981, 1984-85) and was a four-time winner of the Cleveland Touchdown Club's Offensive Player of the Year award (1978, 1981 and 1983-84)…His streak of 150 consecutive games with a catch by a TE is the second longest in NFL history…Winner of the 1990 Byron "Whizzer" White Award as the NFL's top community volunteer…Newsome, who was named to the All-NFL team of the 1980's (second team), consistently received All-AFC and All-NFL honors throughout his career…He was a 1978 No. 1 draft choice (23rd overall), along with LB Clay Matthews (12th overall), and the two are among an elite group of Browns to have played for three decades…The others are Gene Hickerson (1958-60, 62-73), Dick Schafrath (1959-71) and Don Cockroft (1968-80)…Until former Raven Shannon Sharpe broke his records in 2001, Newsome's pro career was the most productive of any TE in NFL history…Newsome was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1999…Calvin Hill (RB - Dallas, Washington, Cleveland), a close friend of his, introduced Newsome at the induction ceremony.

"Really, Ozzie is an ambassador for the NFL, period. I think about three 'C's' when I think about Ozzie: classy, consistency and championships. That's what I think about. We're all chasing Ozzie Newsome, man. He doesn't talk about it, but go in his office, he's got skins on the wall. He doesn't have to talk about it. His résumé says it all for him."

– Jerry Reese, NY Giants GM

"If you're smart and humble, you realize that you have to work harder than you did the year before. I think it takes a great deal of humility throughout the organization, and that's why they have a chance. The leadership group in terms of Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and John [Harbaugh] – they are all strong men with tremendous humility. They don't think they have it all figured out."

– Scott Pioli, Falcons Assistant GM

"Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, [assistant general manager] Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

- SiriusXM Radio's Adam Schein

"The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

- Don Banks, SportsIllustrated.com

"As a player, he was known as the Wizard of Oz, a Hall of Fame tight end who was hard to stop. As a drafter, he's a master of finding the right players."

- John Clayton, ESPN

"The Ravens' general manager [Ozzie Newsome] has built a perennial playoff participant through the draft, and he's done so by spotlighting the kinds of players the organization is now known for – those who play like they'd do it for free. Gritty, tough and with a love of the game. Hard-nosed, nasty and with a certain violence. If you're choosing sides for a street fight, think about how many Ravens you'd want on your team."

– Ian Rapoport, NFL.com

"The genius of his ability to absorb all the information is second to none. I always equate it to watching him look at the draft board is like watching Russell Crowe [play Nobel Laureate in economics John Nash] in the movie 'A Beautiful Mind,' in that scene where the math just kind of comes off the board for him. That's Ozzie with all those names and statistics. Of course, he has a great eye for talent, too, but his ability to orchestrate that process, to gain that information, is unmatched."

JOHN HARBAUGH

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)
BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 17/7

Super Bowl-winning head coach John Harbaugh, who led the Ravens to the franchise's second World Championship in 2012, enters his seventh season at the helm in Baltimore. Harbaugh has been historically good, with his teams earning the playoffs in five of his first six seasons, including the initial five (2008-12).

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's getting more difficult to ignore Harbaugh's measurable success. Here's a look, entering the 2014 season:

- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.
- In 2012, Harbaugh became the third head coach in NFL history to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons, with Baltimore owning a 9-4 postseason mark during his tenure.
- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped out to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.
- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012) and won at least one playoff game during each of their first five postseasons with him as head coach.
- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011, 2012 and 2013), the 49ers' head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.
- "Harbs" owns the NFL's fourth-best winning percentage (.651) among active head coaches, compiling a 71-38 overall record (including playoffs). For active head coaches who've coached a minimum of 60 games, Harbaugh ranks second behind Bill Belichick (.657).
- Harbaugh's .692 postseason winning percentage (9-4 playoff mark) ranks first among active coaches.
- Baltimore's 71 total victories since Harbaugh's arrival in 2008 rank second most in the NFL, while the team's 62 regular season wins during that time stand third.
- Under Harbaugh, the Ravens have posted a 39-9 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past six seasons, ranking as the NFL's second-best home record during that span (2008-13).
- Entering 2014, the Ravens, Colts, Patriots and Packers are the only teams to earn a playoff berth in five of the previous six seasons.

From his job interview with the Ravens, to his first press conference, to his consistent action and talk about the Ravens, it is all about "the team" for Harbaugh. Signs can be seen around the Ravens' training complex that read: "The Team, The Team, The Team."

"My coaching philosophy can be summed up easily," said Harbaugh, the third head coach in Ravens history, following Ted Marchibroda (1996-98) and Brian Billick (1999-2007).

JOHN HARBAUGH

"The three most important things are the team, the team and the team. Everything we do is to make the team better. Individuals can let their lights shine, and we encourage that. But, nothing should detract from making the team better."

Despite his early success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome] and the scouts. It's about Dick [Cass] and the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best."

Unlike other NFL head coaches, "Harbs" took the road less traveled. Most NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word "coordinator" after offensive or defensive, or they emerge from heading big-time college programs. Before becoming the Ravens' head coach in 2008, John was the Eagles' secondary coach (2007), and prior to that, Philadelphia's special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and a 14-year collegiate coach. (Harbaugh also grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

In 1998, then-Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes originally hired Harbaugh, who quickly established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches. Subsequently, he was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring Harbaugh, the Ravens talked with over 30 people about the energetic coach. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," stated team owner Steve Bisciotti. "We obviously picked the right person."

Simply put, Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he stated. "We want to become something. We seek the highest levels."

His teams are balanced, disciplined and hard-nosed. "We want to be the most physical team, but we also want to be the cleanest. Hard-hitting and playing with physicality does not mean dirty," he added.

A year-by-year look at Harbaugh's Baltimore career:

2013: For the first time since Harbaugh's 2008 arrival, Baltimore did not make the playoffs, falling one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North…The Ravens were 3-3 in the division, splitting the series with all three rivals…Baltimore played an NFL-high nine games decided by 3 points or less, compiling a 5-4 record in those contests…How close were the Ravens to making the playoffs? They were tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter in the season-ending loss at Cincinnati, needing a victory to secure what would have been their sixth-straight postseason berth…OLB Terrell Suggs (10) and OLB Elvis Dumervil (9.5) combined for 19.5 sacks, with Suggs earning his sixth Pro Bowl invite…NT Haloti Ngata was elected to his fifth Pro Bowl, while CB Lardarius Webb's 22 PD ranked as the NFL's second most…WR Torrey Smith tallied 1,128 receiving yards, the second most in single-season team history (Michael Jackson - 1,201 in 1996) and had a career-high 65 catches, posting the NFL's fifth-best yards-per-catch average (17.4)…Undrafted rookie WR Marlon Brown's 7 receiving TDs tied (Torrey Smith, 2011) for the most by a rookie in team history, while he also finished second (Smith, 2011) in catches (49) and receiving yards (524) by a Ravens' rookie…Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker set franchise records in FGs made (38) and FGs attempted (41) and produced a franchise-record 140 points (tied for sixth in NFL)…Tucker also had 6 FGs of 50-plus yards and kicked 3 game-winning FGs, including a team-record 61-yarder at Detroit…G Marshal Yanda also earned his third Pro Bowl honor.

2012: The Ravens captured a second-consecutive AFC North title with a 10-6 mark before sweeping four playoff games to win Super Bowl XLVII: 24-9 over the visiting Colts on Wild Card weekend; 38-35 in double overtime at Denver in the Divisional Round; 28-13 at New England in the AFC Championship – shutting out the Patriots, who owned the league's top offense, in the second half; and then topping the 49ers, 34-31, in New Orleans after jumping to a 28-6 third-quarter lead…Showing a resolve that was a hallmark of that championship team, the Ravens overcame a three-game December losing streak and 53 games lost to defensive starters to win the title…Baltimore became the only NFL team to make the playoffs in each season from 2008-12 – with the Ravens also winning at least one playoff game each year…Baltimore set a single-season franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most points per game (24.9)…The Ravens scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg…Baltimore surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a franchise single-season record low…The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular: In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), WR/RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7)…Rookie K Justin Tucker, an undrafted free agent signing, made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history…En route to winning Super Bowl XLVII, the Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history by averaging 410.3 yards of offense (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass) per game, scoring 31.0 points per contest and allowing just 22.0…WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while Jones posted a 29.4 receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl.)…With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008)…Flacco finished the Super Bowl 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating (eighth-best mark in SB history) and earned game MVP honors…The Ravens' defense was also stout during the playoffs, registering 10 take-aways (6 INTs and 4 FRs) to produce a +6 turnover differential…For their regular season efforts, six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and Jones (first).

JOHN HARBAUGH

With his daughter, Alison, by his side, John celebrated the Ravens' 34-31 Super Bowl XLVII victory over the San Francisco 49ers at the Superdome in New Orleans (2/3/13). CBS Sports' Jim Nantz interviewed Harbaugh on the victory stage.

2011: Producing a second-straight 12-4 record (13-5 overall), Baltimore won the AFC North, sweeping the division for the first time in team history…The Ravens were 6-0 against playoff teams (7-1 including postseason), matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers during the regular season…In what was a franchise first, the Ravens also went unbeaten at home (9-0 with a playoff victory over Houston)…Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over the Texans, and then fell, 23-20, in a heartbreaking AFC Championship thriller at New England…The Ravens' defense, which finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed…RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in rushing (1,364)...Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs…WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards…Eight Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), FB Vonta Leach (second), Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first)…Suggs was also named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, marking the fourth time a Raven has won the honor (Reed - 2004 and Lewis - 2003 & 2000).

2010: Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2)…Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10…The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row (the Ravens later extended their record to five years in 2012)…In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons…Baltimore then dropped a 31-24 Divisional Round contest at Pittsburgh, which advanced to the Super Bowl…

HARBAUGH SECOND IN NFL

John Harbaugh's Ravens produced 71 combined wins (62 regular season) in six seasons (2008-13). John is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

JOHN HARBAUGH

RAVENS OWNER STEVE BISCIOTTI ON HARBAUGH

"What I commend John for is that he spends a lot of time one-on-one with these guys. The 52nd or 53rd guy on the roster is just as likely to be in a one-on-one meeting with John as Ray Lewis [was]. From an organizational standpoint, John understands that those guys on the bottom 15 – if you will – could be in [the game] at any given moment, so he spends an inordinate amount of time with the guys – the second half of the roster – so that he understands them. He has a real one-on-one relationship with them, and when it comes time to put them in, he knows what their strengths and weaknesses are. You can't run a business by talking in front of a group. John spends the majority of his time in one-on-one meetings, and I think it's the right way to run a business."

John Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to take over a sub-.500 team and then win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons…Five Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth)…WR Anquan Boldin tallied team highs of 64 catches and 837 receiving yards, while QB Joe Flacco produced career highs in TD passes (25) and passer rating (93.6)…RB Ray Rice finished with 1,776 yards from scrimmage, the NFL's third most.

2009: After posting a 9-7 record, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09)...Behind the NFL's ninth-ranked scoring offense (24.4 ppg) and a defense that finished third in total yards and points allowed (300.5 ypg/16.3 ppg), the Ravens upended the Patriots (33-14) in the Wild Card round, becoming the first road team to win a playoff game at New England since 1978...For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season... Five Ravens were voted into the Pro Bowl, including LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and Rice (first), who tallied the NFL's second-most yards from scrimmage (2,041)...Rookie T Michael Oher, who started all 16 games, finished second for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote) and earned All-Rookie team honors.

2008: In Harbaugh's initial Baltimore season, the Ravens produced an 11-5 record and advanced to the AFC Championship game after winning at Miami (27-9) and at the AFC's top-seeded Tennessee Titans, 13-10…Pittsburgh, the eventual Super Bowl champion, stopped the Ravens (23-14) in the AFC title matchup at Heinz Field…This first Harbaugh/Ravens team tied the NFL record (since 1978) for turnarounds by a head coach taking over a sub-.500 team…The Ravens' 2-1 playoff record following that regular season campaign established a new league standard in this same category…With 13 total victories in 2008, Harbaugh set the NFL record for the most wins ever by a rookie head coach starting a rookie quarterback (Joe Flacco)…Baltimore's stifling defense ranked No. 2 in the NFL by allowing 261.1 yards per game and was No. 3 in points allowed per game (15.3)...Baltimore also produced an NFL-best 26 INTs, including five returned for touchdowns…Five players earned Pro Bowl honors: LB Ray Lewis (10th), S Ed Reed (fifth), ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), OLB Terrell Suggs (third) and FB Le'Ron McClain (first)…Flacco, who became the first rookie QB ever to win two playoff games, was named the Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year (NFL.com fan vote).

MAKING HIS MARK

John Harbaugh owns the fourth-best winning percentage (.651) among active NFL head coaches, compiling a 71-38 overall record (including playoffs). For active head coaches who have coached a minimum of 60 games, Harbaugh ranks second behind Bill Belichick.

ACTIVE HEAD COACH CAREER WINNING PERCENTAGE
(Totals Include Regular Season and Playoff Games)

Rk.	Coach	Team	Seasons	Record	Pct.
1.	Jim Harbaugh	49ers	2011-13	41-14-1	.732
2.	Bill Belichick	Cle./NE	1991-95, 2000-03	218-114	.657

5.	Sean Payton	Saints	2006-13	79-43	.648
6.	Mike Tomlin	Steelers	2007-13	76-44	.633

Quick Hit: Harbaugh, George Seifert (49ers) and Mike Holmgren (Packers) own the most playoff victories (9) by an NFL head coach in the first six seasons of a coaching career (since the 1970 merger).

ADDITIONAL RAVENS NOTES DURING HARBAUGH ERA: Impressively, the Ravens' top four seasons for fewest turnovers have all occurred during Harbaugh's tenure. In 2012, Baltimore set a franchise single-season record for fewest turnovers (16), breaking the previous mark of 20 from 2010. Constantly stressing attention to detail, Harbaugh's 2010 and 2011 teams combined to produce the fewest penalties (182) over a two-year stretch in franchise history.

Maintaining a strong defensive tradition, the Ravens finished four (2008-11) of the past six seasons as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3. Harbaugh's red zone defense has finished in the Top 5 in five of his six seasons, including first overall in 2011 and second in both 2012 and 2008.

The Ravens' offense has also experienced record-setting successes during the Harbaugh Era. In 2013, Flacco set career highs in passing yards (3,912), completions (362) and attempts (614). Flacco's completions and attempts also set new franchise marks, continuing to extend his title as the franchise's all-time passing leader (1,869-of-3,103 for 21,545 yards and 121 TDs). Under Harbaugh's guidance, Flacco has produced 62 regular season wins, the most by a starting quarterback in the first six seasons of a career. Three-time Pro Bowl RB Ray Rice has led the NFL in yards from scrimmage (8,487) since 2009, and in 2013, became the Ravens' career leader in that category (9,214). During Baltimore's 2012 Super Bowl-winning campaign, the Ravens set team records with 398 points scored and 72 plays of at least 20 yards gained (third most in the league).

On special teams, an impressive four Ravens players have earned Pro Bowl honors while playing for Harbaugh: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012) and K Justin Tucker (2013). A byproduct of the Ravens consistently producing one of the NFL's top special teams units, during Harbaugh's tenure (since 2008), Baltimore has posted the NFL's No. 1 kickoff return average (25.0) and fourth-most KOR-TDs (five).

NFL ASSISTANT COACH: 1998-2007 (with Philadelphia) Harbaugh's special teams in Philadelphia were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, the Eagles' units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' comprehensive special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, Philly ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams units from 29th to first in the league.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers became a three-time Pro Bowler. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the then-Top 2 punting averages (38.4 in 2005 and 37.4 in 2004) in Eagles history. Under "Harbs," 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and RS Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8 punt return average in 2005.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Among John's 30 years of coaching is a two-year stint (1995-96) as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati, finishing 6-5 both seasons with the Bearcats. He coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the collegiate level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the tight ends at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried. While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers, running backs and was also the recruiting coordinator.

Over eight years, Harbaugh recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR average in 1995) and the second-ranked returner (current Ravens assistant defensive backs coach Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR average in 1993). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator, under former Ravens offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the defensive backs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

COACHING HONORS: In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue (see page 70). Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

Following the 2001 campaign during his time with the Eagles, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season.

HARBAUGH COACHING FAMILY: Harbaugh is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was named the San Francisco 49ers' head coach in January 2011. In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between head coaches who are brothers, John's Ravens bested Jim's 49ers, 16-6, in a 2011 Thanksgiving Night (Nov. 24) primetime special. The Ravens, of course, then topped the 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII. The brothers' sister, Joani, is married to Indiana University basketball coach Tom Crean.

COLLEGE: Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award as a defensive back for the Redhawks. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan.

PERSONAL: Devoted to his family and his Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He's a board member for the Port Discovery Children's Museum and a significant contributor to All Pro Dads, along with numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to both the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House.

Harbaugh has also been an advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (Harbaugh was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh took part in the annual NFL-USO coaches' tour of the Middle East in 2009, has visited numerous military bases in the U.S. and abroad (including a 2014 February trip to the Middle East), has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has sent care packages to troops overseas.

In 2008, Harbaugh also helped institute Military Appreciation Day, an annual event that takes place during Ravens training camp. Since its establishment, an estimated 8,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet with Ravens players and coaches each summer. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. A self-proclaimed history buff, during offseason team activities, Harbaugh has also taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, PA, to learn about the Civil War.

John, who attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS, Ingrid, and their daughter, Alison, live in Baltimore County.

General Raymond Odierno, Chief of Staff of the Army, presented John Harbaugh with an Outstanding Civilian Service Award at Joint Base Myer-Henderson Hall, VA, on Wednesday, May 23, 2012.

JERRY ROSBURG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: NORTH DAKOTA STATE
BORN: 11/24/55, FAIRMONT, MN
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 14/7

Jerry Rosburg, a 36-year coaching veteran, has guided a strong special teams group since arriving in Baltimore in 2008. Since that time (2008-13), Baltimore has produced the NFL's No. 1 kickoff return average (25.0) and fourth-most KOR-TDs (5). Especially over the past two seasons (2012-13), the Ravens' special teams units have excelled. In 2013, Rosburg's kickoff return unit posted the NFL's second-best average (26.4), while the punt return team ranked third (14.2 average). WR/RS Tandon Doss had the league's best punt return average (15.6), while K Justin Tucker earned his first Pro Bowl nod following a record-setting season. Tucker set franchise records in FGs made (38) and FGs attempted (41), with both figures tying (Stephen Gostkowski) for the NFL's most. He also produced a franchise-record 140 points (tied for sixth in the NFL), while his 6 FGs of 50+ yards tied (several kickers) for the NFL's most. In the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, the 2013 Ravens ranked fifth in the NFL. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as a special teams measuring stick.) In 2012, WR/RS Jacoby Jones earned a Pro Bowl berth as a return specialist, and Baltimore ranked first in the NFL in kickoff return average (27.3), also setting a team record. Jones, who became the first player ever to record dual KORs of at least 105 yards in a career, tied for a league-leading 3 kick return TDs (2 KORs & 1 PR) and averaged an NFL-best 30.7 yards per kickoff return. Jones also tied an NFL record for longest KOR in Super Bowl history with his 108-yard KOR-TD in Super Bowl XLVII. The kickers were special in 2012, too: P Sam Koch, one of the league's most accurate and consistent punters, set Ravens single-season punting records with a 47.1 gross average and a 40.8 net average, shattering career bests. Tucker, then a rookie, made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the then-second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and also the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history. Gosselin ranked the Super Bowl Champion Ravens second in 2012. The 2010 Ravens special teams were ranked eighth by Gosselin: K Billy Cundiff earned Pro Bowl honors by tying an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs were moved back to the 30-yard line), and Koch, a 2010 Pro Bowl first alternate, was second in the NFL with 39 punts inside the 20, just three short of the all-time NFL record. Then-rookie RS David Reed led the NFL in KOR average (29.3 ypr) in 2010, and the team ranked third in the league in opponent average starting field position (27.2-yard line). In 2009, Rosburg's unit ranked second in the league in kickoff return average (26.2). In 2008, special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl, and Koch had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Prior to his arrival in Baltimore, Rosburg built a successful NFL special teams resume both with the Browns (2001-06) and Falcons (2007) after a strong collegiate coaching career. Also, under his leadership, Cleveland's special teams units were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. Over a five-year span (2002-06), the Browns' special teams were ranked as the top NFL team in Gosselin's report.

2008-13: (with Baltimore) Ravens special teams units have been impressive under Rosburg's direction...K Justin Tucker (2013), WR/RS Jacoby Jones (2012) and K Billy Cundiff (2010) earned their first Pro Bowls, while special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo made his third Pro Bowl in 2008. 2013: Tucker produced the second-best field goal success rate (92.7, 38-

GARY KUBIAK
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: TEXAS A&M
BORN: 8/15/61, HOUSTON, TX
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 21/1

Gary Kubiak, now in his 21st season as an NFL coach and first overall as the Ravens' offensive coordinator, spent the past eight seasons (2006-13) as head coach of the Houston Texans. Under his leadership, the Texans earned back-to-back AFC South crowns in 2011 and 2012 – the franchise's first divisional titles – and two playoff berths. Kubiak owns a Houston franchise-record 63 victories, establishing a 63-66 mark (61-64 regular season, 2-2 postseason) at the helm. From 2007-12, the Texans earned their Top 6 all-time offensive outputs in scoring, total offense and passing yards. During this time, Houston also boasted the franchise's Top 3 rushing figures, including the NFL's No. 2 ground attack in 2011 when it produced a franchise-record 153.0 yards per game. Over a five-year period extending from 2008-12, Kubiak's offense was one of only two teams (Denver) to have its total offense, passing offense and rushing offense each rank in the Top 5 at least once during that span.

2006-13: (with Houston) 2012: Texans finished a franchise-best 12-4 to earn their second-straight AFC South title while reaching the Divisional Playoffs for the second-consecutive season...Houston was one of two teams (Denver) to finish in the Top 10 in both total offense and defense (seventh in both that season)...Offense averaged 26.0 points per game to set a team record...WR Andre Johnson led the AFC with 1,598 receiving yards...DE J.J. Watt registered an NFL-best 20.5 sacks, becoming the first player in franchise history to be named Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year... Three starting offensive linemen – LT Duane Brown, LG Wade Smith and C Chris Meyers – earned Pro Bowl honors, while a conference-best nine total Texans were voted to the NFL's All-Star game. 2011: Was named the KC 101 AFC Coach of the Year after leading Houston to a 10-6 regular season finish and the franchise's first divisional title, playoff berth and postseason victory...Despite losing QB Matt Schaub and QB Matt Leinart to season-ending injuries, the Texans produced a franchise-record seven-game winning streak and ranked second in the league in rushing (153.0 ypg)... Behind rookie QB T.J. Yates, Houston earned its first-ever postseason win in the Wild Card round over Cincinnati and advanced to the Divisional Playoff against Baltimore. 2010: Texans set a team record in total offense for the fourth-consecutive season and ranked third in the NFL by averaging 386.6 total net yards per game...Houston was the only AFC team to finish in the Top 10 in both rushing (127.6 ypg - third) and passing (259.0 ypg - fourth)...RB Arian Foster set new team standards after finishing with a league-high 1,616 rushing yards, 2,220 yards from scrimmage and 18 overall TDs...Schaub became the NFL's 12th-ever QB to eclipse 4,000 passing yards in back-to-back seasons. 2009: Texans' offense ranked fourth overall in the NFL (383.1 ypg) and averaged an NFL-high 290.9 passing yards per contest...Schaub ranked first in the league with 4,770 passing yards while also tallying a career-high 98.6 passer rating. 2006: Kubiak became the second head coach in Houston Texans history.

1995-2005: (with Denver) Spent 11 seasons with the Denver Broncos as an offensive coordinator (1995-2005) and quarterbacks coach (1995-2002)...Facilitated the Broncos' offense reaching new heights with the success of Hall of Famers QB John Elway and TE Shannon Sharpe and RB Terrell Davis, with Denver earning seven postseason trips

DEAN PEES
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: BOWLING GREEN
BORN: 9/4/49, DUNKIRK, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 11/5

Dean Pees, the sixth defensive coordinator in team history, is in his third season leading the Ravens' defense. Pees, who was New England's defensive coordinator from 2006-09, directs the acclaimed Baltimore unit, whose history speaks for itself. The 2013 defense finished 12th in both yards (335.5) and points (22.0) allowed per game and was stellar on third down, permitting a 33.5% conversion rate (third in NFL). Veterans NT Haloti Ngata (fifth invite) and OLB Terrell Suggs (sixth invite) earned Pro Bowl honors, leading a defense that endured the departure of perennial stalwarts LB Ray Lewis (retired) and S Ed Reed (free agent). In 2012, his first year as coordinator, Pees guided a group that was depleted by injuries to key starters, including the 2011 Defensive Player of the Year, Suggs, who missed the first six games, and Lewis, who missed the final 10 regular season games. Led by Pro Bowl selections Ngata and Reed, the Super Bowl-winning defense was the NFL's second best in the red zone, surrendering a 43.4% TD mark inside the 20. Pees joined the Ravens in 2010 as linebackers coach and helped the unit finish as the third-best scoring defense (points allowed per game) in four-consecutive years (2008-11). The four-straight years tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed. Pees arrived in Baltimore following a six-year stint with the New England Patriots (2004-09). During his tenure guiding the defense, the Patriots were the only NFL team to finish in the Top 10 in scoring defense in four-straight seasons. New England's unit also allowed fewer than 20 points per game in every season under Pees' guidance, the best run of any coordinator in the Bill Belichick era. Pees' coaching credentials include six years (1998-2003) as head coach at Kent State and 15 seasons as a defensive coordinator on the collegiate level, including the 1983 season when he coached Ravens head coach John Harbaugh at Miami (OH).

2010-13: (with Baltimore) 2013: Unit ranked third in third-down defense (33.5%) and finished 12th both in points (22.0 ppg) and yards (335.5 ypg) allowed...Pro Bowlers NT Haloti Ngata (fifth) and OLB Terrell Suggs (sixth) led the group that lost stalwarts LB Ray Lewis (retired) and S Ed Reed (free agent)...Ravens were seventh in red zone defense, surrendering a 48.8% TD mark inside the 20...LB Daryl Smith was one of three NFL defenders to post at least 100 tackles, 5 sacks and 3 INTs (his 123 tackles led the Ravens), while his 19 PD set a team record by a LB, breaking Ray Lewis' mark of 13 in 2003...CB Lardarius Webb was second in the league with 22 PD. 2012: Promoted to defensive coordinator...Led by Pro Bowl selections Ngata (fourth) and Reed (ninth), the Super Bowl-winning defense was the NFL's second best in the red zone (43.4%)....Baltimore permitted 21.5 points per game, tying (NYG) for the NFL's 12th-best mark. 2011: Defense allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-consecutive season...Two of Pees' LBs, Lewis (13th) and Suggs (fifth), earned a trip to the Pro Bowl...Despite missing four games due to a toe injury, Lewis led the team with 95 tackles, and Suggs, who was named the 2011 Defensive Player of the Year, posted a team-leading and career-high 14 sacks, while also forcing an NFL-high 7 FFs. 2010: Ravens allowed the NFL's third-fewest points (16.9 ppg) for the third-consecutive season...Lewis led the team with 145 tackles and became the only player in NFL history with at least 35 sacks and 30 INTs...Joined Baltimore as the team's linebackers coach.

2004-09: (with New England) 2009: Pees led the Patriots' defense that ranked 11th in the NFL in total defense (320.2 ypg)

CLARENCE BROOKS

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
BORN: 5/20/51, NEW YORK CITY, NY
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 22/10

Clarence Brooks ("C.B."), now in his 10th year guiding the Ravens' tough and stingy defensive line, was one of six assistant coaches retained by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008. The Brooks-led defensive front has been anchored by five-time Pro Bowl NT Haloti Ngata since 2006. During that span, the Ravens have allowed the NFL's fewest rushing TDs (63) and the NFL's third-fewest rushing yards per game (93.1 ypg). For the team's first 16 years (1996-2011), Baltimore held opponents to under 4.0 yards per rush, ranking as the longest streak in NFL history. (Ravens allowed 4.0 ypr in 2012 and then 3.8 ypr in 2013.) In 2013, the Ravens permitted 7 rushing scores the league's fifth fewest, and finished 11th overall in rushing yards allowed (105.4 ypg). In 2011, the Ravens ranked No. 2 in rush defense (92.6 ypg), marking the sixth-consecutive campaign Baltimore ranked in the Top 5 in rushing defense (2006-11). In 2010, the Ravens allowed only 5 rushing TDs, tying (Pittsburgh) for fewest in the NFL. A year before that (2009), the Ravens had the NFL's stingiest defense against the run, allowing 3.4 yards per rush. In each of Brooks' first seven full seasons in Baltimore (2005-11), the Ravens' defense ranked in the Top 10 in total yards allowed. In his second year (2006), the defense ranked No. 1 (264.1 ypg), while finishing second overall in 2008 (261.1 ypg). Prior to his 2005 arrival in Baltimore, Brooks coached successful NFL D-line units in Miami, Cleveland and Chicago. He was also instrumental in the notable "Desert Swarm" defense at the University of Arizona, which led the nation in scoring defense in 1992.

2005-13: (with Baltimore) 2013: NT Haloti Ngata earned his fifth-straight Pro Bowl on a defense that allowed the NFL's fifth-fewest rushing TDs (7)...Baltimore also had the league's 11th-ranked rushing defense (105.4 ypg) and finished third in third-down defense (33.5%)...The Ravens held their opponents (3.8 ypc) to under 4.0 ypc for the 17th time in the team's 18 years in Baltimore...Ngata upped his career tackles total to 496, the ninth most in franchise history. 2012: D-line was led by Ngata, who earned his fourth-straight Pro Bowl... Ravens were the NFL's No. 2 red zone defense, allowing a 43.4% TD efficiency mark...Although the defense was mired by injuries all year, it finished strong (in final six weeks, unit allowed NFL's fourth-fewest yards per game - 299.0) en route to the Super Bowl XLVII victory. 2011: D-line helped the team allow the third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) in the NFL for the fourth-consecutive year, tying a league mark for ranking in the Top 3...Unit was No. 3 overall, including second against the rush (92.6 ypg). 2010: Defense allowed only 16.9 points per game, the NFL's third-best mark...Five rushing TDs permitted tied (Pittsburgh) for NFL's fewest. 2009: Defense ranked No. 3 overall (300.5 ypg) and fifth against the run (93.3 ypg)...Ravens allowed an NFL-best 3.4 yards per rush and the third-fewest points per game (16.3)...Ngata earned his first Pro Bowl honor. 2008: Defense ranked second overall (261.1 ypg) and third against the run (81.4 ypg), all without the team's third all-time leading tackler and starting NT Kelly Gregg, who missed the entire season due to a knee injury...Ngata was a second-team Associated Press All-Pro and Pro Bowl first alternate...Top reserve DE Dwan Edwards also spent the year on IR (back)...DT Justin Bannan filled in admirably for Gregg, posting a career-high 56 tackles and his first-career INT... Team did not allow a 100-yard rusher, extending the streak to 35-straight games. 2007: Defense ranked second against the 2000-04: (with Miami) As Miami's D-line coach, Brooks helped lead a Dolphins' defense that recorded at least 44 sacks three times and averaged nearly 3 sacks a game over a four-year span…The Dolphins finished in the Top 5 in run defense two years straight (2002-03). 2004: D-line recorded 28 of the team's 36 sacks…Ranked second in NFL passing defense (162.0 ypg)…Miami forced the second-most three-and-out series (58) in the league. 2003: Pro Bowl DE Adewale Ogunleye's 15 sacks and Jason Taylor's 13 gave Miami the top sack tandem in the NFL…The defense allowed a run average of only 90.8 ypg. 2002: Miami was second in the AFC and tied for fourth in the NFL with 47 sacks, the third-highest total in club history…The D-line accounted for 41.5 QB drops, including 18.5 by Taylor and 9.5 by Ogunleye, making them the most productive sack tandem in the NFL…Taylor's sack total led the league and tied a franchise single-season record… Dolphins tied for fifth in the NFL in run defense (97.1 ypg). 2000: DEs Trace Armstrong (16.5) and Taylor (14.5) combined for 31 sacks, ranking the duo first in Dolphins history and first in the NFL.

1999: (with Cleveland) Served as the defensive line coach.

1993-98: (with Chicago) Team averaged 34.2 sacks per year. 1995: Ranked fifth against the pass. 1993: Ranked fourth in the NFL in total yards allowed and third in passing yards. 1994: Ranked fifth in the league in passing yards.

1990-92: (with University of Arizona) As D-line coach, was instrumental in its "Desert Swarm" defense, which led the nation in scoring defense in 1992.

1981-89: (with Syracuse) Tutored OLBs for the first six years…Named D-line coach for final three…He also worked in Dallas' training camp as part of a minority coaching fellowship program in 1989.

1976-80: (with Massachusetts) First full-time coaching post came in 1976, overseeing the defensive ends.

COLLEGE: Was a guard at the University of Massachusetts from 1970-72 and team captain in his final season…Earned All-Conference and All-East honors on the O-line…Earned a bachelor's degree in sociology.

PERSONAL: Attended New Bedford (MA) HS, where he lettered in football and track and field…Clarence and his wife, Justa, have a son, Jason, and a daughter, Adrienne... Jason, who is the defensive secondary coach at Florida International, was an assistant on the Ravens' coaching staff for four seasons (2009-12)...Clarence became a first-time grandfather to Aviana, who was born in 2012.

Baltimore selected NT Haloti Ngata (right) 12th-overall in the 2006 NFL Draft. Since then, the Ravens have been stout against the run, allowing the NFL's fewest rushing TDs (63) and the NFL's third-fewest rushing yards per game (93.1 ypg). Baltimore has a history of strong run defense, and with the five-time Pro Bowler's help, the Ravens have remained consistently sturdy on the ground.

JUAN CASTILLO
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

COLLEGE: TEXAS A&I
BORN: 10/8/59, PORT ISABEL, TX
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 20/2

Juan Castillo, a 33-year coaching veteran, is in his second season with the Ravens and his first as the team's offensive line coach. In 2013, Castillo was the Ravens' run game coordinator after originally joining the team as a consultant prior to Super Bowl XLVII in January 2013. He worked with an offensive line that helped QB Joe Flacco set career highs in attempts (614), completions (362) and passing yards (3,912) during the 2013 season. Castillo, who served in various roles for 18 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, spent the majority of his final two years (2011-12) as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Under his tutelage, Philadelphia's defense led the NFL with 50 sacks, ranking eighth in yards allowed (324.9 ypg) and 10th in points allowed (20.5 ppg) in 2011. Castillo spent his first 16 NFL seasons coaching the Eagles' offense as the offensive line coach (1998-2010), tight ends coach (1997) and as an offensive assistant (1995-96). In 2010, Philadelphia's offense set franchise records in total points (439), total net yards (6,230) and yards per rush (5.4, the NFL's top mark). With each of the team's primary running backs averaging more than 5.0 yards per attempt, the Eagles became the first team in NFL history to average at least 4.0 yards per carry in all 16 regular season games, helping LT Jason Peters earn his second-straight Pro Bowl nod. Under Castillo, four Eagles linemen earned their first-career Pro Bowl honors: T Tra Thomas, G Jermane Mayberry, T Jon Runyan and G Shawn Andrews, while Ravens RG Marshal Yanda earned his third Pro Bowl under Castillo's guidance in 2013. Philadelphia drafted three offensive linemen under Castillo in the first round: Mayberry (1996), Thomas (1998) and Andrews (2004). Castillo also helped recruit and develop five undrafted players that were molded into multi-year starters along the Eagles' offensive line. During his tenure as an Eagles' assistant, Philadelphia earned 11 playoff berths, six division titles, one conference championship and an appearance in Super Bowl XXXIX. He is one of a few coaches in league history of Hispanic descent, while his fluency in Spanish has allowed him to promote the game to a Spanish-speaking audience. In 2002, Castillo and his wife, Zaida, were invited by then-President George W. Bush for a Cinco de Mayo celebration at the White House.

2013: (with Baltimore) Acted as the Ravens' run game coordinator after originally joining the team as a consultant prior to Super Bowl XLVII in January 2013. 2013: Worked with an offensive line that helped QB Joe Flacco set career highs in attempts (614), completions (362) and passing yards (3,912), also becoming the first player in franchise history to throw for 20,000 career yards (21,545)...RB Ray Rice (9,214) surpassed RB Jamal Lewis (9,166) as the Ravens' all-time leader in total yards from scrimmage...G Marshal Yanda started all 16 games on the O-line and earned his third-consecutive Pro Bowl nod.

1995-2012: (with Philadelphia) Spent his first 18 NFL seasons as an assistant with the Eagles, including two as defensive coordinator (2011-12) and 13 as the team's offensive line coach (1998-2010). 2011: Held his first post as an NFL defensive coordinator and guided a unit that led the NFL in sacks (50) and TFL, and also ranked in the Top 10 in yards allowed (324.9 ypg) and points allowed (20.5)...In the season's final 11 contests, Philadelphia held its opponents to 17.8 points per game and 312.5 yards per contest, while forcing 19 turnovers. 2010: Guided an offensive line that helped create 5.4 yards per rush, the league's top mark...Philadelphia's offense was second in net yards (389.4 ypg) and third in points per game

BOBBY ENGRAM

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

COLLEGE: PENN STATE
BORN: 1/7/73, CAMDEN, SC
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/1 (14 PLAYING / 2 COACHING)

Bobby Engram, the longtime NFL wideout, is in his first year as the Ravens' wide receivers coach. Engram guides a young and developing WRs corps led by standout Torrey Smith, who set a career high with 1,128 receiving yards in 2013. Engram arrived in Baltimore after serving in the same role at the University of Pittsburgh for two seasons (2012-13). In his first year with the Panthers, two of Engram's receivers (Mike Shanahan and Devin Street) earned All-Big East honors, the first time in school history the feat had been accomplished in the same season. Both players had the best statistical production of their careers. Shanahan tallied 983 yards on 62 receptions, while Street had 975 yards on 73 catches, nearly giving Pitt an unprecedented two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. In 2011, Engram entered the coaching ranks with the San Francisco 49ers as an offensive assistant. Engram's successful NFL career spanned 14 seasons (1996-2009) and three teams (Chicago, Seattle and Kansas City). Originally a second-round draft pick by the Bears, Engram played in 176 career games, totalling 650 receptions for 7,751 yards and 35 touchdowns.

2012-13: (with University of Pittsburgh) 2013: Engram guided WR Tyler Boyd to a record-breaking freshman season...Boyd (85 catches for 1,174 yards) earned All-ACC and Freshman All-American honors while breaking freshman school receiving records previously held by Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl WR Larry Fitzgerald. 2012: In his first season as the Panthers' wide receivers coach, two of Engram's wide receivers (Mike Shanahan and Devin Street) earned All-Big East honors in the same season, the first time in school history the feat had been accomplished...Both players each nearly tallied 1,000 receiving yards (Shanahan, 62 catches for 983 yards and Street, 73 catches for 975 yards).

2011: (with San Francisco) Entered the coaching ranks as an offensive assistant under first-year head coach Jim Harbaugh and the 49ers, who earned a trip to the NFC Championship game.

NFL PLAYER (1996-2009): Engram, who was a 1996 second-round pick (No. 52 overall) out of Penn State by the Bears, spent five seasons in Chicago...In 2001, he signed as a free agent with the Seahawks and played eight seasons (2001-08) in Seattle, before finishing his career with the Kansas City Chiefs (2009)...In 176 games (113 starts), he compiled 650 receptions for 7,751 yards and 35 touchdowns...Engram also played in nine NFL postseason contests, including Super Bowl XL (2005) when as a member of the Seahawks, posting 6 catches for 70 yards against the Pittsburgh Steelers. 2009: (with KC) Played in his final NFL season with the Chiefs. 2001-08: (with Sea.) Engram totalled 4,859 yards on 399 receptions and 18 TDs in Seattle. 2007: Had his best year, setting career highs with 94 receptions and 1,147 receiving yards and tied his career high with 6 TDs...The 94 catches are a Seahawks' single-season record. 2005: Voted as Seattle's recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award. 1996-2000: (with Chi.) In his first five seasons in the NFL, Engram had 246 catches for 2,831 yards and 17 TDs for the Bears.

COLLEGE: The most prolific and decorated receiver in Penn State football history and the inaugural recipient (1994) of the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver, Bobby was a three-time All-American and three-time All-Big Ten

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Camden, SC, Bobby attended Camden (SC) HS, where he was a three-time All-State selection at wide receiver...Established the "Bobby Engram Foundation," which aids in the research of sickle cell anemia...He and his wife, Deanna, have two daughters, Bobbi and Phoebe, and two sons, Dean and Trey.

PEDIGREE OF PROMISE

Bobby Engram, who joined Baltimore's coaching staff after spending the previous two seasons (2012-13) at the University of Pittsburgh in the same capacity, has thrived in developing young wide receivers, seeing Pitt's top targets enjoy remarkable success last year. With his return to the NFL coaching spectrum, Engram guides young WRs Torrey Smith and Marlon Brown, as well as six-time Pro Bowler Steve Smith, Sr.

WR Torrey Smith (left) ranks first in Ravens franchise history in yards-per-catch average, posting a 17.2 mark over the three seasons in which he's caught 164 passes for 2,824 yards and 19 TDs. Dating back to 2011, his 17.2 average ranks fifth in the NFL.

THOMAS HAMMOCK

RUNNING BACKS

COLLEGE: NORTHERN ILLINOIS
BORN: 7/7/81, JERSEY CITY, NJ
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 1/1

Thomas Hammock is in his first year as the Ravens' running backs coach. An 11-year collegiate coaching veteran, Hammock, 32, joins the NFL ranks after spending the past three seasons (2011-13) as the University of Wisconsin's assistant head coach/running backs coach/recruiting coordinator. Under Hammock, the Badgers ranked third nationally in rushing yards per attempt (5.7), fourth in rushing touchdowns (121) and seventh overall in rushing yards per game (251.1 ypg), with each category also leading the Big Ten during his three-year span. Hammock has coached the country's leading rusher twice during his career. In addition to guiding Wisconsin RB Montee Ball to a nation-leading 1,923 rushing yards in 2011, Hammock also coached Northern Illinois' Garrett Wolfe, who in 2006 registered an NCAA-best 1,928 rushing yards (148.3 ypg). Wolfe concluded his collegiate career as the NCAA's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.40 – minimum 780 rushes) and ranked fourth in career rushing (156.5 ypg), becoming one of four players in college football history to post at least 1,500 rushing yards in three different seasons. Ball was selected by the Denver Broncos in the second round of the 2013 NFL Draft, while Wolfe was chosen by the Chicago Bears in the 2007 NFL Draft's third round. Prior to his time with the Badgers, Hammock coached at the University of Minnesota from 2007-10, serving as its running backs coach all four seasons and also as co-offensive coordinator in 2010. Hammock guided the running backs at his alma mater, Northern Illinois, from 2005-06 following two years (2003-04) as a graduate assistant at Wisconsin.

2011-13: (with Wisconsin) In three seasons as Wisconsin's running backs coach, the Badgers ranked third nationally in rushing yards per attempt (5.7), fourth in rushing touchdowns (121) and seventh in rushing yards per game (251.1), also leading the Big Ten in each of those categories...UW running backs also amassed 40 games with over 100 rushing yards, the most in the country during that span. 2013: Wisconsin ranked eighth nationally after averaging 283.8 rushing yards per game en route to rushing for a school-record 3,689 yards...The Badgers also set an NCAA-high and school standard for individual 100-yard rushing performances in a season (20)...Despite losing RB Montee Ball to the NFL Draft, Wisconsin's running game continued to flourish behind senior RB James White, sophomore RB Melvin Gordon and true freshman RB Corey Clement...Gordon and White each earned second-team All-Big Ten honors, while Gordon was named a semifinalist for both the Maxwell Award (nation's top player) and Doak Walker Award (top RB)...Clement added 547 rushing yards and 7 rushing TDs...Gordon (1,609) and White (1,444) set the all-time NCAA record for rushing yards by a pair of teammates in a season, combining for 3,053 yards...The tandem made Wisconsin the nation's only team to produce multiple running backs that averaged more than 100 yards per game...Gordon became the fastest player in school history to eclipse 1,000 rushing yards. 2012: Wisconsin rushed for 236.4 yards per game, the nation's 13th-best mark...Badgers were one of three teams in the nation with three backs who each rushed for over 550 yards...Ball became the NCAA's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (77) and won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back after producing 1,830 rushing yards (second in the NCAA in 2012) and 22 ground scores...Ball also earned his second-consecutive Ameche-Dayne Big Ten Running Back of the Year award. 2011: In Hammock's first year coaching running backs at Wisconsin, the Badgers ranked 11th nationally after averaging 235.6 yards per contest... Hammock helped Ball lead the nation in rushing yards (1,923) and tie Barry Sanders' NCAA single-season TDs record (39), with Ball being named a Heisman Trophy finalist...Ball also earned the Big Ten's Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year Award and was a consensus first-team All-America selection.

2007-10: (with Minnesota) In 2010, after three seasons (2007-09) as running backs coach, Hammock was named the Gophers' co-offensive coordinator. 2010: Minnesota moved up 26 spots nationally in rushing and 34 spots in total offense...Took over play-calling duties for the final five contests following a mid-season coaching transition... Helped the team secure wins in its final two games, including its first rivalry win in four years, defeating Iowa for the Floyd of Rosedale trophy.

2005-06: (with Northern Illinois) Spent two seasons as NIU's RBs coach in his first full-time coaching role... Hammock guided Huskies RB Garrett Wolfe, who concluded his collegiate career as the NCAA's all-time leader in yards per carry (6.40 – minimum 780 rushes) and ranked fourth in career rushing (156.5 ypg)...Wolfe was selected by the Chicago Bears in the 2007 NFL Draft's third round and is one of four players in college football history to post at least 1,500 rushing yards in three different seasons. 2006: Wolfe registered an NCAA-best 1,928 rushing yards (148.3 ypg), and posted over 1,500 rushing yards for the third-consecutive season. 2005: Despite playing in only nine games, Wolfe rushed for 1,580 yards and 16 TDs in Hammock's first year guiding the running backs.

2003-04: (with Wisconsin) Served as an offensive graduate assistant in his first coaching role with the Badgers, helping guide the team to the Music City Bowl (2003) and Outback Bowl (2004).

COLLEGE: Played running back at Northern Illinois and finished ninth on the school's all-time rushing list (2,432 yards)...Ran for 1,083 yards – the nation's 12th most – as a sophomore in 2000 and produced 1,095 rushing yards as a junior in 2001...Hammock's senior campaign was derailed due to a potentially life-threatening heart condition in 2002, and though he was forced to stop playing, he became a student coach for NIU, helping Michael Turner tally 1,915 rushing yards, which set a MAC single-season record.

PERSONAL: Born in Jersey City, NJ, Hammock earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Northern Illinois in 2002 and a master's in educational leadership and policy analysis from Wisconsin in 2004...He and his wife, Cheynnitha, have a daughter, Tierra, and a son, Thomas Douglas.

GROUND GAME GRIT

Thomas Hammock's success at Wisconsin coaching running backs makes him an ideal fit to guide Baltimore's backfield, including the versatile RB Ray Rice, who leads the NFL in yards from scrimmage (9,214) from 2009-13.

CHRIS HEWITT

ASSISTANT SECONDARY COACH

COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI
BORN: 7/22/74, KINGSTON, JAMAICA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 3/3

Chris Hewitt is in his first year as the team's assistant secondary coach. He spent his first two seasons with Baltimore helping guide the special teams unit led by Jerry Rosburg, for whom he played at the University of Cincinnati while Rosburg was an assistant. In both of those seasons, the Ravens ranked in the Top 5 of the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, finishing fifth in 2013 and second in 2012. (Gosselin's report is recognized by NFL teams as the special teams measuring stick.) Prior to joining the Ravens, Hewitt spent eight seasons as an assistant at Rutgers, where he helped mentor NFL Pro Bowlers RB Ray Rice (Ravens) and DB Devin McCourty (Patriots).

2012-13: (with Baltimore) 2013: K Justin Tucker earned his first Pro Bowl nod after producing the second-best field goal success rate (92.7, 38-of-41) in Ravens single-season history...Tucker also set a franchise record with 140 points and kicked 3 game-winning FGs, including a Ravens-record 61-yarder at Detroit...WR/RS Tandon Doss led the NFL in punt return average (15.6)...Ravens were second in kickoff return average (26.4) and third in punt return average (14.2)...Team also posted an NFL-high 20 punt returns of 20-plus yards. 2012: Pro Bowl RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7) and posted a league-best 2 KOR-TDs...The unit tied a league-best 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR)...Jones set a Super Bowl record with his 290 combined yards, including an NFL-record-tying 108-yard KOR-TD.

2004-11: (with Rutgers) 2010-11: Was the Scarlet Knights' RBs coach and mentored RB Jawan Jamison, who joined Ray Rice in becoming just the third freshman in Rutgers history to rush for 200 yards in a game (200, 11/19/11 vs. Cincinnati). 2008-09: Named the team's CBs coach prior to the 2008 season…Rutgers ranked second in the Big East in pass defense in 2008 (191.3 yards per game) and 2009 (204.5 ypg). 2005-07: Was director of speed and skill development... Aided by Hewitt's training, Rice set all-time school rushing records with 910 attempts for 4,926 yards, 49 TDs and a long run of 90 yards…From 2005-07, Rice became the first player in Rutgers history to rush for over 1,000 yards in three seasons. 2004: Joined Rutgers' staff as a graduate assistant.

2003: (with Notre Dame) Served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

NFL PLAYER: (1997-99 with New Orleans) Signed with the Saints as a rookie free agent in 1997 and played in 39 games (four starts)…Played defensive back, serving primarily as a special teams performer…Totaled 29 tackles (22 solo) from scrimmage, 3 sacks, 1 PD, 1 FF and 1 FR…Was a member of the Saints' kickoff coverage team that ranked fifth in the NFL in average opponent starting position (23.8-yard line) in 1998… Recorded 7 special teams tackles (6 solo)…Was named the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Week 12 vs. Seattle (11/16/97) after blocking a punt that led to a crucial field goal.

COLLEGE: Was a four-year letterman at Cincinnati and a two-time All-Conference USA selection (1995-96) as a DB… Played for Jerry Rosburg, who was the team's LBs, special teams and secondary coach (1992-95), and John Harbaugh, who was the Bearcats' special teams, TEs, OLBs and RBs coach (1989-94) and assistant head coach (1995-96)… Totaled 80 tackles and 2 INTs in his senior season…Earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

2013 SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

In 2013, the Ravens' special teams units shined.

In the comprehensive annual special teams report created by Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, the 2013 Ravens ranked fifth in the NFL. (Gosselin's report is recognized by teams as a special teams measuring stick.)

K Justin Tucker (left) earned his first Pro Bowl nod following a record-setting season. Tucker set franchise records in FGs made (38) and FGs attempted (41), with both figures tying (Stephen Gostkowski) for the NFL's most. He also produced a franchise-record 140 points (tied for sixth in the NFL), while his 6 FGs of 50-plus yards tied (several kickers) for the NFL's most.

Tucker's franchise-record 61-yard game-winning field goal at Detroit (12/16/13) was part of a franchise-record 6 FGs (29, 24, 32, 49, 53, 61) in the game. He is the only kicker in NFL history to kick FGs from 20, 30, 40, 50 and 60 yards in a single game.

Baltimore's kickoff return unit posted the NFL's second-best average (26.4), while the punt return team ranked third (14.2 average) in the league.

After missing four games following an injury in Week 1, WR/RS Jacoby Jones (right) was fourth in the NFL with a 28.8 KOR average. He led the team with 31 KORs for 892 yards and 1 TD.

Jones' 77-yard kickoff return for a touchdown (right) in the fourth quarter of the game vs. Min. (12/8) was the third of five lead changes in the final 2:01 of the Ravens' 29-26 victory.

WR/RS Tandon Doss had the league's best punt return average (15.6).

The Ravens posted an NFL-high 20 punt returns of 20-plus yards.

P Sam Koch posted career highs in punts (90) and punting yards (4,138), while averaging 46.0 yards per punt (38.9 net).

EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 10/3

Don "Wink" Martindale is in his third year as the Ravens' inside linebackers coach. In 2013, ILB Daryl Smith led the team with 123 tackles, also setting a Ravens' single-season record by a linebacker with 19 PD. In his first year in Baltimore, the veteran Smith excelled under Martindale, finishing with career highs in sacks (5), INTs (3) and PD (19). Smith, the Jacksonville Jaguars' career leader in tackles, also was one of three NFL defenders to post at least 100 tackles, 5 sacks and 3 INTs in 2013. Martindale, who experienced the first postseason action of his NFL career with the Ravens in 2012, was the Broncos' defensive coordinator (2010) prior to joining Baltimore. Martindale entered the NFL ranks in 2004 and spent five years guiding the Oakland Raiders' linebackers (2004-08). Prior to that, he coached 11 seasons in the collegiate ranks, including three years at the University of Cincinnati alongside then-assistant head coach John Harbaugh. Martindale also helped Western Kentucky and head coach Jack Harbaugh earn a Division I FCS National Championship in 2002.

2012-13: (with Baltimore) 2013: ILB Daryl Smith, who was signed to help replace newly-retired future Hall of Fame LB Ray Lewis, turned in a stellar season...He led the team with 123 tackles, also setting a Ravens' single-season record by a LB with 19 PD (Ray Lewis, 13 in 2003)...Smith was also one of three NFL defenders to post at least 100 tackles, 5 sacks and 3 INTs...Defense ranked third in the NFL in third-down percentage (33.5) and seventh in the red zone (48.8%). 2012: In his first season with Baltimore, Martindale tutored the inside linebackers, a group that was depleted by injuries, including Lewis, who missed 10 regular season games and returned and recorded an NFL-leading 51 postseason tackles (a franchise postseason record) and 1 PD for a defense that forced 10 turnovers en route to a victory in Super Bowl XLVII...LB Dannell Ellerbe set a career high in tackles (89) and sacks (4.5) under Martindale...Over the final six games of the regular season (since Week 12), Baltimore's defense allowed the NFL's fourth-fewest yards per game (299.0 ypg).

2009-10: (with Denver) 2010: Was promoted to defensive coordinator...CB Champ Bailey represented the team in the Pro Bowl. 2009: Joined the Broncos' coaching staff as the team's linebackers coach and helped the Denver "D" rank seventh in the NFL (315.0 ypg)...Guided LB Elvis Dumervil (who signed with the Ravens in March 2013), who led the NFL with a team-record 17 sacks, to Pro Bowl and first-team All-Pro honors in his first year playing LB...D.J. Williams also thrived under Martindale's leadership, earning a spot as a Pro Bowl alternate.

2004-08: (with Oakland) 2006-08: Tutored the Raiders' linebackers, including 2005 draft pick Kirk Morrison, who along with 2006 draft pick Thomas Howard, led the linebacking corps...Morrison and Howard were two of the league's best at forcing turnovers, each tallying 7 INTs from 2006-08. 2006: Oakland's defense ranked third overall (284.8 ypg) and first against the pass (150.8 ypg). 2004: Entered the NFL coaching ranks as the Raiders' inside linebackers coach.

2001-03: (with Western Kentucky) 2003: Promoted to defensive coordinator/inside linebackers for the Hilltoppers, who were ranked sixth in yards allowed per game (283.7). 2002: WKU

TED MONACHINO

LINEBACKERS COACH

COLLEGE: MISSOURI
BORN: 10/15/66, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 9/5

Ted Monachino (mah-nah-KEY-no) is in his fifth season working with the team's linebackers. Monachino's linebackers have been a strength of the Ravens' defense since he joined the team in 2010. He helped lead six-time Pro Bowl OLB Terrell Suggs to the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year award. Suggs (10 sacks) earned his sixth Pro Bowl in 2013, combining with newly-acquired OLB Elvis Dumervil (9.5) to total 19.5 sacks. ILB Daryl Smith, who signed with the team as a free agent, led the Ravens with 123 tackles and was one of three NFL defenders to post at least 100 tackles, 5 sacks and 3 INTs. In 2012, the Ravens' defense was stout in the red zone, allowing the NFL's second-best TD efficiency rating (43.4%). Although mired with injuries to key players (LBs Ray Lewis and Suggs), the 2012 unit also allowed the NFL's second-fewest (tied, Sea.) passing TDs (15). Baltimore recorded an AFC-high 48 sacks (tied for third in the NFL) in 2011, the third most in team history. The Ravens' defense ranked third in points allowed for four-straight seasons (2008-11), also finishing in the Top 5 in rushing defense in Monachino's first two seasons (2010-11) with the club. Monachino arrived in Baltimore after four years (2006-09) coaching Jacksonville's defensive line, his first NFL coaching stint. Before entering the NFL, Monachino coached in the collegiate ranks, including at Arizona State, helping guide Suggs, the former Sun Devil, during his All-American career.

2010-13: (with Baltimore) 2013: Pro Bowl OLB Terrell Suggs (10) combined with OLB Elvis Dumervil (9.5) to produce 19.5 sacks, and ILB Daryl Smith was one of just three NFL defenders to post at least 100 tackles, 5 sacks and 3 INTs (his 123 tackles led the Ravens)...Smith's 19 PD set a team record by a LB, breaking Ray Lewis' mark of 13 in 2003... The defense, which endured the departure of stalwarts Lewis (retired) and S Ed Reed (free agent), ranked third in third-down defense (33.5%). 2012: Promoted to linebackers coach...Ravens were the NFL's No. 2 red zone defense, allowing a 43.4% TD efficiency mark, also finishing No. 2 (tied, Sea.) in fewest passing TDs (15) permitted...Although the unit was mired by injuries to key players (including LBs Lewis and Suggs), the defense finished strong (in final six weeks, allowing NFL's fourth-fewest yards per game - 299.0) en route to the Super Bowl XLVII victory. 2011: The Ravens' defense allowed the league's third-fewest points (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year (tying an NFL record for finishing in the Top 3) and finished with the league's second-fewest rushing yards allowed (92.6 ypg)…Guided the outside linebackers, helping Suggs earn the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year award and his fifth Pro Bowl nod…Suggs was named first-team All-Pro after leading the AFC with a career-high 14 sacks and an NFL-best 7 FFs. 2010: Joined the Ravens as the club's outside linebackers coach...Ravens defense allowed the league's third-fewest points (16.9 ppg) for the third-straight year...Suggs led the team with 11 sacks, earning Pro Bowl honors.

2006-09: (with Jacksonville) Debuted as a professional coach with the Jaguars…Played a major role in developing DEs Derrick Harvey and Quentin Groves. 2008: Was promoted to defensive line coach. 2006: Hired to the Jaguars' coaching staff as assistant defensive line coach/defensive assistant… Jacksonville tied for fourth in rushing defense that season, allowing 91.3 yards per game.

BRIAN PARIANI

TIGHT ENDS COACH

COLLEGE: UCLA
BORN: 7/2/65, SAN FRANCISCO, CA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 24/1

Brian Pariani is in his first year as the Ravens' tight ends coach. A 23-year NFL coaching veteran, Pariani spent 2006-13 as the Houston Texans' tight ends coach before joining Baltimore. In Houston, he led a unit that was consistently an integral part of one of the league's most balanced offensive attacks. From 2008-12, the Texans were one of only two teams (Denver) to have their total offense, passing offense and rushing offense each rank in the Top 5 at least once during that span. Additionally, Houston earned its Top 6 all-time offensive outputs in scoring, total offense and passing yards from 2007-12. Under Pariani's guidance, Owen Daniels developed into one of the NFL's premier tight ends, earning two Pro Bowl appearances (2008 and 2012). Daniels recorded 385 catches for 4,617 yards and 29 touchdowns in eight seasons with Pariani, including career highs in receptions (70) and receiving yards (862) during the '08 campaign. Prior to joining the Texans, Pariani spent one season (2005) as the offensive coordinator for Syracuse University, following 10 years (1995-2004) coaching the Denver Broncos' tight ends. In Denver, Pariani tutored Hall of Fame TE Shannon Sharpe, who led the NFL in receptions by a tight end from 1996-98, averaging 72 catches over the three-year span. Sharpe produced 425 receptions for 5,373 yards and 38 touchdowns with Pariani, finishing his career as the NFL's all-time record-holder among tight ends with 815 receptions, 10,060 yards and 62 touchdowns (all marks since broken by TE Tony Gonzalez). Pariani began his NFL coaching career in 1991 as an offensive coaching assistant with the San Francisco 49ers after serving one season (1990) as a scouting assistant with the team. He earned a Super Bowl ring with the 49ers in 1994, assisting an offense that established team single-season records for points (505) and touchdowns (62). Pariani's coaching career began in 1989 at his alma mater, UCLA, where he was a graduate assistant.

2006-13: (with Houston) 2013: Owen Daniels had 24 receptions for 252 yards and 3 TDs in five games before suffering a season-ending leg injury...Garrett Graham established new career highs with 49 catches for 545 yards and 5 TDs in 13 games...Graham's 5 TDs tied for the team lead (Andre Johnson). 2012: Daniels led a unit that combined to catch 124 passes for 1,309 yards and 12 TDs...The 124 catches marked the most receptions ever by a Houston tight ends unit...Daniels ranked second on the team with 62 receptions for 716 yards and a career-high 6 TDs, earning his second-career Pro Bowl...James Casey set career highs with 34 receptions for 330 yards and 3 TDs...Graham also set career highs with 28 receptions for 263 yards and 3 TDs...The tight ends unit was a factor in the running game as well, helping the Texans eclipse 2,000 rushing yards for the third consecutive season and lead the NFL in time of possession for the second consecutive season. 2011: Tight ends unit combined to catch 101 passes for 1,314 yards and 10 TDs...The tight ends also helped pave the way for the NFL's second-ranked rushing attack, which produced a franchise-record 153.0 yards per game...Daniels led the team with 54 receptions for 677 yards and 3 TDs...Joel Dreessen recorded 28 receptions for 353 yards and a team-best and career-high 6 TDs. 2010: In the passing game, Houston's tight end trio of Daniels, Dreessen and Casey combined for 82 receptions for 1,087 yards and 6 TDs...Unit

STEVE SPAGNUOLO

SECONDARY/ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE
BORN: 12/21/59, WHITINSVILLE, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/2

Steve Spagnuolo was promoted to secondary/assistant head coach in 2014. The veteran NFL coach originally joined the Ravens as senior defensive assistant prior to the 2013 season. A 33-year coaching veteran, including 16 NFL seasons, Spagnuolo was the defensive coordinator for the Saints (2012) before joining Baltimore. Prior to his time in New Orleans, he spent three seasons (2009-11) as head coach of the St. Louis Rams and two years (2007-08) as defensive coordinator of the New York Giants. Spagnuolo was the defensive architect of the Super Bowl XLII Champion New York Giants (2007), a unit that ranked in the NFL's Top 10 in eight single-season statistical categories, including a league-high 53 sacks. He has coached for teams that have clinched eight playoff berths, won six division titles, appeared in five conference championship games, earned two conference titles and won Super Bowl XLII. Spagnuolo also spent eight seasons (1999-2006) on the Philadelphia Eagles' coaching staff with Ravens head coach John Harbaugh. From 2001-04, Harbaugh and Spagnuolo were on an Eagles' staff that won four-straight NFC East titles, reached four-consecutive conference championship games and earned one Super Bowl berth (2004).

2013: (with Baltimore) Spent his first season with the Ravens as a senior defensive assistant.

ERIC DECOSTA
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: COLBY
BORN: 4/10/71, TAUNTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 19/19

Eric DeCosta has been a part of the Ravens organization since the beginning. A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club" (includes members of the team's personnel staff who started with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input), DeCosta joined the franchise in an entry-level position in 1996. He moved up the personnel ranks, first as an area scout, then as director of college scouting (six years) and director of player personnel (three years) before his most recent promotion to assistant general manager (2012). DeCosta assists GM Ozzie Newsome in overseeing both the college scouting and pro personnel departments. The Taunton, MA, native was honored in 2005 by The Sporting News as one of the top young stars in sports and was selected to both the 2008 Baltimore Business Journal and Baltimore Magazine "40 Under 40" group. He also served on the eight-member committee to interview and select Ravens head coach John Harbaugh in 2008.

During DeCosta's tenure as scouting director, the Ravens drafted Pro Bowlers OLB Terrell Suggs ('03), DT Haloti Ngata ('06), G Ben Grubbs ('07), FB Le'Ron McClain ('07), G Marshal Yanda ('07) and RB Ray Rice ('08) and a number of other key contributors, including OLB Jarret Johnson ('03), C Jason Brown ('05) and Super Bowl XLVII MVP QB Joe Flacco ('08).

1996-2014: (with Baltimore) 2014: Team signed five-time Pro Bowl WR Steve Smith, Sr. and drafted LB C.J. Mosley (Alabama) 17th overall. 2013: Ravens signed three-time Pro Bowl OLB Elvis Dumervil, DE Chris Canty and LB Daryl Smith as key free agents...Smith led the Ravens in tackles (123), and Dumervil was second with 9.5 sacks...In the draft, team's top two selections were S Matt Elam (first round, 32nd overall) and LB Arthur Brown (second round, 56th overall).

Eric DeCosta and general manager & executive vice president Ozzie Newsome attend Ravens practices together, working closely to make decisions on the team's football personnel.

OZZIE NEWSOME ON DECOSTA

"While Eric continues to help and direct the personnel department, he has become a vital part of the decision-making process for everything we do in football."

2012: Promoted to assistant general manager following the NFL Draft...Strong moves both in free agency and the draft helped Baltimore win Super Bowl XLVII: free agent WR/RS Jacoby Jones, who earned his first Pro Bowl, rookie free agent K Justin Tucker, who went 30-of-33 on FGAs, and draft picks OLB Courtney Upshaw (second round), G Kelechi Osemele (second round) and RB Bernard Pierce (third round) each made significant contributions en route to the title. 2011: Baltimore signed key free agents FB Vonta Leach, who earned two Pro Bowls with the Ravens (2011-12), and S Bernard Pollard, who started 26 games in two seasons (2011-12)...Team selected CB Jimmy Smith (Colorado) in the first round and standout WR Torrey Smith (Maryland) in the second round. 2010: Ravens traded for Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, added quality veteran free agent DE Cory Redding and strengthened team depth, including TEs Ed Dickson (third round) from Oregon and BYU's Dennis Pitta (fourth round) through the draft. 2009: Promoted to director of player personnel, following six successful seasons as scouting director...Ravens drafted All-Rookie team honoree Ole Miss T Michael Oher (first round) and picked up CB Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State) in the third round of the draft...Also signed free agent K Billy Cundiff, who earned his first Pro Bowl in 2010. 2008: Led the Ravens during the NFL Draft, selecting Delaware QB Joe Flacco (18th overall), the Super Bowl XLVII MVP, and Rutgers RB Ray Rice, a three-time Pro Bowler. 2007: Ravens drafted 2011 Pro Bowl G Ben Grubbs (Auburn), the team's first-round pick (29th overall), and three-time Pro Bowl G Marshal Yanda (Iowa) in the third round. 2006: Drafted All-Rookie Team standouts DT Haloti Ngata (12th overall), a five-time Pro Bowler, and S Dawan Landry (fifth round)...Baltimore also selected top-notch P Sam Koch (sixth round) out of Nebraska. 2005: Selected All-Rookie Team honoree WR Mark Clayton (22nd overall) from Oklahoma, who had a record-breaking first year in Baltimore, and UNC C/G Jason Brown (fourth round). 2003: Was named director of college scouting...Drafted 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and 2003 Defensive Rookie of the Year OLB Terrell Suggs, a six-time Pro Bowler. 1998-2002: Was the Ravens' Midwest area scout...Spent time researching and analyzing draft-day trades and helped evaluate free agent prospects for the pro personnel department...Worked with both the college and pro scouting staffs on the draft and free agency. 1998: Was promoted to area scout after spending time in the fall of 1997 scouting the Midwest.

1995: (with Washington) Earliest NFL experience came with a training camp internship in the Redskins' player personnel department.

1993-95: (with Trinity College) 1994-95: In a graduate fellowship, Eric coached the defensive line and linebackers while earning his master's degree in English. 1993: Was an intern coach for Trinity's wide receivers.

COLLEGE: Earned degrees in English and the classics from Colby, receiving dean's list honors (1990-92)...Was a three-year football letterman and captain at LB...As a senior, he was selected as the Millett Award recipient for outstanding athletic contributions over his four years.

PERSONAL: Attended Taunton (MA) HS, where he played FB and LB, earned three varsity letters, and as a senior, was voted team captain...Is active with a number of charities, including the Sports Boosters of Maryland and the Boys and Girls Club...Has assisted with countless fundraisers and other charitable events for those organizations...DeCosta also serves on the Board of Directors for the Maryland SPCA...Eric serves as a celebrity judge at the charity's annual fundraiser, the March for the Animals, which raises over $350,000 each year to help support the Maryland SPCA's mission to improve the lives of pets and people in the community...Each of the last five years, Eric has been asked by the Ravens Foundation to review scholarship applications and interview high school candidates for the Ravens Scholars program…The initiative, which was created in 2010, awards a $5,000 renewable scholarship (up to $20,000 per scholar) to five local high school students each year...Eric and his wife, Lacie, are actively involved with The Family Tree, a nonprofit organization in Maryland dedicated to preventing child abuse and providing families with solutions...The couple also supports the Irvine Nature Center, an environmental education center...Eric, Lacie, their daughter, Jane Elizabeth (11), and two sons, Michael Litz (7) and Jackson James (3), reside in Baltimore.

SUCCESS ACROSS THE DRAFT BOARD

Since the team's first year (1996) in Baltimore, the Ravens organization has been praised for its success selecting players throughout the draft. Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden was tabbed with the franchise's first-ever draft pick, followed closely by future Hall of Famer Ray Lewis, who was the second first-round pick in 1996. The team has also found gems in lower rounds like Jarret Johnson (fourth round), Dennis Pitta (fourth) and Adalius Thomas (sixth) and has excelled with the signings of rookie free agents who became starters and made key contributions:

Rd.	Players (Year Drafted)
1	Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden ('96), Future Hall of Famer Ray Lewis ('96), Todd Heap ('01), Future Hall of Famer Ed Reed ('02), Terrell Suggs ('03), Haloti Ngata ('06), Super Bowl XLVII MVP Joe Flacco ('08) & Jimmy Smith ('11)
2	Jamie Sharper ('97), Ray Rice ('08), Torrey Smith ('11), Courtney Upshaw ('12) & Kelechi Osemele ('12)
3	Casey Rabach ('01), Marshal Yanda ('07), Lardarius Webb ('09) & Bernard Pierce ('12)
4	Edwin Mulitalo ('99), Jarret Johnson ('03), Le'Ron McClain ('07) & Dennis Pitta ('10)
5	Jermaine Lewis ('96), Dawan Landry ('06), Arthur Jones ('10) & Pernell McPhee ('11)
6	Adalius Thomas ('00), Chester Taylor ('02), Sam Koch ('06) & Haruki Nakamura ('08)
7	DeAngelo Tyson ('12)
RFA	Mike Flynn ('97), Priest Holmes ('97), Will Demps ('02), Bart Scott ('02), Ma'ake Kemoeatu ('02), Jameel McClain ('08), Dannell Ellerbe ('09), Justin Tucker ('12) & Marlon Brown ('13)

TE Dennis Pitta
(fourth round, 2010)

Draft Quick Hit: The Ravens are one of a short list of teams that do not belong to the National Football Scouting group, which provides member teams a list of players and reports on each that are eligible for the draft. "We make our own list, and that means we look at all players on a college roster," Eric DeCosta says. "We do a lot of cross-checking. A number of us in the department look at everyone, and then we have the area scouts look at certain players from other regions so we get multiple grades and opinions on all the players."

PAT MORIARTY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

COLLEGE: GEORGIA TECH
BORN: 5/19/55, CLEVELAND, OHIO
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 22/19 (1 PLAYING / 21 FRONT OFFICE)

Pat Moriarty, the team's senior vice president of football administration, has been a key part of the franchise since 1994. A longtime member of the personnel staff, Moriarty was one of the NFL's original "capologists." He is responsible for the management and strategic planning of the Ravens' salary cap. The Cleveland native negotiates all of the Ravens' player contracts, oversees salary cap administration, roster management and the day-to-day operations of the player personnel department. Moriarty is the key liaison with the NFL Management Council and Players Association. Over the course of 20 years, Moriarty has negotiated player contracts totaling over $1 billion. He has negotiated contracts for 21 Ravens first-round draft choices, as well as numerous free agents. He also analyzes draft-day trades during the NFL selection process each spring. Moriarty works closely with GM Ozzie Newsome in many areas, including helping to coordinate the budgets of the scouting, coaching, equipment, football video, training, and strength and conditioning departments. In 2008, Moriarty was part of an eight-member committee to select head coach John Harbaugh.

1996-2014: (with Baltimore) 2014: Re-signed a number of key Ravens free agents to new contracts and signed free agent WR Steve Smith, Sr. to a multi-year deal. 2013: Re-signed Super Bowl XLVII QB Joe Flacco to a six-year contract... Signed free agents DL Chris Canty and OLB Elvis Dumervil to multi-year deals. 2010-12: Extended the contracts of defensive starters S Bernard Pollard and CB Lardarius Webb ('12) and negotiated a long-term deal for P Sam Koch ('11)...Ravens traded for and then signed Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin ('10) and signed standout free agent DE Cory Redding. 2008-09: In 2009, team re-signed LB Ray Lewis to finish his career in Baltimore and added quality free agent veterans, including six-time Pro Bowl C Matt Birk, K Billy Cundiff, CB Domonique Foxworth and CB/RS Chris Carr, to improve the roster...Ravens signed Pro Bowl special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo in 2008 to bolster the roster. 2005-07: Ravens traded for QB Steve McNair in 2006, and in 2007, for RB Willis McGahee, who earned his first Pro Bowl with Baltimore...Moriarty also re-negotiated the contracts of two key Ravens defensive players: NT Kelly Gregg and Pro Bowl S Ed Reed...Also re-signed OLB Jarret Johnson and Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott...In free agency, Moriarty negotiated the contracts for key additions DE Trevor Pryce, WR Derrick Mason and CB Samari Rolle...Named VP of football administration in '05. 1997-2004: Re-negotiated the contracts of several other pivotal players, including Pro Bowlers TE Todd Heap, LB Ray Lewis and T Jonathan Ogden, allowing the team to remain competitive while staying within the confines of the salary cap. 1996: When the franchise moved to Baltimore, Moriarty was named the organization's chief financial officer.

1994-95: (with Cleveland) Joined the Browns' front office in 1994 as the director of business operations.

1982-93: Was involved in commercial banking in the Cleveland area. 1988-93: Worked for Key Bank in Cleveland in the corporate lending division.

1980-81: Spent NFL training camps with the Cleveland Browns and Miami Dolphins.

NFL PLAYER (1979): Moriarty's NFL career began as a rookie free agent RB for the Cleveland Browns in 1979...Scored 2 TDs and also played on special teams.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Earned a bachelor's degree in industrial management from Georgia Tech, where he was a three-year starter at RB...Later earned his master's degree (1993) in business administration from John Carroll University...Earned All-State honors in both football and track at Benedictine (Cleveland, OH) HS and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 2002...Brother, Tom, played five years in the NFL as a DB, four with Atlanta and one with Pittsburgh...Moriarty, who is on the NFL Management Council's Working Club Executive Committee for the 11th-straight year, is a graduate of the Univ. of Baltimore School of Law...Has been a guest speaker at numerous events, including Loyola University, Univ. of Maryland Law School, Univ. of Maryland Business School and the Univ. of Baltimore School of Law, where he spoke on sports and entertainment law...Moriarty is also on the Board of Advisors for the Univ. of Baltimore School of Law...Has participated in the annual Ravens' event, A Purple Evening (football sessions for women), speaking on the NFL's salary cap...He and his wife, Lynn, are the parents of son, Kevin (26), who works at the technical staffing firm Fortitude Systems (McLean, VA), and played midfield on the 2012 NCAA National Championship Loyola University lacrosse team, and daughters, Laura (23), a graduate of UNC-Wilmington, and Katherine (20), a sophomore at Fairfield University.

"Pat is an 'impact player' in our organization. He is thorough and sound, plus creative in the structure of contracts. He has a working knowledge of every team's salary cap structure and knows the ins and outs of working with the league office. His management of our cap helped us win our two Super Bowls (2000 and 2012)."

– General Manager & Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome

VINCENT NEWSOME

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

COLLEGE: WASHINGTON
BORN: 1/22/61, BRAINTREE, ENGLAND
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 32/19 (10 PLAYING / 22 SCOUTING)

Vincent Newsome is in his sixth year as the team's director of pro personnel. Newsome oversees the team's pro scouting efforts, including evaluating NFL free agent talent, providing the coaching staff with advance scouting reports of upcoming opponents and conducting free agent workouts throughout the year. He works closely with GM Ozzie Newsome in analyzing NFL rosters, reviewing the waiver wire daily, and coordinating and evaluating each year's free agency market. Newsome also works with VP of football administration Pat Moriarty in providing background on players, specifically to assess their talent level and decide a salary cap value. In 2008, he served on the eight-member committee to interview and select Ravens head coach John Harbaugh. Newsome originally joined the franchise's personnel department in 1993, following a 10-year career as a safety in the NFL.

1996-2014: (with Baltimore) 2013: Was selected to attend the NFL's Career Development Symposium for upper management personnel at the Wharton School of Business in Philadelphia...Ravens bolstered roster following Super Bowl XLVII victory with Pro Bowl OLB Elvis Dumervil and DE Chris Canty. 2011-12: Ravens acquired key free agents in WR/RS Jacoby Jones ('12), who earned his first Pro Bowl in 2012 and three-time Pro Bowl FB Vonta Leach and S Bernard Pollard in 2011. 2010: Ravens traded for Pro Bowl WR Anquan Boldin, who provided solid leadership and was a key contributor in the team's Super Bowl XLVII victory. 2009: Named the Ravens' director of pro personnel in January...Assisted in evaluating and acquiring free agents including C Matt Birk (six-time Pro Bowler). 2003-08: Was the team's assistant director of pro personnel for six years, handling advance scouting of Ravens opponents, as well as evaluating talent in the CFL...Newsome conducted free agent workouts during the regular season and assisted the college scouting staff by evaluating talent for the NFL Draft... Baltimore secured a number of key free agents, including three-time Pro Bowl special teamer Brendon Ayanbadejo and important utility CB Frank Walker. 2000-02: Was the Ravens' western college supervisor, covering players from California to Wisconsin. 1996-99: Became the Ravens' West area scout upon the team's move to Baltimore...Over the years, key acquisitions from Newsome's scouting area have had success and are recognized league-wide, including Pro Bowlers T Jonathan Ogden, CB Chris McAlister, TE Todd Heap and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2003 Defensive Rookie of the Year and 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

1993-95: (with Cleveland) Spent three years as a special assignment scout evaluating skill positions nationally... Joined the Browns' personnel department after retiring from the NFL after an 11-year playing career in the spring of 1993.

NFL PLAYER (1983-93): Was a standout safety for the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns...His 10-year career totals include 763 tackles (526 solo), 4 sacks, 62 PD, 17 INTs, 7 FFs and 9 FRs...Led the Rams in tackles his last two seasons... Was honored by his Rams teammates in 1989 with the Ed Block Courage Award after missing 10 games with a neck injury...In 1985, was both the Rams' Special Teams Player of the Year and a Sports Illustrated All-Pro at safety...Was originally a fourth-round draft selection by the Rams in 1983.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Earned honorable mention All-America honors as a DB his senior year at Washington... Led the secondary with 69 tackles and recorded 4 INTs... Was president of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and majored in psychology...Attended Vacaville (CA) HS, where he was a three-sport athlete (football, basketball and track)...Vincent and his wife, Tasha, have three daughters, Candace, Emerald and Victoria.

SUPER BOWLS SINCE 2000

The Baltimore Ravens have won two Super Bowl titles during their 18-year history, capturing the Lombardi Trophy in 2000 and 2012. Baltimore is just one of four NFL franchises to win multiple World Championships since 2000.

JOE HORTIZ

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

COLLEGE: AUBURN
BORN: 11/8/75, PHILADELPHIA, PA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 16/16

Joe Hortiz is in his fifth year as the Ravens' director of college scouting. He directs the Ravens' college scouting process, coordinating the schedules and cross-checking duties of the area scouts. Hortiz also manages the team's draft preparation and the evaluation and ranking process of hundreds of NFL draft-eligible prospects. Hortiz, who joined the organization in 1998, spent eight years as a scout for Baltimore, covering the Northeast and Southeast regions before becoming a national scout for three seasons (2006-08). In 2007, Baltimore selected Auburn G Ben Grubbs (29th overall), who was scouted by the fellow Auburn alum Hortiz and became a Pro Bowler in 2011 with the Ravens. A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," (see below), Hortiz originally joined Baltimore as a personnel assistant in 1998.

1998-2014: (with Baltimore) 2013-14: Team selected LB C.J. Mosley (Alabama, 17th overall, 2014) and S Matt Elam (Florida, 32nd overall, 2013) in the first round. 2012: Ravens drafted Alabama OLB Courtney Upshaw (second round), Iowa State G Kelechi Osemele (second) and Temple RB Bernard Pierce (third), all of whom helped the Ravens win Super Bowl XLVII. 2011: Selected CB Jimmy Smith (Colorado) and WR Torrey Smith (Maryland) in the first two rounds... Torrey set team rookie receiving records in catches (50), yards (841) and TDs (7). 2010: Ravens drafted key contributors TEs Ed Dickson (third round) and Dennis Pitta (fourth), DE Art Jones (fifth) plus WR/RS David Reed, who had the NFL's longest KOR (103 yards), setting a then-franchise record in 2010. 2009: Promoted to director of college scouting after eight years as a college scout...In Hortiz's first draft as head of college scouting, Baltimore selected All-Rookie team performer T Michael Oher (Mississippi) with the 23rd-overall selection and CB/RS Lardarius Webb (Nicholls State). 2008: Scouted players across the country, with a primary focus on the eastern half, where seven of 10 Ravens draft picks were selected in the '08 NFL Draft...Was invited to introduce Grubbs at the Ravens Roost No. 7's annual Extra Effort Award banquet in April. 2007: Team's first-round draft pick Grubbs was selected from Joe's focus area and attended his alma mater. 2006: Promoted to national scout...Was tasked with covering the eastern half of the country, including the Big East, Big Ten, MAC, ACC, SEC and Conference USA. 2003-05: Served as Ravens Southeast area scout and covered the SEC, ACC and C-USA. 2001-02: Scouted the Northeast. 1998-2000: Worked both with the pro and college scouting staffs as a football personnel assistant...Responsibilities included assisting GM Ozzie Newsome and vice president of football administration Pat Moriarty, who manages the salary cap, and performing "the box" workout at schools across the country for three spring seasons.

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: While earning his B.S. in accounting from Auburn, Joe was an undergraduate assistant coach for Terry Bowden and the Tigers' football team from 1995-97...Worked with both the QBs and WRs and coached the scout team LBs and secondary...Also coordinated Auburn's summer football camps...Son of Joe and Marlene Hortiz, Joe attended Salesianum (Wilmington, DE) HS...He and his wife, Jennifer, have four sons, Joey (7), Jack (6), Jameson (3) and Julian (1).

THE "20/20 CLUB"

The Ravens' "20/20 Club" includes members of the team's personnel staff who started with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. The term "20/20" refers to hiring 20-year-olds for $20,000. According to GM Ozzie Newsome: "The guys actually started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them."

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

Adam Schein, FoxSports.com: "Three guarantees in life: Death, taxes and the Ravens ruling the draft. General manager Ozzie Newsome, assistant general manager Eric DeCosta and a great scouting department comprise a front office that always seems to be three steps ahead."

Don Banks, SI.com: "Talk to anyone who has watched [Ozzie] Newsome and his staff work up close, and they'll repeat a variation of the same theme: He made the rare transition from great player to great team executive and personnel evaluator by prioritizing listening, learning before talking, and being able to assimilate vast amounts of information and condense it down to its most salient points. Somehow, Newsome is able to block out the noise and avoid drowning in the details, which paves the way to more decisive and reasoned decision-making in the inherently inexact science that is football scouting and evaluation."

Ian Rapoport, NFL.com: "The Ravens' general manager [Ozzie Newsome] has built a perennial playoff participant through the draft, and he's done so by spotlighting the kinds of players the organization is now known for – those who play like they'd do it for free. Gritty, tough and with a love of the game. Hard-nosed, nasty and with a certain violence. If you were choosing sides for a street fight, think about how many Ravens you'd want on your team."

John Clayton, ESPN: "As a player, he was known as the Wizard of Oz, a Hall of Fame tight end who was hard to stop. As a drafter, he's a master of finding the right players."

LONNIE YOUNG

RAVENS DRAFT WIZARDRY

Mel Kiper, ESPN: "This team wins because it drafts well. Steve Bisciotti is a great owner because he lets his guys do their job. It's a great organization."

Jon Gruden, ESPN: "If I ever get a chance to come back and coach, I'm going to call Ozzie Newsome to make all of my picks."

Todd McShay, ESPN: "The Ravens are successful, because they ignore needs to take the best player available. There's a reason the Ravens are always picking in the bottom half of the draft. They win and are in the playoffs each year."

Rick Gosselin, The Dallas Morning News: "If I had to pick one guy to draft a team, I'd take Ozzie Newsome. He's the best I've seen since Ron Wolf. No matter where the Ravens draft, a good player seems to fall to them."

Don Banks, SI.com: "The Ravens are the NFL's gold standard on draft day, consistently making choices that stand the test of time."

ProFootballWeekly.com*: "[Ozzie] Newsome and owner Steve Bisciotti have an excellent relationship, and Newsome figures to be running the Ravens' drafts for years to come. The Ravens' track record of draft success is no secret, and it's the envy of many clubs that are low on blue-chip players."

COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Jon and his wife, Diane, have two sons, Brian, who served two tours for the U.S. Army – one in Iraq and one in Afghanistan – and is now working towards his college degree, and Jacob, who is in his third year studying public relations at York (PA) College...The Dubés also are the proud parents of three Scottish Terriers, Angus, Shortbread and MacKenzie.

HARBAUGH IMMORTALIZED WITH STATUE AT ALMA MATER

In April 2014, head coach John Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue. Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

Harbaugh was overwhelmed by the honor and by the many supporters, including Ravens GM Ozzie Newsome and team president Dick Cass, who attended the ceremony.

"I don't think you can even express what something like this means. I've been trying to figure it out," he said. "There's nothing like Miami. There's nothing like being back here. Words can't describe my gratitude for being part of this."

Both of John's parents, Jack and Jackie (pictured at right), his brother, 49ers head coach Jim Harbaugh, sister, Joani, wife, Ingrid (at right), and daughter, Alison (at right), all made the trip to Oxford, Ohio.

The cross-country visit from Jim was a surprise: "There have been a lot of proud moments, but I've never been more proud of [John] than I am today," Jim said. "I always prided myself on being the tallest Harbaugh, but that all changed today when they unveiled that statue."

WILLIAM SHERIDAN

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

COLLEGE: TOLEDO
BORN: 1/23/67, LAKEWOOD, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 25/8

William Sheridan, named the Ravens' equipment manager in May 2012, is in the 25th season of his NFL career and his eighth in Baltimore. MICHELLE ANDRES
VICE PRESIDENT OF DIGITAL MEDIA & BROADCASTING

Michelle Andres joined the Baltimore Ravens in 2006. She leads the franchise's digital media and broadcasting departments with the goals of serving and engaging its vast fan base and providing sponsors with powerful vehicles to reach that fan base.

Andres is responsible for the team's social media, BaltimoreRavens.com, mobile channels, online sales, email and database marketing, market research, photography and television programming.

The team is consistently ranked in the Top 10 of NFL teams in all KPIs (key performance indicators) despite having one of the smallest markets in the league. And, the foundation of the Ravens' digital media and broadcasting efforts is, first and foremost, compelling content – information that not only provides fans with comprehensive coverage of the team, but also provides a glimpse behind the scenes and under the helmet.

Prior to working for the Ravens, Andres spent nine seasons with the NBA's Orlando Magic – seven in public relations overseeing corporate communications and government relations and two leading the franchise's newly-formed interactive marketing department.

Currently an adjunct professor at Georgetown University's Sports Industry Management Graduate Program, Andres teaches sports digital media and enhanced consumer engagement.

A native of Gainesville, FL, Andres earned her master's degree in political campaign management from the University of Florida and her bachelor's degree in political science from Furman University.

ED BURCHELL
VICE PRESIDENT OF STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS & SALES

Ed Burchell has been with the Ravens since 2002. The Baltimore native is charged with driving the organization's strategic partnerships and sales to build team revenue, brand awareness and brand growth.

In addition to the naming rights relationship with Smyth Jewelers (Ring of Honor) at M&T Bank Stadium, Burchell's strategic partnerships include companies such as Giant Food, Merritt Properties, McCormick & Co., T. Rowe Price, Legg Mason, Exelon/Constellation, Maryland Lottery, The Baltimore Sun, Maryland LIVE, Advance and Utz Snack Foods.

Burchell led the founding of the Ravens Executive Connection in creating strong business-to-business relationships with the team's corporate partnership base, and he is also the co-founder of the Ravens All Community Team & NFL Football Challenge, both programs that unite corporate business leaders from the community with the Ravens and individual player foundations.

Prior to joining the Ravens, Burchell was an officer and vice president for Genesis Health Ventures. While there, he was responsible for building and implementing national revenue-generating strategies for its consulting practice and regionally for its Chesapeake network.

Burchell is a member of several charitable boards and committees: the Ravens Foundation and Signature Project Committee; Loyola - Blakefield Board of Trustees & Development Committee; Catholic Charities Golf & Gala Committees; and Advisory Board Member - STEM Education Advisory Board of Baltimore. He is a 2011 graduate of the Greater Baltimore Committee Leadership Program, where he was selected as a class captain and to its board of directors in 2012.

A University of Virginia graduate, Ed and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown and have two sons, Edward (16) and Alexander (12).

M&T BANK PARTNERSHIP

On May 21, 2014, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore. The partnership, which began as a 15-year agreement in 2003 and is now extended through 2027, has proven to reach far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives.

FRONT OFFICE

BOB ELLER
VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Bob Eller is in his 28th season with the franchise and his 31st in the NFL. Eller directs the day-to-day operations of the team, including at the Under Armour Performance Center, summer training camp and minicamps, team travel and catering for the players, coaches and staff. The Baltimore native has been with the franchise since 1987, serving in both the public relations and operations departments.

In 2004, Eller directed the team's move to the new facility. In his history with the team, he also wrote and edited media guides and other PR-related materials, as well as coordinating the operations of the game day stats crew.

Eller's career began as an intern for the Baltimore Colts in 1983, while a senior at Towson University (business administration). A year later, the team's first in Indianapolis, he joined the club and was quickly promoted to director of public relations. Eller then moved to Cleveland in 1987 to become the Browns' assistant director of public relations. He was promoted to director of operations and information in 1991. Bob was then invited to join the team in the move to Baltimore in 1996, helping to facilitate many of the start-up functions for the new Ravens.

Eller has worked eight Super Bowls for the NFL, plus two for the Ravens during their 2000 and 2012 seasons. He served as the Browns' primary league office liaison when the NFL launched the player assistance and development programs.

An active supporter of the St. Vincent's Center for abused children, Bob and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Erin (21) and a son, Joey (18).

JEFF GOERING
VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jeff Goering, who joined the club in 1999, oversees all functions of the Ravens' finance department, including the organization's strategic planning, budgeting, financial reporting, tax, audit and risk management processes. He is also the chief financial liaison with various governmental agencies, stadium contractors and event promoters.

Goering was named senior director of finance in 2004 after spending his first five years with the Ravens as the organization's controller.

As a senior consultant for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Dallas, Goering worked with many sports entities, preparing financial feasibility studies, market assessments and economic impact analyses for proposed new or expanded sports venues.

He received his master's of science in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. During that time, he also served as a consultant in the evaluation and preparation of Boston Red Sox salary arbitration cases.

Goering spent a year in the Philippines as a community development volunteer for the Presbyterian Church, USA, in 1995-96. He received a B.S. in business administration from Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) University.

Jeff, who serves on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., earned his CPA certificate in 1992. He and his wife, Sheryl, have two daughters, Olivia (13) and Carly (11), and a son, Daniel (8).

TOP NFL FRANCHISES

Every year, ESPN The Magazine compiles the results of fan surveys and financial analysis to determine which teams in the NFL, NBA, MLB and NHL offer the greatest rewards for all the emotion, money and time that fans invest in them. The rankings are determined by a multi-tiered analysis that examines a team's efficiency in spending fan money as compared to its on-field performance. It also factors in feedback in 25 sub-categories from more than 60,000 fans nationwide, both online at ESPN.com and in polling conducted by independent third parties. In 2013, the Baltimore Ravens ranked as the 10th-best overall sports franchise and the second-best NFL franchise.

BILL JANKOWSKI
VICE PRESIDENT OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Bill Jankowski has been with the franchise in a full-time role since 1986. He was one of 28 to join Art Modell in the move to Baltimore with the team in 1996. Jankowski guides the Ravens' information technology department to support many technological functions for the organization, including business, coaching, stadium, scouting, public relations and training operations.

He helped the team through the transition of moving to Baltimore and has kept the organization on par with today's ever-changing technology world.

The Cleveland native works with senior director of information technology Nick Fusee and information technology coordinator Kevin Boyle to support both the coaching and scouting staffs, assisting with their unique software programming. The software assists the coaches in game-planning and game analysis, combining with the football video department.

They also help manage the scouting player personnel database, integrating the system with the NFL Management Council.

Jankowski spent two years as the chair of the NFL's Technical Advisory Committee and was a member of the committee to help design the NFL's Game Statistics & Information System (GSIS) in 1996.

Bill, who attended St. Ignatius HS and John Carroll University, (Cleveland, OH), lives in Reisterstown, MD.

BAKER KOPPELMAN
VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKET SALES & OPERATIONS

Baker Koppelman has been with the Ravens since their first year in Baltimore (1996). Koppelman oversees the team's PSL, season ticket and hospitality sales, ticket operations, ticket distribution, customer service, club level service, retail sales and assists with attracting events to M&T Bank Stadium.

Born and raised in Baltimore, Koppelman has worked in professional sports ticketing operations since 1987, selling Baltimore Orioles tickets at Memorial Stadium during the summer while earning his sports management and economics degrees at Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), where he graduated in 1990.

He worked his way to a full-time position with the Orioles in 1991, helping manage the stadium box office and contributing with the seating relocation from Memorial Stadium to Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992. He then spent a season with the San Diego Padres in 1995, before returning to his hometown to join the Ravens prior to their inaugural season in Baltimore.

Koppelman is a graduate of St. Paul's School (Baltimore), and Baker's wife, Reba, is the Ravens' director of finance.

M&T BANK STADIUM EVENTS

In what has become a world-renowned venue, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens have hosted Jay-Z and Beyonce's On the Run Tour (July 2014) and The Legends of The Summer Tour featuring Justin Timberlake and Jay-Z (August 2013). Baltimore also hosted a U2 concert in June 2011, Monster Jam in June of 2011-13, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan (2009), Manchester City and Inter Milan (2010), and Tottenham and Liverpool (2012), and the CONCACAF Gold Cup (2013).

KEVIN ROCHLITZ
VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE SALES & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Kevin Rochlitz, who joined the Ravens in 2003, was promoted to vice president of corporate sales and business development in March of 2013. He leads the Ravens' corporate sales department, which includes national and regional partnerships, broadcasting contracts – including day-to-day operations with WBAL-TV, WBAL Radio and 98Rock – and M&T Bank Stadium suite sales.

Among the contracts completed by Rochlitz, 43, are partnerships with MedStar Health, AAA, Visa, Coca-Cola, MillerCoors, Anheuser-Busch, Verizon, Southwest Airlines, Ticketmaster and Dietz and Watson. At M&T Bank Stadium, he created and sold the Bacardi Bar and Talon Pub, as well as the club level bars.

In 2014, Rochlitz was part of the sales team that completed a 10-year, $60 million partnership extension with M&T Bank, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs. Rochlitz also coordinated the Ravens' partnership with Under Armour, which led to the team's training facility being named the Under Armour Performance Center in 2012.

Before joining the Ravens, Rochlitz spent five years as the senior VP of sales for Mandalay Sports and Entertainment/ Mandalay Pictures, owners of the Dayton Dragons and Frisco Rough Riders (minor league baseball). He coordinated the new stadium construction and sold naming rights for each venue (Fifth Third Field in Dayton, Ohio, and Dr Pepper Ballpark in Frisco, Texas). From 1996-97, Rochlitz was one of the youngest assistant athletic directors in NCAA Division I-A for the University of Miami.

Rochlitz serves on the board of advisors for the D.E.B.S. Sport Business Management program at the University of Central Florida and on the NFL Club Business Development Committee. Kevin is also on the Signal 13 Foundation with the Baltimore City Police Department.

In May of 2011, Rochlitz was selected by the U.S. Department of Defense and its Secretary Robert Gates to join the Joint Civilian Orientation Conference to better understand and promote the U.S. military. He was among 39 top business leaders from across the country selected for this work.

Rochlitz earned a degree in marketing from Wyoming. He and his wife, Melissa, have a daughter, Riley (11).

ROY SOMMERHOF
VICE PRESIDENT OF STADIUM OPERATIONS

Roy Sommerhof joined the Ravens during their inaugural season in Baltimore (1996). Sommerhof manages all aspects of M&T Bank Stadium, including game day parking and transportation, security, guest services, custodial services, catering, medical services and stadium maintenance.

Since the stadium opened in 1998, Sommerhof has spearheaded the team's efforts to make it one of the best in the NFL, supervising improvements to both the suite and club levels, the installation of the spectacular new high definition video boards in 2010, the addition of 15 new suites, and the design and installation of the M&T Bank Stadium signage. In the spring of 2013, the Ravens announced a two-year, $35 million investment to enhance the fan experience at the stadium, with improvements to video boards, concession stands and all concourses. With Sommerhof's leadership, M&T Bank Stadium received a LEED Gold Certification in November 2013, becoming the first outdoor stadium of any kind in North America to achieve this distinction.

Prior to joining the Ravens, the Baltimore native spent 16 years working in both ticket sales and stadium operations for the Orioles. He played a significant role in the planning, development and execution of the opening of Oriole Park at Camden Yards in 1992.

During his career, he has been involved with numerous special events, including hosting both Pope John Paul II at Oriole Park (1995) and the Queen of England at Memorial Stadium (1991), and the MLB All-Star Game at Oriole Park (1993).

He is also the former chairman of the Gridiron Stadium Network, a consortium of 12 NFL facilities that creates awareness and promotes the assets of its member stadiums. The GSN works to optimize opportunities to expand the use of the state-of-the-art facilities for new sports, entertainment, public and private events.

Through Roy's efforts and those of GSN, M&T Bank Stadium and the Ravens hosted Jay-Z and Beyonce's On the Run Tour in July of 2014 and The Legends of The Summer Tour featuring Justin Timberlake and Jay-Z in August of 2013. Baltimore also hosted a U2 concert in June 2011, Monster Jam in June of 2011-13, a Kenny Chesney concert in 2008, international soccer matches between Chelsea and AC Milan (2009), Manchester City and Inter Milan (2010), and Tottenham and Liverpool (2012), and the CONCACAF Gold Cup (2013).

Sommerhof graduated from St. Thomas (Miami, FL) University in 1979 with a degree in sports administration. Roy, and his wife, Lina, have two sons, Drew (20) and Cole (12).

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The Ravens moved into their 200,000-square-foot training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 90,000 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres, and the entire complex was completed in December of 2004. Almost all of the physical construction on the project was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

The facility includes a full-service kitchen, cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer wireless Internet capability.

Approximately 200 Ravens are housed at the headquarters in Owings Mills. The ticket office and stadium operations remain at M&T Bank Stadium.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us," general manager & executive vice president Ozzie Newsome stated. "Steve [Bisciotti] has delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."

The Ravens have three grass practice fields – all Bermuda Grass – at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills, MD.

The Under Armour Performance Center houses a brand new radio and TV studio that the team, Comcast SportsNet and WBAL utilize for their in-house broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field with the same surface (Shaw Sportexe "Momentum 51" turf) used at M&T Bank Stadium.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

RAVENS FOUNDATION

The Ravens Foundation, Inc. is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in the Baltimore area, as well as other parts of the state of Maryland. The foundation focuses on programs that help youth, and in some cases their families, with various needs, including housing, hunger, education, athletics and mentoring. Please visit BaltimoreRavens.com/community for more information.

The Ravens Foundation gives financial and volunteer support to several Baltimore-area charitable partners.

Among our current charitable partners:

Boys Hope Girls Hope – The nonprofit helps academically-capable and motivated children in need to meet their full potential and become men and women by providing value-centered, family-like homes, opportunities and education through college.

Bridges at St. Paul's School – An enrichment institute that offers Baltimore City youth access to a nine-year support network of summer, weekend and after-school programs that set them on a path to become future civic and professional leaders.

My Sister's Circle – A comprehensive, relationship-based program designed to mentor disadvantaged girls in Baltimore during their challenging transition to middle school, throughout high school and into college.

St. Vincent's Villa – A residential group home for children with serious behavioral, psychiatric and/or emotional problems. The majority of children referred to St. Vincent's have suffered trauma related to child abuse and neglect.

RAVENS FOUNDATIONS

Many Ravens have taken their passion for giving to a higher level by establishing their own charitable foundations. To learn more about their foundations and how they impact hundreds of lives each year, please visit www.BaltimoreRavens.com/community.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

Throughout the year, the Baltimore Ravens regularly salute the Armed Forces through several initiatives that include hosting military members at training camp and practices, visiting veteran hospitals, welcoming home soldiers and showing support through care packages, letters and daily communication.

In addition to their annual Military Appreciation Day, instituted by head coach John Harbaugh in 2008, and the annual NFL Salute to Service game, the Ravens have joined forces with Dietz & Watson to honor active and veteran servicemen and women at every home game through the Hometown Hero Award. Each hero is awarded tickets to the game, pre-game sideline passes and an opportunity to personally deliver the game ball to the NFL referee.

Head coach John Harbaugh has demonstrated a passion for supporting military initiatives since he joined the organization in 2008. In recognition of his commitment to honoring and supporting United States military members and their families, Harbaugh was named the NFL's 2013 Salute to Service Award Winner (below middle right). The award recognizes "exceptional efforts by members of the NFL community to honor and support U.S. service members and veterans." In 2014, after receiving the award, Harbaugh joined Gen. Raymond Odierno (bottom right) to again visit soldiers serving in the Middle East.

RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

ALL COMMUNITY TEAM

The mission of the All Community Team (ACT) is to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, player foundations and associated local charitable organizations. Through a wide variety of activities and events, the ACT makes a positive impact in the Maryland area. Title sponsor M&T Bank joins additional Baltimore corporations, providing financial and volunteer support to many Ravens community service projects. Annually, members of the ACT participate in kickoff and postseason events and community-building projects. At right, K Justin Tucker and LS Morgan Cox volunteer with Habitat Humanity of the Chesapeake in building 18 new rowhomes in Baltimore.

GREEN INITIATIVES

Through community initiatives, the Ravens aid in the fight to make Baltimore a more sustainable city by informing fans about the growing environmental crisis and educating them how to go green. In April 2014, the team once again partnered with Parks & People Foundation for their annual Earth Day event. Over 60 volunteers planted trees and performed other service activities in downtown Baltimore. The Ravens' Earth Day service project is an extension of the organization's continued efforts to reinforce M&T Bank Stadium's LEED Gold Certification, a unique designation given to organizations that strive to deliver healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-saving and energy- and water-efficient operating buildings.

YOUTH FOOTBALL & CONCUSSION AWARENESS

The Ravens and NFL are committed to encouraging and supporting youth football. The Ravens sponsor several initiatives, including the Ravens RISE program, which supports all youth football players in Maryland, giving them the chance to "Play Like a Raven" all year long. As part of RISE, the team has thrice hosted the Ravens Football Clinic presented by Under Armour, where 300-plus youth football players participated in position-specific drills. Dr. Andrew Tucker, head team physician for the Ravens, met with coaches, parents and athletes to discuss measures to prevent head injuries and steps to identify and care for concussions. For the fourth-consecutive year, the Ravens Youth Football Grant provided equipment and Under Armour apparel to 25 qualifying nonprofit youth football organizations in Maryland.

PLAY 60

The NFL's campaign designed to promote healthy and active lifestyles among today's youth, PLAY 60 is brought to life and implemented by the Ravens through Fuel Up to PLAY 60 kits, player-led assemblies, contests and sports clinics. Special partnerships with the Mid-Atlantic Dairy Association and the Partnership for a Healthier Carroll County allowed the Ravens to deliver the PLAY 60 message to more than 13,000 youth in 2013. At right, Torrey Smith joined teammates for the Ravens TEAM Challenge, an event where 100 local youth tested their physical endurance and ability to work as one unit in order to complete various activities. RAVENS IN OUR COMMUNITY

HISPANIC HERITAGE

The Baltimore Ravens celebrated the 2013 Hispanic Heritage Month (Sept. 15 – Oct. 15) with a series of special events, including a designated game vs. the Houston Texans. During the game, the Ravens honored Dr. Elizabeth Molina Morgan as the 2013 NFL Hispanic Heritage Leader, recognizing her positive impact on the Hispanic community in the Baltimore area. In addition, the Ravens held their fourth-annual Hispanic Heritage Clinic in conjunction with the NFL's PLAY 60 movement, the American Heart Association and the Mid-Atlantic Dairy Association. Players, including S Anthony Levine (right), cheerleaders and mascot Poe joined over 100 children to provide a football clinic for primarily Hispanic youth.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

The Ravens continued their support for Breast Cancer Awareness (BCA) Month, kicking off their efforts at the Ravens vs. Packers game on Oct. 13, 2013. During pre-game festivities, a group of 25 women with a history of breast cancer were honored in a pre-game tribute. Ravens players, coaches, cheerleaders and mascot Poe wore pink gear throughout the game, and volunteers distributed pink ribbons and pink rally towels. BCA Month was also recognized on the high school level when the Catonsville Comets hosted the Milford Mill Millers at their homecoming game on Oct. 11. The field was decorated with BCA banners while both varsity teams sported pink gear, all donated by the Ravens.

FOOD COLLECTION EFFORTS

The Ravens annually provide financial support to the Maryland Food Bank (MFB) through the Ravens' food collection efforts that include an Outweigh the O-Line kickoff event, in-store collection at more than 50 Baltimore-area Giant Food stores and the 18th annual Ravens Family Food and Funds Drive at M&T Bank Stadium, supported by Von Paris Moving and Storage. Efforts continue throughout the season, as members of the Lady Ravens gather once a month at the MFB to help package food for distribution to hungry families across Maryland. In addition, DT Haloti Ngata hosted a virtual food drive competition leading up to the 2013 Thanksgiving Night game vs. S Troy Polamalu and the Pittsburgh Steelers to benefit the MFB.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

Thanks to Ravens players, thousands of families annually receive support, including food and presents during the holidays. Food distributions and meal services have been led by S Matt Elam, CB Corey Graham, LB Jameel McClain, RB Ray Rice, CB Jimmy Smith (right), WR Torrey Smith and CB Lardarius Webb. In December 2013, the Ravens hosted their ninth-annual Holiday Helpers event at the Target store in Pikesville. Ravens teammates, mascot Poe and cheerleaders served as personal shoppers for children who received $200 gift certificates courtesy of players and coaches within the Ravens organization. Several players also hosted and supported holiday events in December, including clothing drives, hospital visits and special gift-giving celebrations.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award annually honors a player from each of the 32 NFL teams who exemplifies a commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The winners are selected for courageous effort, as well as individual performance. Voting is conducted by each team's players. The Ed Block Courage Award recipient also symbolizes professionalism, great strength and dedication. The award is named after the late Baltimore Colts' trainer Ed Block.

92 HALOTI NGATA

- Started both playoff games and recorded 4 tackles (3 solo), a half-sack and a PD for a defense that forced 7 turnovers

2009: (14/13, 2/2) Earned his first-career Pro Bowl (starter) nod after posting 41 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 1 FF and 1 FR for a squad that finished second in the AFC and third in the NFL in overall defense

- Started and netted 5 tackles, 1 FF and 1 FR for a defense that tied a then-franchise record, by forcing 6 turnovers and holding QB Jay Cutler to a Ravens' franchise-record-low 7.9 QB rating in game 14 vs. Chi. (12/20)
- Started his 50th-career game and led the D-line with 4 tackles and posted a half-sack (-5 yards), while helping hold the Chargers to 53 rushing yards and a 2.5 rushing average in the 31-26 win in game 2 at SD (9/20)
- Controlled the line of scrimmage, netting 1 tackle and 1 QB hit, and helped hold the Chiefs to 188 total yards, including just 29 on the ground in the 38-24 win in game 1 vs. KC (9/13)...Also saw action along the offensive line in goal-line situations against the Chiefs
- Recorded 7 tackles and a sack (-9 yards) for a defense that allowed just 106 rushing yards and 2.5 yards per rush in two playoff games

2008: (16/16, 3/3) Named as a first alternate to the Pro Bowl after anchoring the Ravens' defensive line...Led the D-line with 77 tackles (43 solo), 1 sack, a career-high 2 INTs and 5 PD as part of the NFL's second-ranked defense...Ravens finished 2008 having not allowed a 100-yard rusher in 35 consecutive games

- Was a dominant force, recording a tackle, 3 QB hits, 2 PD and an INT in the end zone, squashing a Texans' goal-line threat, in the 41-13 victory in game 9 at Hou. (11/9)
- Also saw action along the offensive line in short-and-goal situations...Posted 6 tackles, helping dominate the line of scrimmage, holding the Browns to 27 total yards in the second half of the 28-10 win in game 2 vs. Cle. (9/21)
- Finished fifth on the team with 12 tackles in the postseason

2007: (16/16) Turned in an exceptional sophomore performance after anchoring the second-ranked run defense in the NFL...Tied for fifth on the team (Jarret Johnson) with a career-high 94 tackles, 3 sacks, 2 PD and 1 FF

- Led D-line with a then-career-high 9 tackles and had 2 QB hits in game 9 vs. Cin. (11/11)

2006: (16/16, 1/1) Named to the Pro Football Weekly/ Professional Football Writers of America All-Rookie team... Was the only Ravens rookie to start all 16 regular season games, netting 51 tackles, 3 PD, 1 sack and 1 INT

- Started and made 5 tackles (4 solo) and his first-career sack (-3 yards) in the 31-7 win in game 15 at Pit. (12/24)
- Started his first-career NFL game in the 27-0 victory in the season opener at TB (9/10) and posted 1 tackle, 1 PD and his first-career INT off of a LB Bart Scott deflection... Rumbled 60 yards to the Tampa Bay 9, which led to a FG
- Also collected 7 tackles in one playoff game

COLLEGE: Entered the draft following his junior season... Consensus first-team All-American selection as a junior and the first at Oregon since DB Mel Renfro in 1962...Compiled 151 tackles (83 solo), 24.5 TFL, 10 sacks (-64 yards), 7 PD, 3 FFs and 1 FR in 36 career games (29 starts)...Set a school record with 7 blocked kicks (3 FGAs, 3 PATs and 1 punt)... Was a finalist for the Outland Trophy (best collegiate interior lineman) and the Bronko Nagurski award (best college defensive player) as a junior...Consensus All-American honors from the Associated Press, NFL Draft Report, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sports Illustrated and ESPN.com as a redshirt junior in 2005...Also a unanimous first-team All-Pac-10 produced "When Beautiful People Do Ugly Things," a short film that was shot in Baltimore and was shown at the Cannes Film Festival in France in May 2011...Suggs' independent film company, Team Sizzle Productions, had another film, "The Commitment," selected to Cannes in 2012...Suggs was the producer, while Rich Volin wrote and directed the movie... Suggs' third movie "The Coalition," which he wrote and produced, was released on Feb. 5, 2013...He is also in pre-production on his fourth movie "Everything About You," due out in 2014...Also, during the 2012 offseason, Suggs was one of 20 players selected to take part in the NFL's first-ever Hollywood Boot Camp...The four-day event is designed to provide current and former players an opportunity to get a taste of the motion picture business.

55 TERRELL SUGGS

COMMUNITY: Annually hosts the "Team Sizzle Worldwide Celebrity Weekend," a charitable event to benefit the William E. Proudford Sickle Cell Fund…Inspired by a chance encounter with a teen who suffers from sickle cell anemia, Suggs' charitable focus is on funding research efforts and care for those who have the disease…Continues to support his alma mater, Hamilton (Chandler, AZ) HS, and has provided uniforms, cleats and gloves to the football team...Also supports his teammates' and Ravens' charitable initiatives, including the 2011 Anquan Boldin Foundation Fundraising Dinner, the Ngata Family Foundation Event and former Raven Jonathan Ogden's "A Ringside Gala" (2012)... Suggs' AAU basketball team (Team Sizzle) won the under-13 Championship with a 23-1 record in June, 2014.

2013 HONORS/MILESTONES

WR MARLON BROWN
- Pepsi NEXT Rookie of the Week (Week 14)
- Became the first Ravens rookie in franchise history to score a touchdown in each of his first two career contests, in addition to becoming the first rookie since WR Torrey Smith (2011) to lead the team in touchdown receptions (7)
- Set career highs in receptions (7) and receiving yards (92) while securing his first-career game-winning touchdown (with :04 remaining) in the 29-26 win vs. Minnesota in Week 14 (12/8)

QB JOE FLACCO
- GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week (Week 14)
- Started all 16 games for the sixth-straight season, extending his streak of consecutive starts (including the postseason) to 109 games, the longest stretch by any QB in NFL history to begin a career
- Led the Ravens to eight regular season wins in 2013; Flacco's 62 regular season wins are the most by a QB in the first six seasons of his career and his 71 total victories, including the playoffs, are the most by an NFL starting QB since he entered the league in 2008
- Commanded six home victories at M&T Bank Stadium to total 39 overall in his career, the most among NFL starting QBs since 2008
- Set career highs in attempts (614), completions (362) and passing yards (3,912), becoming the first player in Ravens franchise history to throw for 20,000 yards
- Extended his franchise records in career passing touchdowns (121), career passing yards (21,545), 300-yard passing games (16) and career completions (1,869)
- Engineered his 19th-career game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime vs. Minnesota in Week 14 (12/8), leading to a franchise-record 61-yard field goal by K Justin Tucker in the 18-16 victory
- Set single-game career highs in attempts (62) and completions (34) in the Week 1 (9/5) contest at Denver

NT HALOTI NGATA
- Pro Bowl - Fifth Invite
- Dating back to 2006 when Ngata entered the NFL, the Ravens have allowed the fewest rushing touchdowns (63) and the third-fewest rushing yards (93.1) in the league
- Topped the Ravens' defensive line with 52 tackles (23 solo), 1.5 sacks (-12 yards) and 3 passes defensed in 2013
- Appeared in at least 14 games (15 starts in 2013) for the eighth time in as many years in his career
- Anchored a defensive front that allowed just 1 rushing touchdown through the first nine weeks of the 2013 regular season

G MARSHAL YANDA

WR MARLON BROWN

OLB TERRELL SUGGS
- Pro Bowl - Sixth Invite
- Surpassed Kelly Gregg (721) for second place on the Ravens' all-time list in career tackles, trailing only Ray Lewis (2,643)
- Registered his 500th-career solo stop against the New York Jets in Week 12 (11/24), posting 2 tackles and 1 sack
- Competed in his 150th career game in Week 1 (9/5) at Denver, totaling 6 tackles (4 solo) and 1 sack for a loss of 6 yards
- Added to his franchise records in sacks (94.5), sack yardage (-673) and forced fumbles (29)
- Led the team with 10 sacks, marking the fifth time in his career that he has produced double-digit sacks
- Netted a career-high 17 tackles (9 solo) in Week 4 (9/29) at Buffalo

K JUSTIN TUCKER
- Pro Bowl - First Invite
- Associated Press First-Team All-Pro
- PFWA First-Team All-Pro
- Sporting News First-Team All-Pro
- AFC Special Teams Player of the Month (November)
- AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 15)
- GMC Never Say Never Moment of the Week (Week 15)
- AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 12)
- AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 10)
- Tucker's 140 points in 2013 are the most in Ravens franchise history, while he also made 33-straight field goals, ranking as the fourth-longest streak in NFL history
- Tucker's 38 field goals made in 2013 are the most in Ravens' single-season history, besting Matt Stover's mark of 35 in 2000
- Kicked a franchise-record 61-yard game-winning field goal as part of a franchise-record 6 field goals (29, 24, 32, 49, 53, 61) in the 18-16 win at Detroit in Week 15 (12/16); Tucker is the only kicker in NFL history with field goals from 20, 30, 40, 50 and 60 yards in a single game
- Connected on all 7 field goal attempts and 4 point-after attempts to total 49 points in five games in the month of November

CB LARDARIUS WEBB
- USA Today All-Joe Team
- Registered career bests in tackles (74), solo tackles (led the Ravens with 63) and passes defensed (led the Ravens with 22, the second most in the NFL) and recorded 2 interceptions
- Started all 16 games for the first time in his career
- Recorded a career-high 6 passes defensed vs. Cincinnati (11/10)

G MARSHAL YANDA
- Pro Bowl (starter) - Third Invite
- Sporting News First-Team All-Pro
- Started all 16 games for the third time in the last four seasons

GAME 1: BRONCOS 49, RAVENS 27

Baltimore (0-1) · Denver (1-0)

Thursday, September 5, 2013 · 7:13 PM MT · Sports Authority Field at Mile High · Denver
Weather: 83°, Mostly Cloudy, Wind NW 7 mph · Attendance: 76,977 · Time: 3:38

Allowing a team-record points (49) and touchdown passes (7, tying an NFL record), the Ravens dropped the NFL season opener in Denver, 49-27. The start of the game was delayed 34 minutes because of lightning storms in the area. Baltimore led 17-14 at the half after FB Vonta Leach caught a 2-yard touchdown pass from QB Joe Flacco, RB Ray Rice scored on a 1-yard run, and K Justin Tucker hit a 25-yard field goal. But behind QB Peyton Manning, who tied an NFL record with 7 TD passes in the game, Denver exploded for 35 second-half points to secure the victory. In one six-minute span in the third quarter, Manning threw 3 TD passes (28 yards to WR Andre Caldwell and 2 to WR Wes Welker – for 5 and 2 yards). That gave the Broncos a 35-17 lead they extended to 42-17 when Manning hit WR Demaryius Thomas with a 26-yard beauty early in the fourth quarter. Baltimore closed the gap to 42-24 after Flacco hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 13-yard scoring strike. Flacco completed 34 of 62 passes for 362 yards with 2 TDs and 2 INTs. Rice and newly-signed TE Dallas Clark caught 8 (35 yards) and 7 (87 yards) passes, respectively. Manning was spectacular in leading an offense that amassed 510 yards, completing 27 of 42 for 462 yards with 7 TDs. Welker caught 9 for 67 yards, while Thomas grabbed 5 for 161 yards and 2 TDs. Baltimore sacked Manning three times, including one by his former teammate in Denver, OLB Elvis Dumervil.

GAME 2: RAVENS 14, BROWNS 6

Baltimore (1-1) • Cleveland (0-2)

Sunday, September 15, 2013 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 75°, Partly Cloudy, Wind SSW 6 mph • Attendance: 71,098 • Time: 3:10

After being shut out in the first half, the Ravens rebounded from a 6-0 deficit to beat the Browns, 14-6, at M&T Bank Stadium. Baltimore QB Joe Flacco, whose wife, Dana, delivered their second son, Daniel, within two hours of kickoff, kept his focus as he directed the two second-half scoring drives. Cleveland grabbed a 3-0 first-quarter lead on former Raven K Billy Cundiff's 21-yard field goal. Cundiff converted a 51-yard FG with two seconds left in the second quarter to give the Browns a 6-0 halftime advantage. Ravens K Justin Tucker, who missed just 3 FGs a year ago in his rookie season, missed two attempts in the first half, one from 50 yards and the second from 44 yards. On Baltimore's first possession in the third quarter, Flacco led a balanced 12-play, 80-yard drive that ended with RB Bernard Pierce's 5-yard touchdown run. (Flacco completed first-down passes on three third-and-long situations during the drive.) The Ravens' second TD came in the fourth quarter when Flacco hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 5-yard TD strike. Baltimore's defense limited Cleveland to 259 yards and did not allow a TD for the first time since it held the Browns to 5 FGs on 11/4/12. The Ravens sacked Browns QB Brandon Weeden 5 times, including 1.5 by ILB Daryl Smith. RB Trent Richardson was limited to 58 yards on 18 carries (3.2 avg.). Flacco completed passes to eight receivers, finishing 22-of-33 for 211 yards. WR Torrey Smith caught a career-high-tying 7 balls for 85 yards. RB Bernard Pierce, who subbed in the fourth quarter for injured RB Ray Rice (hip), gained 57 rushing yards.

GAME 3: RAVENS 30, TEXANS 9

Baltimore (2-1) • Houston (2-1)

Sunday, September 22, 2013 • 1:03 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 73°, Sunny, Wind NNW 9 mph • Attendance: 71,168 • Time: 3:09

Playing without starters RB Ray Rice, WR/RS Jacoby Jones and DE Chris Canty, the Ravens overwhelmed previously-unbeaten Houston, 30-9, at M&T Bank Stadium. Holding the ball 13 of the first 16 minutes of the game, the Texans took a 6-0 early second-quarter lead on 2 K Randy Bullock field goals (27 and 29 yards). K Justin Tucker's 28-yard FG made the score 6-3 with 4:11 remaining in the first half. Baltimore ILB Daryl Smith then stole a QB Matt Schaub pass and raced 37 yards to the end zone to give the Ravens a 10-6 advantage. Less than two minutes later, WR/RS Tandon Doss returned a Texans' punt 82 yards for a TD, making the score 17-6. Another Bullock FG (29 yards) produced a 17-9 halftime score. Baltimore increased its advantage on the opening drive of the third quarter, producing a 9-play, 80-yard drive that finished with RB Bernard Pierce's 1-yard TD dash. WR Torrey Smith produced 2 of the first downs on that series with catches of 48 and 24 yards. Tucker added 2 fourth-quarter FGs (45 and 43 yards) to make the final margin. This marked the second-consecutive game that the Ravens' defense did not allow a TD. Houston produced just 264 yards behind Schaub, who was sacked 3 times, completing 25 of 35 passes for 194 yards (72.8 rating). Rookie WR DeAndre Hopkins caught 6 of those for 60 yards. Meanwhile, QB Joe Flacco threw 24 times with 16 completions for 171 yards (87.3 rating), with Smith catching 5 for 92 yards. TE Dallas Clark added 4 receptions for 46 more, and Pierce rushed 24 times for 65 yards.

GAME 4: BILLS 23, RAVENS 20

Baltimore (2-2) · Buffalo (2-2)

Sunday, September 29, 2013 · 1:02 PM ET · Ralph Wilson Stadium · Orchard Park, NY
Weather: 67°, Partly Cloudy, Wind SSW 15 mph · Attendance: 68,296 · Time: 3:34

QB Joe Flacco threw a career-high and Ravens-record 5 INTs, 2 off of Baltimore receivers' hands, when the Ravens lost to the Bills, 23-20. The Ravens' defense allowed 203 rushing yards, the most since giving up a franchise-high 227 against Dallas (10/14/12). Despite this, Baltimore had the ball at the 50-yard line on third-and-8 with 1:04 left in the game, trailing by 3 points. Flacco then threw his 5th pick of the day when the ball bounced off TE Dallas Clark's hands and was snagged by rookie ILB Kiko Alonso. It was Alonso's second of the day. CB Aaron Williams also had 2 INTs, both setting up Dan Carpenter field goals (27 and 22 yards) – one in the first quarter and the second in the third. Twice in the fourth quarter the Ravens penetrated Buffalo's 20, the first of these to the 17 and the second time to the 6-yard line. Both times Baltimore had to settle for Justin Tucker FGs (35 and 24 yards). The Bills led 6-0 after the first quarter on 2 Carpenter FGs. Baltimore then took a 7-6 advantage when Flacco hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 10-yard scoring strike. Buffalo quickly bounced back, scoring 2 TDs before halftime. Rookie QB EJ Manuel threw a 42-yard TD bullet to fellow first-year man WR Robert Woods for 1 tally. RB Fred Jackson then raced 16 yards for another TD after S Jim Leonhard stole a Flacco pass on the Ravens' 28-yard line. The Ravens closed the gap to 20-14 in the third quarter when Flacco hit WR Torrey Smith with a 26-yard TD toss. Smith finished with 5 catches for 166 yards. Flacco, who was sacked 4 times, was 25-of-50 for 347 yards. In the second half, the Ravens threw 28 passes and ran just twice. The Ravens were 3-of-16 on third-down conversions. LB Daryl Smith and CB Corey Graham each had INTs for Baltimore. Buffalo RBs Jackson and C.J. Spiller ran for 87 and 77 yards, respectively.

GAME 5: RAVENS 26, DOLPHINS 23

Baltimore (3-2) • Miami (3-2)

Sunday, October 6, 2013 • 1:02 PM ET • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, FL
Weather: 87°, Sunny, Wind SE 5 mph • Attendance: 68,342 • Time: 3:16

K Justin Tucker kicked his game-winning fourth field goal (44 yards) of the day with 1:42 remaining in the fourth quarter to help the Ravens earn a hard-fought 26-23 victory at Miami. Trailing 13-6 at the half, the Ravens dominated the third quarter, holding the ball for over 11 minutes to take a 16-13 lead. The Ravens opened the second half with a 6-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 2-yard RB Ray Rice TD run. After forcing a Dolphins' punt, Baltimore came back with an 11-play series that ended with a 25-yard Tucker field goal. After a Miami three-and-out, the Ravens produced an even better drive – 11 plays for 94 yards – that ended with a Rice 3-yard TD scamper to give Baltimore a 23-13 lead at the start of the final period. Miami, however, responded immediately with 10 points in 1 minute and 45 seconds to tie the game at 23. (The Dolphins scored when S Reshad Jones returned a QB Joe Flacco INT for a 25-yard TD, which followed a 48-yard K Caleb Sturgis FG.) Sturgis missed a 57-yard FG attempt at the end of the game that would have sent the contest into overtime. Tucker (42 and 50 yards) and Sturgis (37 and 25 yards) exchanged a pair of field goals in the first two quarters before Miami QB Ryan Tannehill hit TE Charles Clay with a 9-yard TD pass with 46 seconds left in the second quarter. Baltimore's defense limited the Dolphins to 22 rushing yards (fourth fewest in Ravens history) and sacked Tannehill 6 times, including 3 by OLB Terrell Suggs in the fourth quarter. OLBs Elvis Dumervil, Courtney Upshaw and Pernell McPhee also produced QB takedowns. Flacco was 19-of-32 for 269 yards, including 6 passes for 121 yards to WR Torrey Smith. Rice rushed 27 times for 74 yards and added 6 catches for 28 more.

GAME 6: PACKERS 19, RAVENS 17

Baltimore (3-3) • Green Bay (3-2)

Sunday, October 13, 2013 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 61°, Cloudy, Wind NE 10 mph • Attendance: 71,319 • Time: 3:07

A Ravens' comeback came up short when the Packers stopped Baltimore, 19-17. After Green Bay took a 6-0 halftime lead that was increased to 9-0 in the third quarter on 3 K Mason Crosby field goals (45, 31 and 50 yards), the Ravens finally got on the board with K Justin Tucker's 23-yard FG. QB Aaron Rodgers, who made key third-down completions several times, found WR Jordy Nelson with a 64-yard scoring strike to give the Packers a 16-3, third-quarter lead. Baltimore battled back when QB Joe Flacco found WR Jacoby Jones in the back of the end zone with an 11-yard TD throw that made it 16-10 early in the fourth quarter. Another Crosby FG (31 yards) gave the Packers a 19-10 advantage with just 4:17 left in the contest. On the Ravens' next possession, faced with a fourth-and-21 on their own 19, Flacco hit WR Tandon Doss for 63 yards and a first down. The Ravens' QB then found TE Dallas Clark, who made a spectacular one-handed catch, in the end zone on the following play to get Baltimore within 2 (19-17) with 2:04 remaining. On a third-and-3 on the Packers' next series, Rodgers hit TE Jermichael Finley with a 52-yard completion to keep the ball. The Packers' ability to sustain drives in the second half was a key to the Green Bay victory. The Ravens had a chance to take a 7-3 lead in the second quarter, but failed on a fourth-and-goal at the Packers' 1 when RB Bernard Pierce was stopped for no gain. With 12 seconds left in the first half, Flacco was stripped of the ball, and DE Datone Jones ran 20 yards to the Ravens' 13, where Crosby hit a 31-yard FG. While Green Bay's RB Eddie Lacy rushed 23 times for 120 yards, the Ravens managed just 47 yards on 22 carries. However, Flacco was impressive, completing 20 of 34 for 342 yards and 2 TD throws and 0 INTS (112.6 rating).

GAME 7: STEELERS 19, RAVENS 16

Baltimore (3-4) • Pittsburgh (2-4)

Sunday, October 20, 2013 • 4:25 PM ET • Heinz Field • Pittsburgh

Weather: 57°, Partly Cloudy, Wind SW 14 mph • Attendance: 62,295 • Time: 2:48

For the ninth time in the last 11 games – and for the sixth-consecutive time at Heinz Field – the Ravens and Steelers played a game decided by 3 points, with host Pittsburgh winning, 19-16. K Shaun Suisham drilled the 42-yard difference-maker as time expired in the fourth quarter. The Ravens trailed throughout the game until QB Joe Flacco directed a 16-play, 73-yard touchdown drive that tied the contest at 16-16 with 1:58 left in the heated battle. The tying score came on a 1-yard Flacco-to-TE Dallas Clark dart. Steelers WR/RS Emmanuel Sanders returned the ensuing kickoff to the Pittsburgh 37 to start the winning drive. Seven plays later, Suisham kicked his fourth field goal of the game. The Steelers took a 7-0 early lead when QB Ben Roethlisberger threw a shovel pass to TE Heath Miller for a 3-yard TD. Baltimore K Justin Tucker made it 7-3 after one quarter with a 46-yard FG. Suisham and Tucker traded FGs in the second quarter, giving the Steelers a 10-6 advantage at the half. The two kickers exchanged FGs another time in the second half to make the score 16-9 before the Ravens' lone TD was scored late in the final stanza. The loss was Baltimore's third in the last four games and gave the Ravens a 3-4 mark heading into their bye. (These losses were by 3, 2 and 3 points.) While the Ravens out-gained the Steelers by 1 yard (287-286), Pittsburgh was able to rush for 141 yards with rookie RB Le'Veon Bell gaining 93 of those on 19 carries. Flacco finished the game with 24 completions in 34 attempts for 215 yards, while Roethlisberger was 17-of-23 for 160. RB Ray Rice led the Ravens with 45 rushing yards and 4 catches for 27 more. It was the fifth game this season when the Ravens' defense allowed just one TD or none.

GAME 8: BROWNS 24, RAVENS 18

Baltimore (3-5) · Cleveland (4-5)

Sunday, November 3, 2013 · 4:25 PM ET · FirstEnergy Stadium · Cleveland
Weather: 46°, Sunny, Wind NNE 9 mph · Attendance: 71,513 · Time: 3:16

After beating the Browns 11 consecutive times, Baltimore dropped a 24-18 decision in Cleveland last Sunday. (The Ravens had not lost to the Browns since the trio of John Harbaugh, QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice joined the team in 2008.) A bold pair of fourth-down conversions were key to the Browns' victory. The first came in the first quarter when Cleveland faced a fourth-and-1 at the Baltimore 1-yard line. Instead of attempting a short field goal, Browns' QB Jason Campbell threw a TD bullet to WR Davone Bess for a 7-0 lead. With the game on the line and nursing a 21-18 advantage at the Ravens' 43 with 3:12 left in the contest, Cleveland faced another fourth-and-1. Campbell once again found a diving Bess for 3 yards to keep the drive alive. That first down was part of a game-clinching, 67-yard, 15-play series that ended with a K Billy Cundiff 22-yard field goal. This marked the third-consecutive game (GB and at Pit.) that the Ravens' defense was unable to give the ball back to the offense with the game hanging in the balance. Campbell, the Browns' third starting QB of the season, was solid, throwing 3 TDs while completing 23 of 35 passes for 262 yards. Flacco was harassed throughout the contest – he was sacked 5 times – but he completed 24 of 41 for 250 yards with 2 TDs and 1 INT. Both of Flacco's TD tosses went to rookie WR Marlon Brown, who also added a 2-point conversion. After Bess' first TD of the game, Justin Tucker nailed a 51-yard FG to make the score 7-3 after one. Bess then caught a 20-yard TD throw to give Cleveland a 14-3, second-quarter lead. The Ravens rallied with nine seconds left in the period when Flacco threw a 19-yard scoring strike to Brown to make the score 14-10 at the half. Campbell's 4-yard TD throw to TE Gary Barnidge increased the Browns' advantage to 21-10 after three quarters. That score was set up when WR/RS Tandon Doss muffed a punt at the Ravens' 11-yard line that was recovered by Browns LB Eric Martin. A 7-yard TD pass from Flacco to Brown, plus a 2-point conversion by the same pair, brought Baltimore to within three at 21-18 with 12 minutes left in the game.

GAME 9: RAVENS 20, BENGALS 17 (OT)

Baltimore (4-5) • Cincinnati (6-4)

Sunday, November 10, 2013 • 1:02 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 60°, Sunny, Wind W 17 mph • Attendance: 70,992 • Time: 3:41

In a thrilling overtime game at gusty M&T Bank Stadium, the Ravens beat the first-place Bengals, 20-17, on a 46-yard Justin Tucker field goal. Cincinnati tied the game at 17 on the final play of the fourth quarter when QB Andy Dalton's "Hail Mary" was tipped and caught by A.J. Green for a 51-yard touchdown. The ball bumped off the hand of S James Ihedigbo, who had 2 INTs (the first steals of his career). One of the main stories in this wild game were a pair of fourth-down stops by the Ravens' defense. On the Bengals' first possession of the game, they were stopped on a fourth-and-1 at the Ravens' 47. On the next play, QB Joe Flacco attempted a long pass to WR Jacoby Jones, who collided with S Reggie Nelson. Nelson was called for interference on the Cincinnati 5-yard line. Three plays later, Flacco found TE Dallas Clark at the back of the end zone for a 1-yard TD and a 7-0 Ravens' lead. Baltimore extended the advantage to 10-0 in the first quarter with a 36-yard Tucker FG. Flacco's 7-yard TD dart to WR Torrey Smith gave the Ravens a 17-0 halftime lead. Cincy produced more penalty yards (114) than total offense (102 yards) in the first half. Dalton, who finished the game with 24 completions on 51 attempts for 274 yards and 3 INTs, was just 8-of-21 for 47 yards (1 INT) in the first two quarters. Bengals K Mike Nugent provided the only points in the third quarter when he hit a 32-yard FG to make the score 17-3 entering the fourth period. RB Giovani Bernard's 18-yard catch and run got the Bengals to within 7 at 17-10 with 8:22 left in regulation. Baltimore's second fourth-down stop came on the first series of OT. The Bengals drove to the Ravens' 33-yard line and faced a fourth-and-2. Rather than attempt a 51-yard-FG against the wind, Dalton threw a short pass to Bernard, who was tackled for an 11-yard loss. Baltimore then produced 2 first downs to set up Tucker's game-winner. The Ravens sacked Dalton 5 times, 3 by OLB Elvis Dumervil. Bengals LB Vincent Rey produced 3 sacks and had an INT. Green caught 8 passes for 151 yards, including 4 for 98 in the fourth quarter and OT.

GAME 10: BEARS 23, RAVENS 20 (OT)

Baltimore (4-6) • Chicago (6-4)

Sunday, November 17, 2013 • 12:02 PM CT • Soldier Field • Chicago
Weather: 68°, Cloudy, Wind S 17 mph • Attendance: 62,367 • Time: 5:16

For the fourth time in six losses this season, the Ravens dropped a contest that was decided on the final series of the game. This time it was in Chicago, where the Bears handed Baltimore a 23-20 defeat in overtime. The Ravens tied the game in regulation at 20-20 when K Justin Tucker converted a 21-yard FG. Bears K Robbie Gould then won the battle with a 38-yard FG at the 8:41 mark of the extra period. The game was played in dramatic weather conditions that caused a nearly two-hour delay after just 10 minutes of the first quarter had been played. Powerful rain storms featuring wind gusts over 60 miles per hour and a tornado warning forced stadium officials to empty the seating bowl. At the time, the Ravens had built a 10-0 early lead by scoring on their first two possessions. On their first drive, which featured a 47-yard RB Ray Rice run, the Ravens grabbed a 7-0 advantage on a 1-yard Rice dash. Tucker then impressively drilled a 52-yard FG through the swirling winds before the game was delayed. At the 8:50 mark of the second quarter, Gould converted a 20-yard FG to make the score 10-3. On the next play from scrimmage, Chicago DE David Bass leaped high to steal a QB Joe Flacco pass and raced 24 yards to the end zone to tie the game at 10. The Ravens bounced right back with a 9-play, 80-yard scoring drive that ended with a 5-yard Flacco-to-WR Torrey Smith TD. Another Gould FG (46 yards) at the end of the second quarter had the Ravens leading 17-13 at the half. After a scoreless third, Chicago took a 20-17 lead with 10:33 left in regulation when RB Matt Forte scored a 14-yard TD on a pass from QB Josh McCown. Tucker's tying FG came with three seconds left in the fourth quarter. With the winds howling, passing was difficult with Flacco completing 17 of 31 for 162 yards and McCown also attempting 31, completing 19 for 216 yards. McCown was impressive in the OT, finding WR Alshon Jeffery and TE Martellus Bennett for 14 and 43 yards, respectively. Jeffery caught 7 passes for 83 yards. Rice rushed for a game-high 131 yards on 25 carries, his best outing thus far.

GAME 11: RAVENS 19, JETS 3

Baltimore (5-6) · New York (5-6)

Sunday, November 24, 2013 · 1:02 PM ET · M&T Bank Stadium · Baltimore

Weather: 33°, Partly Cloudy, Windy, Wind NW 26 mph · Attendance: 71,148 · Time: 2:54

On a cold and windy day with gusts over 30 miles per hour, the Ravens found a way to beat the Jets, 19-3, at M&T Bank Stadium. K Justin Tucker converted all 4 of his field goal attempts, including blasting a 53-yarder through the swirling winds in the third quarter. The Ravens' defense was outstanding, getting 3 take-aways, including a pair of interceptions by CB Corey Graham off Jets rookie QB Geno Smith. OLB Terrell Suggs added a fumble recovery on a botched snap. The Jets were limited to just one third-down conversion in 12 attempts while being held to 118 passing yards (220 total net yards). Twenty-nine of New York's passing yards came on the game's last series in the final minute of play. It marked the seventh time this season when the Ravens' defense allowed one or no touchdowns. New York's lone scoring drive came on its second possession of the game when K Nick Folk completed a nine-play, 55-yard series with a 27-yard FG. Tucker then hit 3-consecutive FGs before the end of the second quarter to give Baltimore a 9-3 halftime lead. Tucker's 53-yarder made it 12-3 in the third period, which ended with QB Joe Flacco's throw that cut through the wind and landed into WR Jacoby Jones' hands for a 66-yard touchdown. Flacco completed 17 of 26 passes for 273 yards with 1 TD and 1 INT for a 97.1 QB rating. Jones caught 4 passes for 103 yards, adding 108 more yards on five punt returns and 38 more on two KORs. TE Ed Dickson and TE Dallas Clark each caught 3 balls for 55 and 24 yards, respectively. The Jets' Smith was limited to nine completions on 22 attempts for only 127 yards. The Ravens improved to 8-1 all time against the New York Jets, producing their eighth-consecutive win (a streak that dates back to 1998). Baltimore is now 5-0 vs. the Jets in games played in Baltimore.

GAME 12: RAVENS 22, STEELERS 20

Baltimore (6-6) • Pittsburgh (5-7)

Thursday, November 28, 2013 • 8:30 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore
Weather: 37°, Clear, Wind WSW 2 mph • Attendance: 71,005 • Time: 3:07

In what has become typical of contests between the Ravens and Steelers, this one came down to the final plays of the game. Baltimore won, 22-20, on Thanksgiving night at M&T Bank Stadium when its defense stopped Pittsburgh's attempt to tie the game on a 2-point conversion with 1:06 left in regulation. The Steelers earned the chance to tie the game when QB Ben Roethlisberger hit WR Jerricho Cotchery with a 1-yard TD throw. Big Ben then threw to WR Emmanuel Sanders for the tying conversion, but CB Chykie Brown broke up the play. The Ravens moved the ball well throughout the game, but scored just 1 TD while K Justin Tucker hit a career-high 5 FGs, including 3 over 40 yards. (Baltimore punted just once in the contest.) The Ravens' defense shut out the Steelers in the first half, taking a 10-0 lead into the intermission. On Baltimore's first possession of the game, QB Joe Flacco led an eight-play, 71-yard TD drive that ended when Flacco hit WR Torrey Smith with a 7-yard scoring strike. The key play of the drive came on a 54-yard, Flacco-to-Smith connection. Tucker then hit a 43-yard FG in the second quarter and made the score 13-0 in the third quarter with a 34-yard FG before the Steelers got on the scoreboard with a Roethlisberger 8-yard TD toss to Sanders. The Ravens responded with back-to-back FG drives with Tucker hitting from 38 and 45 yards to give the Ravens a 19-7 lead early in the fourth quarter. The Steelers came right back with a 10-play series that ended with RB LeVeon Bell's 1-yard TD plunge to make the score 19-14. Tucker responded once again, this time from 48 yards, to make the margin 8 at 22-14. With the Steelers' final TD making it a 2-point Ravens' win, it marked the 10th time in the last 12 games played between these rivals that the contest was decided by 3 points or less. (That includes nine of the last 10 and five straight.) There were no turnovers in the game.

GAME 13: RAVENS 29, VIKINGS 26

Baltimore (7-6) • Minnesota (3-9-1)

Sunday, December 8, 2013 • 1:03 PM ET • M&T Bank Stadium • Baltimore

Weather: 33°, Snow, Wind NE 7 mph • Attendance: 70,921 • Time: 3:24

In a remarkable game that set NFL records for the most points scored (36) in the last 2:05 of a game and most lead changes (6) in a fourth quarter, the Ravens found a way to beat the Vikings, 29-26. In 121 seconds late in the contest, 36 points were scored, including the winning touchdown by Baltimore with 4 seconds left in the game. That score came when Joe Flacco, who led the game-winning, 5-play, 80-yard drive, hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 9-yard TD strike in the back of the end zone. This wild battle started with a first-half, near-blizzard snowfall that made it difficult for QBs to find receivers beyond the line of scrimmage. By the end of the game, it was raining ice pellets. Throughout the contest, plows and workers with shovels attempted to clear snow from the field. Baltimore took a 7-0, first-quarter lead when Flacco hit TE Ed Dickson with a 1-yard TD dart. A pair of Vikings K Blair Walsh field goals in the second (39 yards) and third (40 yards) quarters made the score 7-6 entering the final period. A Matt Cassel 8-yard scoring strike to WR Jerome Simpson gave the Vikings a 12-7 advantage early in the fourth. When Flacco threw a 1-yard TD dart to TE Dennis Pitta, who was playing for the first time in 2013, with 2:05 left in the game, the Ravens owned a 15-12 advantage. (Flacco found WR Torrey Smith for the 2-point conversion.) That was just the start of one of the wildest 121 seconds in NFL history. Minnesota came right back with a 2-play, 68-yard series that ended with RB Toby Gerhart's 41-yard TD run to give the Vikes a 19-15 lead with 1:27 showing on the clock. Not to be outdone, WR/RS Jacoby Jones returned the ensuing kickoff 77 yards for a TD and a 22-19 Ravens' lead. The Vikings bounced right back and scored on a 79-yard Cassel-to-WR Cordarrelle Patterson screen pass that stunned the Ravens and the home crowd. Trailing 26-22 with 45 seconds remaining, Flacco led the game-winning TD drive that ended with 4 seconds left in this wild confrontation. Flacco completed 28 of 50 passes for 245 yards with 3 TDs and 3 INTs in the difficult conditions. Brown caught 7 for 92 (both career highs), while RB Ray Rice rushed for 67 yards on 17 carries and added 5 catches for 42 more. Patterson was impressive with 5 receptions for 141 yards. Gerhart ran for 89 yards on 15 rushes, after starting RB Adrian Peterson left the game with a foot injury.

GAME 14: RAVENS 18, LIONS 16

Baltimore (8-6) • Detroit (7-7)

Monday, December 16, 2013 • 8:40 PM ET • Ford Field • Detroit
Weather: Indoors • Attendance: 64,742 • Time: 2:59

K Justin Tucker's team-record 61-yard field goal with 38 seconds left in the game gave the Ravens a hard-fought 18-16 victory over the host Lions at Ford Field on ESPN'sMonday Night Football. Tucker's game-winner was his sixth FG of the game, accounting for all of Baltimore's points. (The 6 FGs are also a team record.) The game didn't start well for the Ravens, as the Lions opened with an 8-play, 78-yard drive that ended with a RB Reggie Bush 14-yard touchdown run for a 7-0 Detroit lead. It then became Tucker time, starting with 3 second-quarter FGs (29, 24, 32 yards) for a 9-7 Ravens' halftime lead. Tucker and Detroit K David Akers then exchanged FGs – Tucker from 49 yards and Akers from 40 – in the third quarter to give the Ravens a 12-10 advantage. The Baltimore kicker blasted a 53-yarder to make the score 15-10 midway through the final period. But, the Lions roared back to take a 16-15 lead with 2:21 left in the game. The score came on a QB Matthew Stafford 14-yard TD strike to TE Joseph Fauria. However, the attempt for the 2-point conversion failed. A key play in the Ravens' field-goal-winning drive was a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Jacoby Jones 27-yard completion on a third-and 15. That put the ball on Detroit's 45-yard line. The line of scrimmage for the winning FG was the 43. The Ravens intercepted Stafford three times (DE DeAngelo Tyson, ILB Daryl Smith and S Matt Elam), while not turning the ball over. Flacco completed 20 of 38 for 222 yards, including 6 to Jones for 80 yards and 4 each to WR Torrey Smith (69 yards) and WR Marlon Brown (31). WR Calvin Johnson caught 6 for 98 for the Lions; Bush added 86 rushing yards on 17 carries. The victory was the Ravens' fourth in a row and fifth in the last six games.

GAME 15: PATRIOTS 41, RAVENS 7

Baltimore (8-7) · New England (11-4)

Sunday, December 22, 2013 · 4:25 PM ET · M&T Bank Stadium · Baltimore
Weather: 65°, Cloudy, Wind SSW 8 mph · Attendance: 71,433 · Time: 3:34

The Ravens lost the ability to control their playoff destiny when they dropped a 41-7 decision to the Patriots at M&T Bank Stadium last Sunday. The game started badly for Baltimore and finished even worse when New England scored 21 points in the final 2:05 of the contest. A pass interference (CB Jimmy Smith) call in the end zone on the Pats' second possession of the game gave New England a first down on the Ravens' 1-yard line. RB LeGarrette Blount scored on a burst up the middle on the next play for a 7-0 NE lead. A QB Joe Flacco interception on the Baltimore 32 by CB Logan Ryan on the next series set up the Patriots' second score. That came when QB Tom Brady hit RB Shane Vereen with a 4-yard touchdown pass that helped the Pats to a 14-0 first-quarter lead. A K Stephen Gostkowski 45-yard field goal on the first play of the second quarter gave the Patriots a 17-0 advantage that they held through the remainder of the first half. A Gostkowski 42-yard FG made the score 20-0 entering the fourth quarter. The Ravens finally got on the board with 9:21 left in the game when Flacco plunged one yard for a TD to make the score 20-7. After holding the Patriots to a three-and-out, the Ravens had a fourth-and-10 from their 48 with 6:46 remaining. But, a pass from Flacco to TE Dennis Pitta landed incomplete. Nine Patriots' runs later, plus a personal foul on CB Lardarius Webb, Blount scored his second TD of the day – a 7-yard run. On the Ravens' next play, a bad snap to backup QB Tyrod Taylor was scooped up by NE DE Chandler Jones in the end zone for another TD to give the Pats a 34-7 lead. The Patriots weren't finished as CB Tavon Wilson intercepted Taylor and raced 74 yards for a TD, making the final margin, 41-7. Brady completed 14 of 26 for 172 yards, while Flacco was 22-of-38 for 260 yards with 2 INTs. Three Ravens caught four passes: WR Marlon Brown (51 yards), TE Ed Dickson (44) and Pitta (34). Blount led NE with 76 rush yards, and WR Julian Edelman caught seven from Brady. K Justin Tucker's streak of 33-straight field goals was snapped when he missed a 37-yarder wide left early in the fourth quarter.

GAME 16: BENGALS 34, RAVENS 17

Baltimore (8-8) · Cincinnati (11-5)

Sunday, December 29, 2013 • 1:02 PM ET • Paul Brown Stadium • Cincinnati
Weather: 43°, Cloudy, Wind S 3 mph • Attendance: 62,406 • Time: 3:06

The Ravens missed the postseason, snapping their NFL-best streak of five-consecutive playoff appearances after a 34-17 defeat at Cincinnati in the season finale. It was the first time that Baltimore failed to make the postseason under head coach John Harbaugh (2008-13). The Ravens forced Cincinnati into four turnovers, but were only able to turn them into nine points. Baltimore tied the game at 17 with 5:13 to go in the third quarter, but the AFC North champion Bengals put the game away in the fourth with 17 unanswered points. On the Bengals' first play from scrimmage, CB Corey Graham intercepted a QB Andy Dalton pass intended for WR Marvin Jones, returning it 28 yards. The INT, which led to a K Justin Tucker 38-yard field goal, was the first of four for Dalton in the game. After another Dalton INT, this one by S James Ihedigbo, Tucker hit his second field goal – a 22-yarder – making the score 6-0. Just before the end of the first quarter, Dalton hit WR A.J. Green on a 53-yard touchdown pass, giving the Bengals a 7-6 lead. A K Mike Nugent 39-yard field goal and a 16-yard Dalton-to-Jones touchdown in the second quarter gave Cincy a 17-6 lead at halftime. Early in the third, CB Lardarius Webb stole another Dalton pass, but the Ravens' drive stalled, and Baltimore had to settle for another Tucker FG (34 yards). On their next possession, QB Joe Flacco connected with rookie WR Marlon Brown on an 8-yard toss in the back of the end zone, and then RB Ray Rice ran in for the two-point conversion, tying the game at 17. Cincinnati scored 17 fourth-quarter points, following two Flacco INTs in the quarter, including one with 4:07 remaining in the game to CB Dre Kirkpatrick, who raced 21 yards to the end zone, giving the Bengals the 34-17 victory.

SUPER BOWL XLVII CHAMPIONS

An emotionally-charged and thrilling six weeks kicked off the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 campaign. Despite playing their first four games in an 18-day span, the Ravens produced a 5-1 record, marking the best start ever under John Harbaugh. Highlighted by a season-opening victory on Monday Night Football against division foe Cincinnati and an exhilarating, last-second triumph over AFC rival New England, the Ravens immediately demonstrated the type of heart and resolve that would allow them to conquer anything in an NFL season.

Climbing to 9-2, Baltimore tied (2006) the best record to begin a season in franchise history. Following their bye week, the battle-tested Ravens won four-straight games – three of which occurred in hostile road clashes. Though a rash of injuries to key contributors left them shorthanded, the Ravens remained relentless and emerged victorious in hard-fought contests at Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Baltimore's grit was never more on display than in Week 12 at San Diego, when Ray Rice converted a fourth-and-29 catch – later voted "NFL Play of the Year" – to send the game into overtime and help capture the comeback win.

While able to secure the AFC North Title with a decisive victory over the New York Giants in Week 16, the Ravens closed out the regular season by dropping four of their last five games. This stretch included three-consecutive defeats – two by three points – to begin December, all against emerging playoff contenders. Many outsiders perceived the run of losses to be Baltimore's late-season demise, but the Ravens felt otherwise. As each wintry week passed, the team's resilient chemistry never faded, nor did its genuine belief that the best was yet to come.

On NFL Wild Card weekend, before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted Ray Lewis in his final home game, Baltimore pummeled the Colts, 24-9, kick-starting an incredible playoff run. Holding Indy without a touchdown, the Ravens' defense was led by Lewis, who returned to action for the first time since tearing his triceps in Week 6.

"I think we're all appreciative, grateful for the opportunity to be here and to witness this historic moment in sports," head coach John Harbaugh said after the win. "And, it wasn't just about one guy [Lewis]. Nobody understands it more than the one guy we're talking about. It was about a team. It was about a city, a fan base, a great sport, about a great career."

Fresh off the emotional victory over Indianapolis, Baltimore traveled to No. 1 seed Denver for a Divisional Playoff. Riding an 11-game winning streak, the heavily-favored Broncos had beaten the Ravens, 34-17, in Charm City just four weeks prior.

But despite its underdog status, Baltimore approached the game with the brazen attitude of a champion. It was a boldness reinforced by strength gained while facing adversity throughout the season. It was also a resiliency the team had developed and a brotherhood that leaders such as Harbaugh, Lewis, Terrell Suggs, Joe Flacco and Rice had cultivated from Day One.

LB Ray Lewis emerges from the M&T Bank Stadium tunnel for the final home intro of his career prior to the Wild Card win over Indianapolis (1/6/13).

WR Jacoby Jones secures QB Joe Flacco's deep pass, connecting for a 70-yard TD to send the Divisional Playoff at Denver (1/12/13) into overtime.

SUPER BOWL XLVII CHAMPIONS

RB Ray Rice darts into the end zone, scoring the Ravens' first touchdown of their 28-13 win in the AFC Championship at New England (1/20/13).

In what became the fourth-longest game (4:11) in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double OT, producing an electrifying victory-turned instant classic.

Facing third-and-three with 31 seconds remaining in regulation, Flacco found Jacoby Jones, who had blazed past defenders down the right sideline, to manufacture an improbable 70-yard touchdown bomb. The crowd-silencing connection cut the deficit to 1, with Justin Tucker then quickly tying the game at 35 to force overtime. Near the end of the extra period, Corey Graham intercepted Peyton Manning, ultimately setting up a 47-yard game-winning field goal by Tucker in double OT and sealing the Ravens' 38-35 win.

"Thanks for bearing witness to one of the greatest football games you're ever going to see," stated Harbaugh after the victory, which sent Baltimore to the AFC Championship for a second-straight season and third time in five years. "That football game did the game of football proud."

Next up was an AFC Title bout with the No. 2 seed Patriots, who just 12 months prior had knocked out Baltimore in the exact same setting. Though the Ravens' hearts were battered following the 2011 playoff loss, the defeat served as an influential lesson and a unifying force. It was an outcome that simultaneously marked the bitter end of a poignant journey, but also some inspiration for a determined 2012 Ravens team.

All season long, as they grinded away for a chance to finish what they had started the year before, the Ravens got what they wanted. And this time, they didn't disappoint.

The Patriots, who owned the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense, were shut out in the second half by a dominant Ravens' defense that found ways to constantly frazzle Tom Brady and pummel a normally-potent New England attack. In defeating favored New England, 28-13, Baltimore clinched an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII, seizing the franchise's second-ever conference championship. "Congratulations to our players, to our coaches," Harbaugh said after the win. "[Tonight] was about a football team playing really good football in one of the biggest moments that football has to offer, and that's what I am so proud of as a football coach."

On Feb. 3, 2013, the AFC Champion Baltimore Ravens battled the NFC Champion San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XLVII. It was the first time in NFL history that two brothers, John and Jim Harbaugh, faced each other as head coaches in a championship game.

"We've seen it all this year," Harbaugh stated before the game. "We've had injuries; we've had adversity; we've had exhilaration; we've had great moments. That's what a season is made of. The team that navigates all these things the best, in the end, will be the one true champion."

And in the end, no team navigated its voyage better than the 2012 Ravens. In what would become a timeless NFL masterpiece – one bursting with drama at every turn – Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, becoming the NFL's one true champion.

After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Ravens produced a valiant goal-line stand to clinch their second Super Bowl title. Overcoming a feverish 49ers' second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage in the third quarter, Baltimore started fast and finished strong, all while entertaining millions of spectators around the globe.

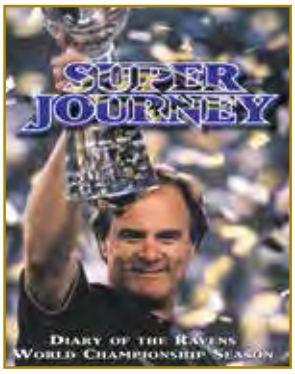

Spurred by Flacco, who was named the game's MVP after completing 22 of 33 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns, the Ravens capped a remarkable journey – one that will forever live in football lore.

"We've got a lot of resolve. That's why we won the game," stated Harbaugh, who with the victory set an NFL record for most playoff wins (nine) in a head coach's first five seasons. "It wasn't perfect, it wasn't pretty, but it was us."

John Harbaugh hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Ravens' thrilling 34-31 victory over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2/3/13).

SUPER BOWL XXXV CHAMPIONS

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ending the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' Super Journey began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a Super Bowl record with four INTs, and they were only the third team in NFL history to not commit a turnover in a Super Bowl. Most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Francine Lubera and Kevin Byrne of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book "Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season" (above left), published in July of 2001.

BALTIMORE FOOTBALL HISTORY

COLTS HISTORY

12/28/46 - Baltimore awarded bankrupt Miami Seahawks franchise of the All-America Football Conference. Re-named Colts via a fan contest.

12/8/49 - AAFC/NFL reached merger agreement. Colts entered the NFL for 1950 season.

12/19/50 - Colts finished 1-11 in their first NFL season with a 15-14 loss to the New York Yanks at Yankee Stadium. The Yanks later became the Baltimore Colts.

1/18/51 - Franchise withdrew from league and received $50,000 for players by the NFL.

1951-52 - No Colts team existed.

12/3/52 - Commissioner Bert Bell challenged Baltimore to sell 15,000 tickets in six weeks to re-enter NFL. The ticket drive reached its quota in four weeks, three days.

10/1/53 - Carroll Rosenbloom headed an ownership group and Baltimore was awarded the Dallas Texans' franchise.

12/28/58 - Colts defeated NYG, 23-17, at Yankee Stadium for World Championship. That game sparked the emergence of the NFL as a televised sports giant.

12/27/59 - The Colts won their second-straight World Championship over Giants, in Baltimore, 31-16.

1/8/63 - Don Shula replaced Weeb Ewbank as head coach.

12/27/64 - Browns beat Colts, 27-0, in Cleveland for NFL title. Art Modell wins first title.

6/8/66 - NFL and AFL announced plans to merge in 1970. Colts, Browns and Steelers later joined AFC in NFL's realignment.

1/12/69 - Jets defeated Colts, 16-7, in Super Bowl III at Orange Bowl after Joe Namath guaranteed a New York victory.

3/3/70 - Don Shula resigned to become head coach of Miami Dolphins.

1/17/71 - Jim O'Brien kicked 32-yard FG with five seconds left as Colts won Super Bowl V vs. Dallas, 16-13, in first AFC-NFC Super Bowl.

7/26/72 - Robert Irsay traded the L.A. Rams to Carroll Rosenbloom for the Colts.

1/15/75 - Ted Marchibroda named head coach.

4/26/83 - Colts selected John Elway with No. 1 pick in NFL draft, but traded him to Denver for T Chris Hinton, QB Mark Herrmann and Denver's top pick in 1984.

12/18/83 - In the last NFL regular season game in Memorial Stadium (until 1996), the Colts beat the Oilers, 20-10. TE Pat Beach scored the last TD on 12-yard pass from QB Mike Pagel.

3/28/84 - Colts franchise relocated to Indianapolis.

RAVENS HISTORY

1995

11/6 - Cleveland Browns announced intention to move to Baltimore for 1996 season.

1996

2/9 - NFL approved franchise move.

2/15 - Ted Marchibroda was named the Ravens' first head coach 21 years and one month to the day he was hired by the Baltimore Colts in 1975.

3/29 - Baltimore's NFL franchise was officially named "Ravens" after a Baltimore Sun telephone poll received a record number of calls supporting the name.

4/1 - The Ravens opened their first Owings Mills training facility with start of offseason program.

6/5 - The new Ravens' logo, colors and uniforms were unveiled in a fashion show at Harborplace in downtown Baltimore.

6/14 - Ravens sold over 50,000 season tickets in 14 days.

9/1 - The Ravens' first-ever regular season game was played before 64,124 fans at Memorial Stadium, the largest crowd in Baltimore professional sports history. QB Vinny Testaverde scored the first TD on a 9-yard run to propel the Ravens to a 19-14 win over the Raiders.

12/22 - The Ravens concluded their inaugural season with a 4-12 record following a 24-21 loss to the Houston Oilers. The Ravens were 4-4 at home, and 0-8 on the road. The team sold out all 10 home games, including the two preseason games. Baltimore held a second-half lead in 10 of its 11 final games, but won only two. QB Vinny Testaverde was voted to the Pro Bowl after throwing for 4,177 yards and 33 TDs. WRs Michael Jackson and Derrick Alexander both eclipsed the 1,000-yard receiving mark and combined for 23 TDs.

3/18 - The Ravens and Western Maryland College (now McDaniel College) entered into a five-year agreement to hold training camp at the Westminster, MD, campus.

12/14 - Baltimore defeated Tennessee, 21-19, in the final game at Memorial Stadium. Of the 16 regular season games played by the Ravens at Memorial Stadium, 13 were televised and all were sold out.

12/21 - Baltimore dropped a 16-14 game at Cincinnati to finish the season 6-9-1. T Jonathan Ogden was named consensus All-Pro and voted as a starter to the Pro Bowl. LB Ray Lewis led the NFL in tackles with 210 and was voted first alternate to the Pro Bowl, then selected as a "needs" player by coach Bill Cowher.

1998

2/14 - The Ravens traded for QB Jim Harbaugh (from Ind.), the first of several key offseason acquisitions, including

RB Errict Rhett (2/17), FB Roosevelt Potts (2/24) and CB Rod Woodson (2/25).

9/5 - The new NFL Stadium at Camden Yards (later named PSINet Stadium) was the backdrop for an opening gala that included fireworks, a Stevie Wonder - Baltimore Symphony Orchestra concert and a spectacular laser show.

9/6 - The Ravens opened their new NFL Stadium in downtown Baltimore before a host of dignitaries, a packed house and the Steelers. The Ravens lost, 20-13.

1/19 - Brian Billick became the second head coach in Ravens history when he accepted a six-year contract from owner Art Modell. Billick, the highly successful offensive coordinator for Minnesota, directed a Vikings' attack that set a variety of NFL and team records, including the league's single-season scoring mark of 556 points in 1998.

1/26 - PSINet Inc., the first and largest independent commercial Internet provider, announced a 20-year partnership to develop a global network for the Ravens. Under the agreement, the new facility was named PSINet Stadium.

1/30 - Ravens executive vice president of player personnel Ozzie Newsome was selected for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, along with Lawrence Taylor, Eric Dickerson, Tom Mack and Billy Shaw. Newsome was the NFL's all-time leading tight end in pass receptions until Shannon Sharpe eclipsed the record in 2001.

9/12 - Brian Billick's debut as head coach was spoiled in the regular season opener, as St. Louis defeated the Ravens, 27-10, in the TransWorld Dome. QB Kurt Warner had his first NFL start.

12/26 - The Ravens recorded their first-ever shutout, a 22-0 win over Cincinnati. The victory completed a perfect December and gave the Ravens a franchise-high eight victories. Five players (LB Peter Boulware, LB Ray Lewis, DE Michael McCrary, T Jonathan Ogden and S Rod Woodson) were named to the Pro Bowl. The Ravens' defense finished second in the NFL, and in the team's 6-3 finish, Baltimore outscored opponents, 324-277.

2/22 - The Ravens signed seven-time Pro Bowl TE Shannon Sharpe, an unrestricted free agent who had starred for 10 years with the Denver Broncos. Sharpe caught 552 passes for 6,983 yards and 44 TDs for Denver.

3/27 - NFL owners approved the sale of 49% of the Ravens to Anne Arundel County (MD) business executive Steve Bisciotti. In it, Bisciotti had an option to purchase the remaining 51% for $325 million in 2004.

SEPT. - The Ravens opened the 2000 season with a 16-0 win at Pittsburgh in their last visit to Three Rivers Stadium on 9/3. They won three of their first four games, including a dramatic 39-36 win over Jacksonville (their first win over the Jaguars) and a 37-0 shutout over Cincinnati.

OCT. - Baltimore finished October at 2-3, and did not score a TD during the month. Trent Dilfer replaced Tony Banks at QB on 10/29 vs Pittsburgh.

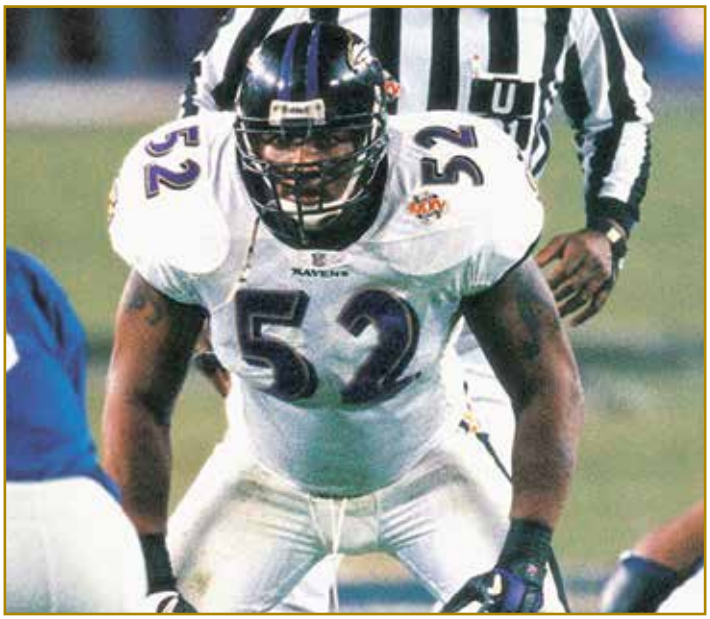

NOV./DEC. - Baltimore won its final seven regular season games by a combined score of 193-63. On 11/26, Earnest Byner was the first inductee to the Ravens' Ring of Honor (Ravens won 44-7 vs. Cleveland). On 12/10, Art Modell was honored in pre-game ceremonies for his 40 years of ownership. That day, the Ravens earned their first playoff berth, defeating San Diego, 24-3.

12/24 - The Ravens' defense set a 16-game record by allowing only 165 total points. Baltimore also set an NFL record by allowing only 970 yards rushing. The Ravens finished 12-4 after beating the New York Jets, 34-20, on Christmas Eve. Rookie RB Jamal Lewis rushed for a team-record 1,364 yards in 2000.

12/31 - The Ravens defeated the Denver Broncos, 21-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff Game at PSINet Stadium, the first home playoff game in Baltimore since 1977. Jamal Lewis rushed for 110 yards on 30 carries and scored twice, while the defense allowed Denver's rushing attack only 42 yards on the ground.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis won NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from The Associated Press.

LB Ray Lewis was named the 2000 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl XXXV MVP after the Ravens' win (34-7) over the New York Giants.

1/7 - The Ravens scored 14 fourth quarter points to defeat Tennessee, 24-10, at Adelphia Coliseum to advance to the AFC Championship. The go-ahead TD was a 90-yard return by Anthony Mitchell off a blocked FG; then Ray Lewis scored on a 50-yard INT return to seal the win.

1/14 - The Ravens traveled to Oakland and defeated the Raiders, 16-3, in the AFC Championship game to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. TE Shannon Sharpe scored on an NFL postseason-record 96-yard pass from Trent Dilfer. The Ravens limited the Raiders to 24 rushing yards.

1/28 - The Ravens defeated the New York Giants, 34-7, to capture their first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXV, played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, FL. Ray Lewis was named Super Bowl MVP and only Ron Dixon's 97-yard KOR for a TD averted a shutout against the Giants. A Super Bowl record was set when three TDs were scored in a span of 36 seconds, including Duane Starks' 49-yard INT return and Jermaine Lewis' 84-yard KOR.

1/30 - Over 200,000 people turned out on a cold, rainy day to attend the Baltimore Ravens' Victory Parade.

JULY/AUG. - The Ravens opened training camp as defending World Champions with the entire nation watching, as HBO's Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Baltimore Ravens debuted with the Ravens as the featured team.

9/9 - The Ravens won their 12th-consecutive game and second-consecutive opener with a 17-6 win over the Chicago Bears at PSINet Stadium. On 9/11, the World Trade Center collapsed and the Pentagon was hit, following terrorist attacks.

10/21 - Matt Stover broke the NFL record for most consecutive games with a FG, snapping Fred Cox's old mark of 31, when he booted two three-pointers in a 24-14 loss to the Browns at Cleveland Browns Stadium. Stover's streak ended at 38 games with a missed FGA on 12/16 vs. Pittsburgh.

11/18 - TE Shannon Sharpe became the NFL's all-time leading pass-catching TE (surpassing Ravens executive VP and GM Ozzie Newsome's mark of 662), when Sharpe caught a 29-yard pass on the fifth play of the game vs. the Cleveland Browns. He finished the 2001 season with 692 career receptions for 8,604 yards, both then-all-time NFL highs for a TE.

12/2 - S Rod Woodson set an NFL record by returning a Peyton Manning INT 47 yards for a TD, his 10th career TD on an INT return, in a 39-27 win over Indy. Woodson's TD snapped a tie with Ken Houston (nine career INT-TDs).

12/23 - Corey Dillon of the Bengals rushed for 127 yards, snapping the Ravens' streak of 50 games (including playoffs) of not allowing a 100-yard rusher, the longest streak since the 1989-1992 Eagles had a 53-game streak. The Ravens scored their third consecutive home shutout over the Bengals (16-0), the first time in 24 years (1975-77, Oakland over San Diego) that a team had three straight home shutouts over the same opponent.

1/2 - Six Ravens from the 2001 season were selected to play in the Pro Bowl, tying the team mark set in 1998. Selected were LB Ray Lewis, T Jonathan Ogden, DT Sam Adams, RS Jermaine Lewis, TE Shannon Sharpe and S Rod Woodson.

1/7 - The Ravens played a postponed regular season game against Minnesota at Ravens Stadium and defeated the Vikings, 19-3, allowing Baltimore to advance to the playoffs. The game had been scheduled for Monday, 9/17, but was re-scheduled because of the 9/11 terrorist attacks on the United States. The victory gave the Ravens a 10-6 record and clinched a Wild Card spot as the AFC's fifth seed. LB Peter Boulware set a team record with four sacks vs. the Vikings to finish as the AFC's leading sacker with 15.

1/13 - The Baltimore Ravens traveled to Miami and defeated the Dolphins, 20-3, in an AFC Wild Card Playoff game. Baltimore set a playoff team record with 226 rushing yards on 50 carries. The Ravens became the first team in NFL history to win its first five playoff games. Only Joe Gibbs, who won his first six playoff games, surpassed Brian Billick's mark of five (tied with Tom Flores).

1/20 - After five-consecutive playoff wins (including the Super Bowl run in 2000), the Ravens were stopped at Heinz Field with a 27-10 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the AFC Divisional Playoff game. The Steelers jumped to a 20-0 first-half lead and stifled Baltimore's offense. Baltimore's only TD came when RS Jermaine Lewis set an NFL playoff record with an 88-yard punt return for a score in the third quarter.

5/15 - The Ravens and McDaniel College (formerly Western Maryland College) announced a three-year contract extension to keep Ravens training camp in Westminster, MD through the 2004 season.

9/8 - With the youngest team in NFL history (19 first-year players), the Ravens dropped their first two games at Carolina (10-7) and at home (9/15) vs. the Buccaneers (25-0). A moving tribute was paid to Hall of Famer Johnny Unitas prior to the game, and QB Chris Redman, a close friend and admirer, wore black hightops in honor of his hero. Johnny Unitas passed away on 9/11.

9/30 - Chris McAlister ran into the NFL record books against Denver. With one second remaining in the first half, Broncos K Jason Elam's FGA was short. McAlister caught it in the end zone and returned it 107 yards for a TD – the then-longest play of any kind in league history. The previous record was 106 yards (3 KORs), last accomplished by Roy Green in 1979. Baltimore won 34-23. S Ed Reed blocked the first punt in Ravens history, leading to the Ravens' second TD of the second quarter against the Broncos.

10/20 - Johnny Unitas and seven of his Hall of Fame Colts teammates were enshrined into the Ring of Honor at Ravens Stadium in front of a sellout crowd of 69,173 fans. Enshrined with Unitas were: WR Raymond Berry, RB Lenny Moore, DT

Art Donovan, DE Gino Marchetti, TE John Mackey, OT Jim Parker and LB Ted Hendricks. A bronze statue of Unitas' likeness was sculpted by local Baltimore artist Frederick Kail and dedicated at Gate A, newly-named Unitas Plaza. In a joint effort, the Baltimore Ravens, Art Modell, the Steve Bisciotti family, and others commissioned the project.

12/29 - The Ravens lost their final game of the season at Pittsburgh (34-31) in a heart-breaking nailbiter. Hopes of a playoff berth ended, as the Ravens finished with a 7-9 record. Three Ravens players traveled to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl, including T Jonathan Ogden, LB Peter Boulware and first-timer TE Todd Heap.

JAN./FEB. - Ozzie Newsome was named the NFL's first minority general manager. The executive VP and GM promoted three members of his staff: Phil Savage, player personnel director; George Kokinis, pro personnel director; and Eric DeCosta, college scouting director. Former Bears Hall of Fame LB Mike Singletary launched his coaching career when he was hired by the Ravens as the team's LBs coach. Art Modell entered his 43rd (and final) year in the NFL as a franchise owner.

5/6 - Ravens Stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium in a press conference held at the stadium. The 15-year, $75 million agreement included naming rights, as well as, jointly administered community-based programs. The then-147-year-old M&T Bank was headquartered in Buffalo, NY.

9/2 - The average age of the Ravens was only 25.8 years at roster cutdown. Baltimore had 11 first- and second-year players on the roster; seven rookies and 11 second-year veterans. The average years of experience was just four. The Ravens were the third-youngest team in the NFL (Cleveland, 24.8 and Chicago, 25.3).

9/14 - Baltimore rolled over the Cleveland Browns, 33-13, at M&T Bank Stadium. In that home opener, RB Jamal Lewis broke a then-NFL record with 295 yards rushing on 30 carries and 2 TDs. In the game at Cleveland (12/21), Lewis rushed for 205 yards, setting the NFL mark for rushing yards in a season versus the same team – 500 yards.

12/18 - A team-record eight players were voted to the Pro Bowl (most in NFL, tied with the Chiefs): LB Ray Lewis, S Ed Reed, LB Peter Boulware, T Jonathan Ogden, TE Todd Heap, RB Jamal Lewis, CB Chris McAlister and LB/Special Teamer Adalius Thomas.

12/26 - Art Modell was inducted into the Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in the final game of the season, a 13-10 OT win over Pittsburgh. Baltimore finished 10-6, winning its first-ever AFC North Division title.

12/31 - Jamal Lewis and Ray Lewis were named The Associated Press NFL Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, respectively, while LB Terrell Suggs was named AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year.

2004

1/3 - The Ravens lost, 20-17, to the Titans in the AFC Wild Card game at M&T Bank Stadium on Gary Anderson's game-winning kick (46-yard FG), with 29 seconds remaining.

2/4 - Jim Fassel, former head coach of the NY Giants, was named senior consultant/offense for the Baltimore Ravens. It marked the first time two Super Bowl head coaches (Brian Billick the other) were on the same team.

4/9 - The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club.

The NFL approved Ravens new owner Steve Bisciotti's purchase of the club in April of 2004.

4/13 - The Ravens and McDaniel College extended their partnership six years to keep training camp in Westminster through 2010. The deal includes installation of Sportexe Momentum Turf on the college's main athletic field with both parties sharing costs.

10/4 - Former Ravens Pro Bowl DE Michael McCrary, who retired in 2002, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at halftime of the Ravens' Monday Night ABC contest vs. KC. The Chiefs won, 27-24.

10/15 - Ravens moved into their new 200,000-sq.ft. training facility in Owings Mills, MD during the bye week. The new state-of-the-art headquarters is home to over 200 Ravens employees.

12/22 - Five Ravens were named to the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden (eighth), LB Ray Lewis (seventh), S Ed Reed (second), CB Chris McAlister (second) and LB Terrell Suggs (first).

2005

1/2 - Finishing the 2004 season with a 9-7 record, the Ravens fell one game short of the playoffs. Baltimore produced a 6-2 mark at M&T Bank Stadium and a 3-5 record on the road. Injuries caused regular starters to miss 53 games, including the entire season for Pro Bowl LB Peter Boulware. Other Pro Bowlers who missed considerable time included: TE Todd

Heap (10), RB Jamal Lewis (four), LT Jonathan Ogden (four), and CB Deion Sanders (seven). C Mike Flynn missed the first seven games.

1/7 - S Ed Reed was named the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press, becoming the second Raven in as many years to win the award. LB Ray Lewis won the award twice (2000, 2003).

1/12 - Jim Fassel and Rex Ryan (1/20) were promoted to offensive and defensive coordinators, respectively. Clarence Brooks (formerly with Miami) replaced Rex Ryan as D-line coach. Chris Foerster (former Miami offensive coordinator) was named offensive line/assistant head coach. Rick Neuheisel was named QBs coach. Fassel's son, John, was hired as an offensive assistant.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two national games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. One of the victories was a 16-13 OT win over the eventual Super Bowl Champion Steelers. T Jonathan Ogden was selected to his ninth-straight Pro Bowl appearance.

6/8 - Three-time Pro Bowler and 2003 co-MVP QB Steve McNair joined the Ravens in a trade with Tennessee in exchange for a 2007 Baltimore draft pick. McNair would go on to start at QB for the Ravens in 2006, and he became just the third player in NFL history to throw for 30,000 career passing yards and 3,500 rushing yards. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

9/10 - Baltimore shut out Tampa Bay (27-0) in the opener at Raymond James Stadium and posted a second shutout versus Pittsburgh (also 27-0) on Nov. 26.

10/16 - Head coach Brian Billick took over coordinating the offense after the Ravens lost two in a row, falling to 4-2. Baltimore won five-straight games and four out of the last five contests on the season.

11/5 - Former LB Peter Boulware, who retired in 2006, was inducted into the Smyth Jewelers Ring of Honor at M&T Bank Stadium in an emotional halftime ceremony. In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Peter's younger brother Michael, a Seahawks' safety, spoke in personal terms to his brother in a pre-recorded message that was shown on the RavensVision video boards. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

12/24 - For the first time in Ravens history, Baltimore swept AFC North rival Pittsburgh at Heinz Field, 31-7, after posting an earlier shutout on Nov. 26, 27-0, at M&T Bank Stadium. The Ravens' defense dominated Pittsburgh in both games, sacking QB Ben Roethlisberger 14 times and intercepting him four.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a bye week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for the season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks (60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed was a franchise record and second in the NFL to Indy's 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

1/17 - Head coach Brian Billick signed a new four-year contract with the Ravens. Defensive coordinator Rex Ryan signed a new two-year deal with the team.

12/18 - T Jonathan Ogden was named to his 11th-straight Pro Bowl, along with LB Ray Lewis (ninth), S Ed Reed (fourth) and RB Willis McGahee (first).

12/31 - Prompted by a dismal 5-11 season in 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti, president Dick Cass and GM Ozzie Newsome held a press conference announcing the decision to relieve head coach Brian Billick and his staff of their coaching duties. Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final gun, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. Baltimore started six different rookies, tying four teams for second most in the NFL. Smith posted only one win versus the AFC North, a 27-21 nailbiter vs. Pittsburgh on 12/30.

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first head coach – and just the third in Ravens history – John Harbaugh – former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the Top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired by Ray Rhodes in 1997 and was then retained by Reid.

John Harbaugh became the third head coach in franchise history in 2008.

1/23 - Cam Cameron, head coach of the Dolphins in 2007, was hired to be the Ravens' new offensive coordinator by John Harbaugh.

1/28 - Rex Ryan was retained as defensive coordinator and also named the team's assistant head coach by John Harbaugh.

4/17 - QB Steve McNair retired from football after a 13-year NFL career.

6/12 - T Jonathan Ogden retired after a 12-year NFL career.

9/7 - John Harbaugh won his first game as an NFL head coach with a 17-10 victory over Cincinnati in Week 1 at M&T Bank Stadium. A pair of rookie players started the game on offense: QB Joe Flacco and RB Ray Rice.

9/14 - The Ravens' bye week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18-consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens' Symth Jewelers Ring of Honor just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

12/28 - With a Wild Card playoff spot on the line, Baltimore closed out the regular season with a 9-2 record to earn a No. 6 seed in the postseason. The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie standard.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' 4 INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only 7 during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute, 43-yard field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history. According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (four) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high 9 INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/21 - Rex Ryan, Baltimore's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 and a member of the coaching staff since 1999, was hired by the New York Jets as their head coach.

1/26 - Having served as LBs coach in 2008, Greg Mattison was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator. Also, special teams coordinator Jerry Rosburg earned the title of assistant head coach.

2/8 - The Baltimore coaching staff led the AFC squad in the Pro Bowl. Five Ravens were voted into the All-Star game for the 2008 season, including ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (third), LB Ray Lewis (10th), FB Le'Ron McClain (first), S Ed Reed (fifth) and LB Terrell Suggs (third).

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for earning the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' defense finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-consecutive season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (3 INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its four turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

RB Ray Rice bolted for an 83-yard TD run on the first play from scrimmage in the Ravens' Wild Card win over New England during the 2009 playoffs.

Ray Rice ran for a playoff franchise-record 159 yards and 2 TDs on 22 carries (7.2 avg.), spurring the Ravens' 234-yard rushing output (most in team playoff history).

1/16 - Baltimore fell at Indianapolis in the Divisional game, 20-3. The Ravens held the Colts to 275 net yards (including just 42 rushing), but Baltimore's four turnovers proved too costly.

1/31 - The NFL held its annual Pro Bowl in South Florida, an honor five Ravens earned: LB Ray Lewis (11th), FB Le'Ron McClain (second), DT Haloti Ngata (first), S Ed Reed (sixth) and RB Ray Rice (first).

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indianapolis (an NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10.

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever earned the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco set a Ravens' season mark with his 93.6 QB rating and established career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

1/9 - In the Wild Card game at Kansas City, the Ravens prevailed 30-7, becoming the only NFL team to win at least one playoff game in each of the last three seasons (2008-10). Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

In the victory, the Ravens set then-franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff game records (since broken) with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a franchise postseason-record 115.4 QB rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three seasons.

1/15 - After holding a 21-7 halftime lead, the Ravens fell at Pittsburgh in the Divisional Playoff, 31-24. OLB Terrell Suggs (10) became the Ravens' career postseason sacks leader with his 3-sack performance, and Baltimore's 6 total sacks on the night also set a team playoff record.

1/19 - Becoming the team's fifth defensive coordinator, Chuck Pagano was promoted from secondary coach after Greg Mattison left to coach at the University of Michigan.

1/30 - The Pro Bowl was played in Hawaii, with five Ravens earning 2010 All-Star honors: K Billy Cundiff (first), LB Ray Lewis (12th), DT Haloti Ngata (second), S Ed Reed (seventh) and OLB Terrell Suggs (fourth).

2/14 - Harbaugh and the Ravens agreed to a contract extension (with terms undisclosed).

3/4 - The NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement between the clubs and NFL Players Association, which was signed in March of 2006, expired.

3/11 - The NFL Players Association decertified, declaring itself out of the business of representing players. In exchange for giving up rights under union labor law, the players were able to take their chances in court under antitrust law.

3/12 - NFL owners lock out the players – creating the NFL's first work stoppage since 1987.

7/25 - Following an offseason that contained no minicamps, OTAs or workout programs due to the lockout, the NFL Players Association and the league's owners reached an agreement in principle on their 10-year labor deal, creating a new CBA. After a 31-0 vote by the owners to approve the deal on July 21 (the Oakland Raiders abstained), the NFLPA would later ratify the CBA on Aug. 5.

9/11 - Marking the 10th Anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, the Ravens honored all military and those whose lives have been lost in the home opener against Pittsburgh. Baltimore prevails, 35-7, in a contest that sees the Ravens force a franchise-record 7 take-aways.

11/20 - K Matt Stover, the franchise's all-time leading scorer, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the Ravens' 31-24 win over Cincinnati.

12/24 - With a 20-14 win over Cleveland, the Ravens went undefeated at M&T Bank Stadium, matching the Packers and Saints as the only teams to go undefeated at home in 2011. Following the victory, head coach John Harbaugh dedicated the "game ball" to the team's fans for their remarkable support during the undefeated home campaign, which marked a franchise first.

1/1 - After a 24-16 victory at Cincinnati, the Ravens became the only NFL team to earn the playoffs the past four seasons (2008-11), also winning the AFC North by sweeping the division for the first time in franchise history.

The Ravens, producing a second-straight 12-4 campaign, went 6-0 against playoff teams during the regular season, matching Green Bay as the only clubs to go undefeated in division play and against other postseason qualifiers.

QB Joe Flacco, who has started every game under head coach John Harbaugh, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11).

The Ravens, who finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top 3 for points allowed. Overall, Baltimore's "D" ranked third in both yards allowed (288.9 ypg) and sacks (48).

Despite playing eight games against defenses ranked in the NFL's Top 8, the Ravens were 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in the league in rushing. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). Flacco produced his third-consecutive 3,500-yard/20-TD season and was 13 yards shy of his career high with 3,610 passing yards (3,622). WR Torrey Smith was third among NFL rookies with 841 receiving yards (50 catches); his receptions and yards, plus 7 TDs, set new Ravens first-year standards.

1/15 - Baltimore earned a 20-13 Divisional Round victory over Houston at home, helping John Harbaugh become the first head coach in NFL history (since the 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four seasons (2008-11). The Ravens forced 4 turnovers against the Texans, and for the first time in team history (regular season or playoffs), Baltimore did not commit a single penalty.

1/22 - The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. But, a QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Lee Evans pass fell incomplete, and K Billy Cundiff's last-second 32-yard FG attempt sailed wide left, sealing the victory for New England.

OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

1/27 - Dean Pees was named the Ravens' new defensive coordinator after Chuck Pagano left to become head coach of the Indianapolis Colts.

1/29 - Played in Hawaii to honor the NFL's 2011 Pro Bowlers, eight Ravens earned All-Star honors: LB Ray Lewis (13th), S Ed Reed (eighth), OLB Terrell Suggs (fifth), DT Haloti Ngata (third), FB Vonta Leach (second), RB Ray Rice (second), G Ben Grubbs (first) and G Marshal Yanda (first).

2/4 - OLB Terrell Suggs was named the 2011 Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. It marked the fourth time in 12 seasons that a Raven has earned the prestigious honor: Suggs (2011), S Ed Reed (2004) and LB Ray Lewis (2003 & 2000). Additionally, C Matt Birk was named the 2011 NFL Walter Payton Man of the Year. The award recognizes a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence.

6/8 - The Ravens and Under Armour, whose global headquarters are located in downtown Baltimore, joined forces in a wide-ranging collaboration that features multiple community-focused initiatives. The 10-year agreement included naming rights for the team's practice facility in Owings Mills, which was renamed the Under Armour Performance Center.

9/6 - Art Modell, whose remarkable 43-year NFL career made him a regular finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died of natural causes at Johns Hopkins Hospital at the age of 87. As owner of both the Cleveland Browns (1961-1995) and the Baltimore Ravens (1996-2003), Modell directed teams that produced 28 winning seasons, 28 playoff games, two NFL Championships (1964 and 2000), three other appearances in NFL title contests (1965, '68 and '69), and four visits (1986, '87, '89 and 2000) to AFC championships.

9/27 - RB Jamal Lewis, the Ravens' all-time leading rusher, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the Ravens' 23-16 win over Cleveland on Thursday night.

12/26 - For their 2012 season efforts, six Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: S Ed Reed (ninth), DT Haloti Ngata (fourth), FB Vonta Leach (third), RB Ray Rice (third), G Marshal Yanda (second) and RS Jacoby Jones (first).

12/30 - The 2012 Ravens finished with a 10-6 record en route to earning their fifth-straight playoff berth and second-consecutive AFC North title. Under head coach John Harbaugh, Baltimore became the only NFL team to make the playoffs in each of the past five seasons (2008-12). The Ravens, who earned the playoffs in six of the past seven seasons, seized the franchise's fourth-ever division title with a 4-2 mark in AFC North play and an 8-4 conference record.

The Ravens set a single-season franchise record by scoring 398 points, averaging the NFL's 10th-most per game (24.9). Baltimore scored a team-record 254 points at home, producing the NFL's fourth-best home average of 31.8 ppg. Baltimore also surrendered just 16 give-aways, setting a franchise single-season record low.

The Ravens' special teams units were spectacular. In addition to posting a league-best (tied, Darius Reynaud) 3 kick return TDs (108- & 105-yard KORs and 63-yard PR), RS Jacoby Jones led the NFL in KOR average (30.7). Rookie K Justin Tucker made 30 of 33 FGAs (90.9%), producing the second-best success rate in Ravens single-season history and also the second-best mark by a rookie kicker in NFL history.

Harbaugh became just the third coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to guide his team to the postseason in each of his first five seasons (2008-12), joining Bill Cowher and Chuck Knox. "Harbs" also became the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons.

1/2 - LB Ray Lewis announced that he would retire at the end of the Ravens' playoff run, closing one of the greatest careers in NFL history. "I talked to my team today," Lewis said. "I talked to them about life in general. And everything that starts has an end. For me, today, I told my team that this will be my last ride."

1/6 - Before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted LB Ray Lewis in his final home game, the Ravens held the Colts without a touchdown, winning

For the final time in his legendary career, LB Ray Lewis performed his famous intro dance at M&T Bank Stadium before the 2012 Wild Card win vs. the Colts.

24-9 in the 2012 Wild Card Playoff. Lewis, in his 17th and final season, finished with 13 tackles and 1 PD in his first game since tearing his triceps on Oct. 14.

1/12 - In what became the fourth-longest game in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double overtime of the 2012 Divisional Playoff at Denver, producing a thrilling victory that will go down as one of the greatest wins in franchise history. Rookie K Justin Tucker's 47-yard field goal in the second overtime period sent Baltimore into the AFC Championship for the second-straight season. The Ravens tied the contest at 35 with :31 remaining in regulation on a remarkable QB Joe Flacco-to-WR Jacoby Jones 70-yard TD bomb, spurring the incredible comeback.

1/20 - The Ravens earned a trip to their second Super Bowl in franchise history, defeating the No. 2-seeded Patriots, 28-13, in the AFC Championship at New England. The Ravens' defense shut out the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense in the second half, and QB Joe Flacco threw 3 TDs in leading Baltimore to victory.

2/1 - In a ceremony held in New Orleans two days before Super Bowl XLVII, Jonathan Ogden, an 11-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' first-ever draft pick (fourth overall in 1996), was announced as a 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee.

2/3 - After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Baltimore Ravens needed a goal-line stand to clinch their second World Championship title, defeating the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII in New Orleans, LA. The Ravens' defense delivered the critical stand late in the fourth quarter, overcoming a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage. For the first time in any of the four major pro sports, two head-coaching brothers (John and Jim Harbaugh) faced each other in a championship game.

With a 3-TD performance vs. the 49ers, QB Joe Flacco threw 11 TD passes in the postseason, tying the NFL single-postseason record shared by Joe Montana (1989) and Kurt Warner (2008). Flacco and Montana did not throw an INT during those respective postseasons. Flacco finished the game 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating.

WR/RS Jacoby Jones posted a 108-yard KOR-TD to open the second half of Super Bowl XLVII. Jones also added a 56-yard TD catch during the game, helping set a Super Bowl single-game record for most combined yards (290).

QB Joe Flacco was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP in the Ravens' 34-31 win.

In 2012, Flacco also became the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to make the playoffs in each of his first five seasons. Also winning at least one playoff game in each of those postseasons, he compiled nine playoff victories, which tie (Tom Brady) for the most among QBs in the first five seasons of a career.

The Ravens produced one of the most electrifying postseasons in NFL history. Averaging 410.3 yards of offense (134.8 rush & 275.5 pass), Baltimore scored 31.0 points per game while allowing just 22.0. WR Anquan Boldin recorded 22 catches for 380 yards and 4 TDs, while WR Jacoby Jones posted a 29.4 receiving average (5 for 147), catching TDs of 70 and 56 yards. (Jones also had a 108-yard KOR-TD in the Super Bowl.)

The Ravens' defense registered 10 take-aways (6 INTs and 4 FRs), helping produce a +6 overall turnover differential during their playoff run. The unit also posted 9 sacks in four playoff games, including 4.5 by OLB Paul Kruger.

2/5 - Baltimore celebrated the Ravens' Super Bowl XLVII Championship, as thousands of fans lined the streets of Charm City and completely filled M&T Bank Stadium for a celebration. Fans also gathered at City Hall and cheered when the Ravens arrived to kick off the parade route with the franchise's second Lombardi Trophy.

6/5 - As guests of President Barack Obama, the Ravens visited The White House and were honored for winning Super Bowl XLVII. Said the President: "Now, I imagine there were times last year when these players were the only ones who knew that they'd make it here to show off this trophy. Because, during the year, they lost player after player to injury; they dropped four of their last five regular season games. In the playoffs, they trailed Denver by a touchdown with 70 yards and less than a minute to go. ... And then, in the Super Bowl, just when it looked like they had the momentum, the lights went out for a half hour. ... But these Ravens always pulled through."

9/22 - LB Ray Lewis, the Ravens' all-time leading tackler and second-ever draft choice, was inducted into the team's Ring of Honor during halftime of the 30-9 win over Houston.

12/8 - In a remarkable and most-memorable contest that set NFL records for the most points scored (36) in the last 2:05 of a game and most lead changes (six) in a fourth quarter, the Ravens found a way to beat the Vikings, 29-26. In 121 seconds late in the game, 36 points were scored, including the winning TD by Baltimore with 4 seconds left. That score came when Joe Flacco, who led the game-winning, 5-play, 80-yard drive, hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 9-yard TD strike. This wild battle started with a near-blizzard snowfall that made it difficult for QBs to find receivers beyond the line of scrimmage.

12/27 - For their 2013 season production, four Ravens earned Pro Bowl honors: DT Haloti Ngata (fifth), OLB Terrell Suggs (sixth), K Justin Tucker (first) and G Marshal Yanda (third).

12/29 - For the first time since 2008 – the year the Ravens hired John Harbaugh – Baltimore did not make the playoffs, coming one game short with an 8-8 mark and placing third in the AFC North after falling 34-17 in the finale at Cincinnati. Tied 17-17 near the end of the third quarter of the game, Baltimore needed only that win to clinch a postseason berth.

Ray Lewis (above right) was inducted into the Ravens' Ring of Honor (detailed below) during the 2013 season following his incredible 17-year NFL career.

1/27 - Gary Kubiak was hired as the team's offensive coordinator following the departure of Jim Caldwell, who was tabbed as Detroit's new head coach.

5/21 - M&T Bank and the Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

LARGEST RAVENS CROWDS

The Ravens played in Memorial Stadium from 1996-97 and PSINet Stadium from 1998-2001. In 2002, the facility was known as Ravens Stadium. In 2003, the Ravens entered a partnership, and the stadium was re-named M&T Bank Stadium. (The stadium's capacity was increased in 2007 to 71,008 from previous listings of 70,107 and 69,084.)

DRAFTED: 1996, 26th Overall: Ravens Second-Ever Draft Choice PRO BOWLS: 13

CAREER SNAPSHOT

Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowler and the Ravens' second-ever draft choice (26th overall in 1996), helped guide the Ravens to two Super Bowl titles during his career, capturing the Lombardi Trophy in 2000 and 2012. Following the 2012 campaign, Lewis, who will be forever known as the greatest linebacker of his generation and one of the best defensive players in NFL history, retired after 17 seasons. Here is a brief look at his storied professional career:

- In 2000, led a defense that established a 16-game single-season record for fewest points allowed (165), and fewest rushing yards allowed (970), recorded 4 shutouts (1 shy of the post-1970 merger record), and finished first league-wide in six key defensive categories
- Was the second player in NFL history to win both NFL Defensive Player of the Year and Super Bowl MVP awards (2000)...DT Harvey Martin of Dallas won Defensive Player of the Year in 1977 and was co-MVP of Super Bowl XXII with DT Randy White
- Is the only player in NFL history with at least 40 career sacks and 30 career INTs (41.5 sacks and 31 INTs)
- Posted a franchise-record 2,643 career tackles, including a single-season team-best 225 stops in 2003
- Led the Ravens in tackles in 14 of his 17 seasons, registering at least 150 stops 11 times
- Has returned 3 of his 31 INTs for TDs
- Had a team-record and career-high 25 tackles at NYG (9/14/97)
- Posted seven career 20-tackle games
- Is second only to Jack Ham (53) in take-aways by a LB in NFL history with 50 total (31 INTs and 19 FRs)

PERENNIAL PRO BOWLER

LB Ray Lewis was invited to 13 Pro Bowls during his career, tying Hall of Famer Reggie White for the most by a defender in NFL history. Lewis played in 12 Pro Bowls, missing the 2006 Hawaiian classic due to a hand injury. Here are the defenders who have earned the most Pro Bowls during their careers.

The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who wore both 73 and 97 jerseys.

On Jan. 12, 2013, the Ravens traveled to Denver for a Divisional Round matchup in which they knocked off the AFC's top seed in a 38-35 double-overtime thriller. CB Corey Graham (above) picked off two QB Peyton Manning passes, one of which he returned 39 yards for a touchdown.

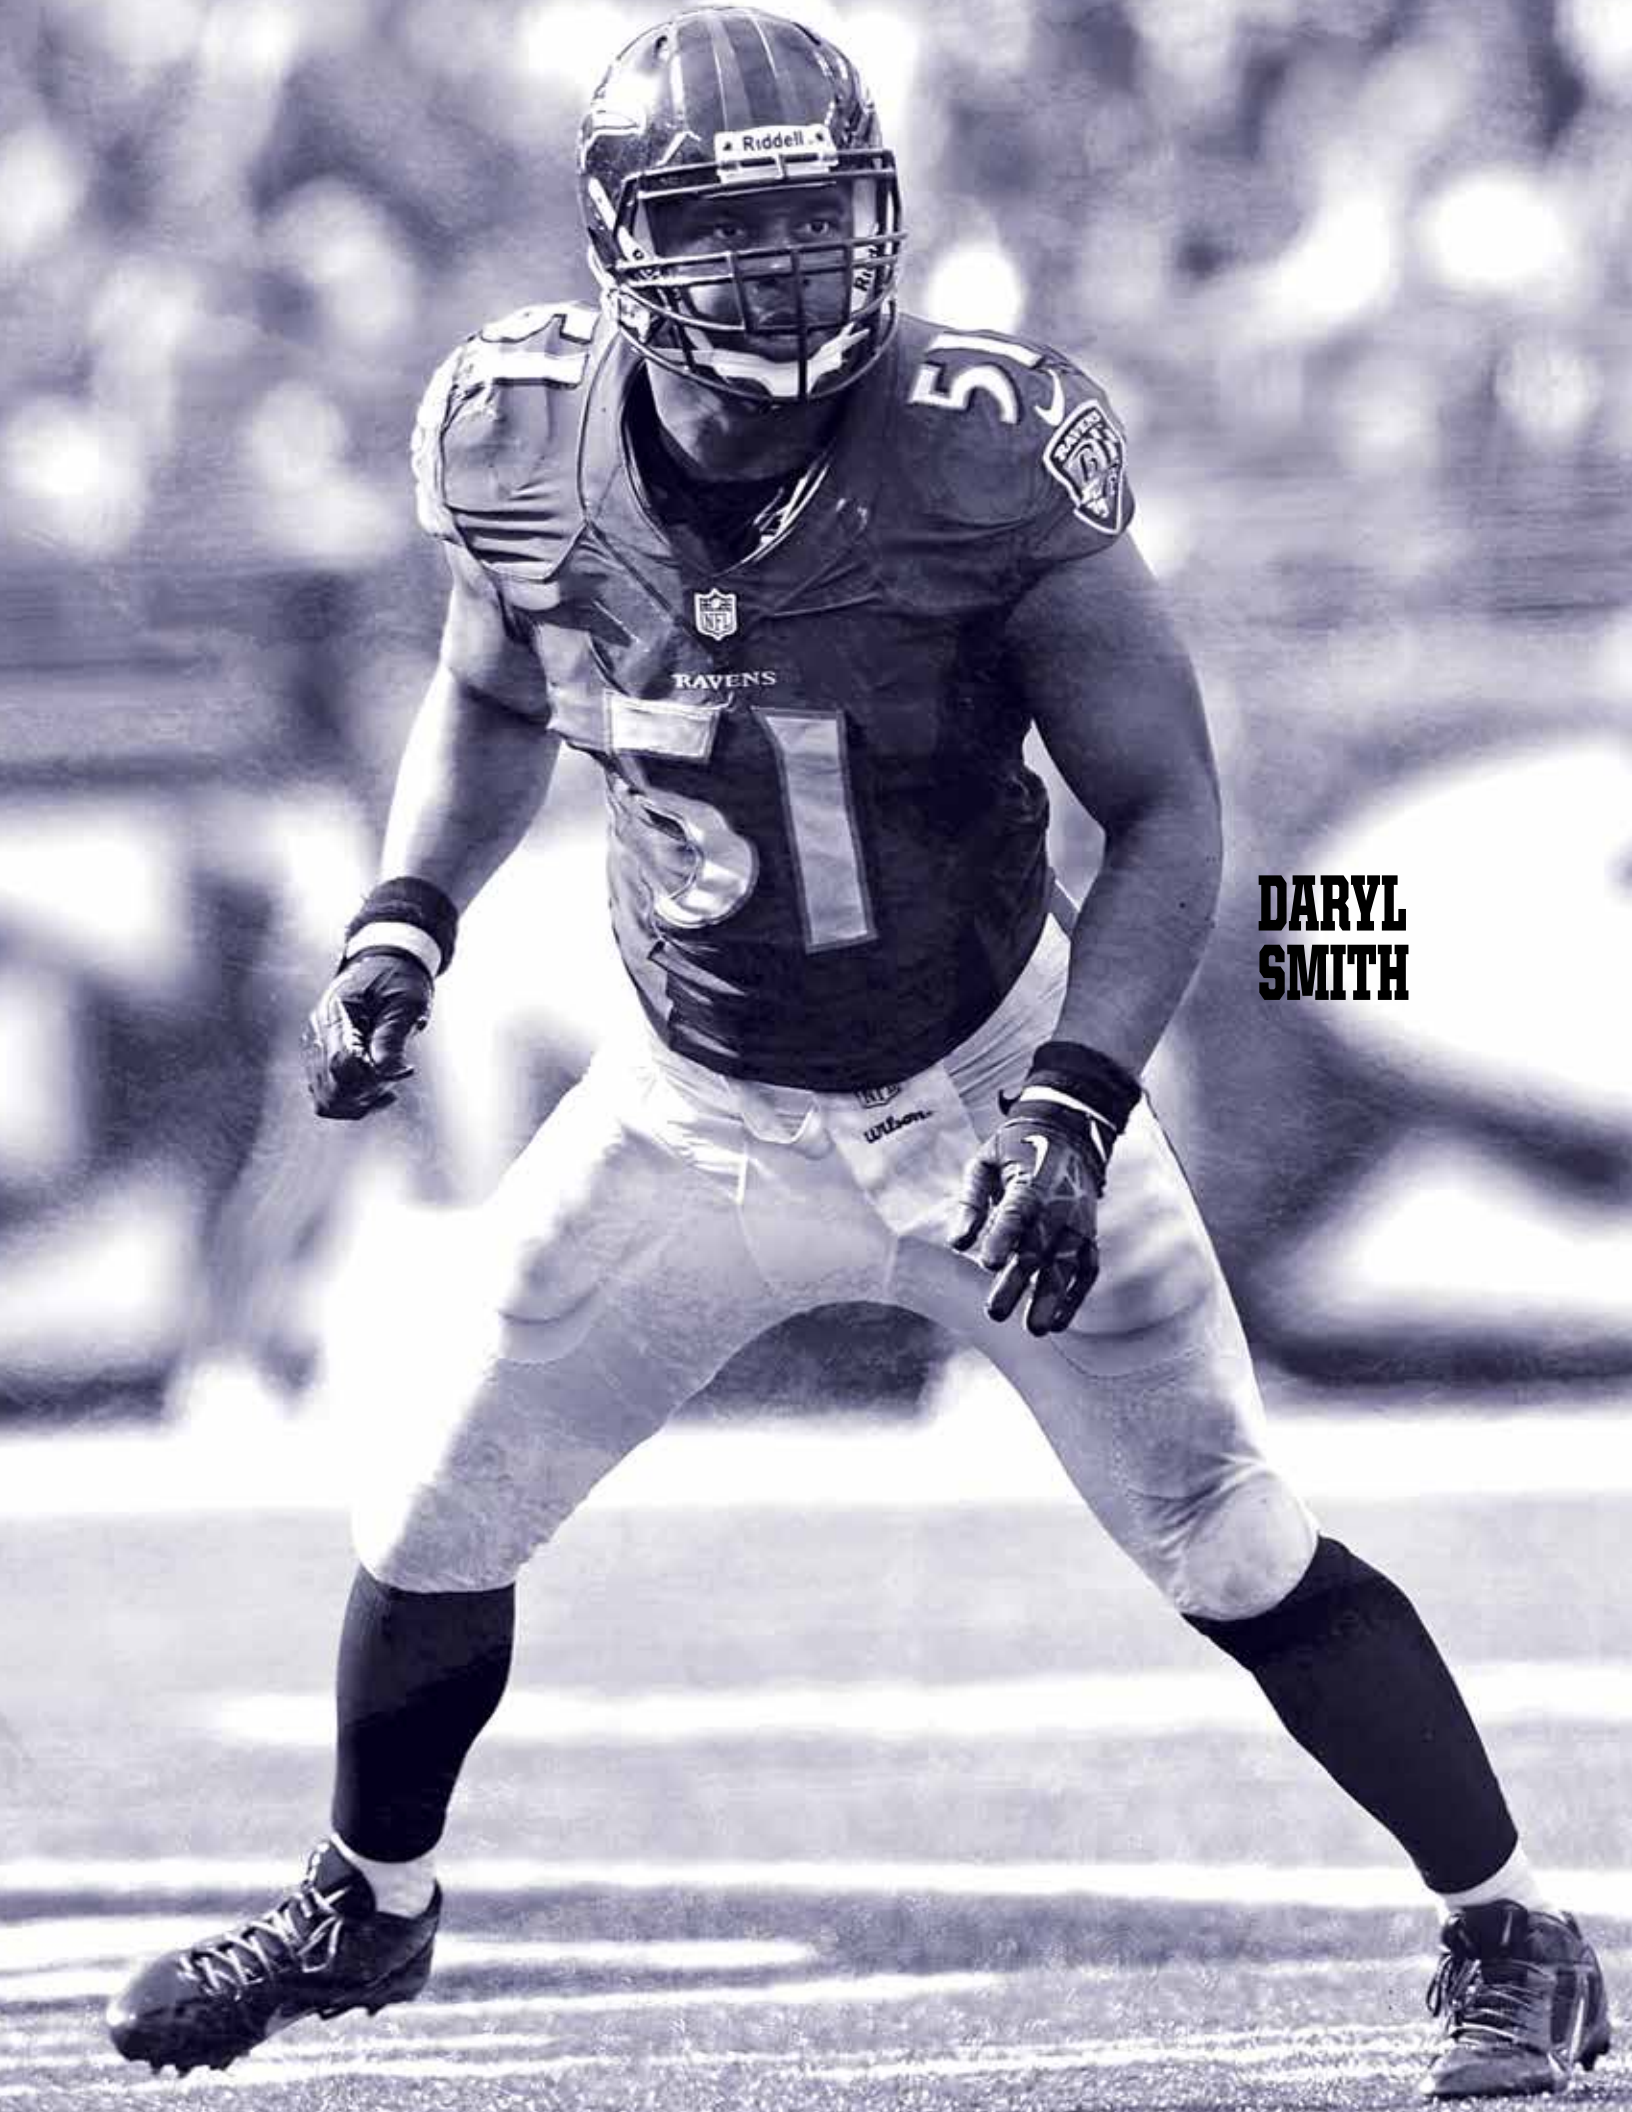

In the Wild Card round at New England (1/10/10), RB Ray Rice ran 83 yards for a touchdown on the opening play from scrimmage, the second-longest rush in NFL postseason history. Rice finished the day with a Ravens' postseason record 159 rushing yards, adding 2 TDs, en route to a 33-14 victory.

GAME DAY

DARYL SMITH

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T Bank Stadium – without a doubt – is where NFL excitement begins any given Sunday. And that's because Baltimore Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since capturing their first Super Bowl title in 2000, the Ravens have compiled an impressive home record, 85-27, the NFL's second-best winning percentage (.759) entering 2014.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as the crowning jewel of NFL sports facilities. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including stunning high definition RavensVision video screens and state-of-the-art concourse designs. Combined with these exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 71,008, this impressive structure draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park at Camden Yards and the Ravens' home. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds, and the Ravens.

VIDEO SCREENS

• Each RavensVision high definition screen, which were added in 2010, measures 24 feet high and 100 feet wide. Those dimensions would equal a 1,234-inch diagonal TV screen. It would take 600 37-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) boards. Nearly 2.5 million individual LEDs provide the image on the two screens, allowing the highest quality pictures in the brightest sunlight and at night events.

• The high definition views allow for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

• Each of the two giant screens is made up of modular LED panels – 12.6 inches by 15.1 inches. These panels were then assembled into larger sections measuring 8 by 9 feet. Each section weighs 900 pounds, and there are 33 sections on each board.

• A control room that allows the high definition boards to work at peak quality was designed by VPC and installed at M&T Bank Stadium by Diversified Systems, the U.S. industry leader in the construction and installation of control rooms.

• Added in 2013 were two high definition video boards, measuring 8 feet high and 30 feet wide, which were installed at the concourse entrances of Gates A and D. (Approximately 60 percent of fans enter Gate A for all stadium events.) These new HD boards, which have split-screen capabilities, display a variety of content, ranging from in-game action, highlights, stats, messaging and entertainment video.

• Another dramatic improvement in 2013 was the addition of four new LED boards – one placed on each side of the two giant RavensVision HD video boards in the stadium's inner bowl. Additionally, new LED ribbon boards were installed to fully connect around the entire middle seating bowl.

• In 2014, four new displays featuring the latest in Daktronics SMD (Surface-Mount Device) LED technology were added to the upper concourse of the stadium, above the Miller Flight Deck, keeping fans updated on the game's excitement while away from their seats. Each of these new displays features 8 millimeter line spacing on SMD LED outdoor technology. The displays each measure 6 feet high by 22 feet wide to show fans the same content as the main video displays while they are in the upper concourse areas heading to and from restrooms or concession stands.

"We remain committed to enhancing the game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium," Ravens president Dick Cass stated. "This is the second-consecutive year we've made significant upgrades to our digital video displays. The addition of these new screens will be great for our fans. They will provide even more entertainment and football information for people to enjoy."

SIGHTLINES

• Front row seating in the lower level is 6 feet above the playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

M&T BANK STADIUM

• The distinct upper seating area includes open notches in each stadium corner, allowing spectacular views of Baltimore.

SEATING

• With a seating capacity of 71,008, M&T Bank Stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball ballpark to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park at Camden Yards' size. Seating for the disabled is located on every level.

• The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.

• Each of the 128 suites at M&T Bank Stadium hold between 20-24 people and features three televisions, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal waitstaff service. Many other amenities are available to suite holders.

AMENITIES/DESIGN

• As part of a two-year, $35 million investment that began in 2013, the Ravens enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium with improvements to video boards, concession stands and all concourses.

• All 16 lower concourse concessions stands were upgraded, with these enhancements improving the speed of service, and also the freshness and quality of food, much of which is prepared directly in front of fans.

• Additional concession stand improvements included digital menu boards and full upgrades to all condiment counters. Renovations to upper concourse concession stands were completed prior to the 2014 NFL season.

• Additionally, in 2013 and 2014, all concourses were redesigned with a "Ravenized" theme, influenced by the brick and steel look of the M&T Bank Stadium exterior and other buildings on the Camden Yards complex. These features include support columns wrapped in brick, purple accent lighting and enhanced directional signage throughout each concourse.

• Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Seven public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic.

• There are 44 concessions stands in the upper, lower and club levels with delicious game-day fare, including some of Baltimore's signature favorites, such as crab cakes.

• Club Level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE

• Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

• Fans can easily access the stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside Gate B.

• Parking in stadium lots, managed by Central Parking Systems, (410) 347-9330, is limited to permit holders, but downtown parking garages are also available for game day parking, just a short walk away.

• Tailgating is welcomed at M&T Bank Stadium. Fans may tailgate in every complex lot. For complete Tailgate Lot information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-7283.

• In October of 2002, following the passing of legendary Colts' quarterback Johnny Unitas, the Ravens named the area near Gate A Unitas Plaza. A statue (shown below) sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every home game.

Prior to the 2014 season, the Ravens unveiled a second statue in Unitas Plaza – one of former LB Ray Lewis, a Ravens' icon and perhaps the greatest defensive player in NFL history.

• Unitas Plaza is a great picture-taking area for Baltimoreans and vacationers. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that brought Baltimore and the State of Maryland two Super Bowl Championships (2000 and 2012).

Legendary Baltimore Colts QB Johnny Unitas has been immortalized by a statue outside M&T Bank Stadium.

IN-GAME ENTERTAINMENT

MASCOT POE

The game-day experience at M&T Bank Stadium is designed to offer Ravens fans a festive and colorful atmosphere by providing a variety of entertainment and excitement. And it wouldn't be complete without the Ravens' mischievous mascot, Poe. If you would like to book Poe to fly into your next function, please visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

RAVENS CHEERLEADERS

The Ravens' cheerleading squad has 15 members on the dance team and 32 members on the stunt team. The cheerleading squad is the only NFL team with both a dance and co-ed stunt team. Cheerleaders are in our community helping raise funds for charities and foundations in the Baltimore area. To schedule an appearance, visit: www.baltimoreravens.com/cheerleaders.

BALTIMORE'S MARCHING RAVENS

Over 180 musicians comprise Baltimore's Marching Ravens. John Ziemann directed the Colts' Marching Band, which evolved into the current Ravens' musical performers. BMR is deeply involved in charitable causes and raises funds to help support the Baltimore community. For information on scheduling these dynamic performers, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/band.

LIVE RAVENS

The Ravens' live mascots, Rise and Conquer, live at the Maryland Zoo in Baltimore and can be visited by fans. Fans also have an opportunity to see the birds appear at home games and a number of different Ravens events throughout the calendar year. For more information, visit www.baltimoreravens.com/mascots.

THE LEAGUE'S LOUDEST

"This crowd here, defensively, there is no place like this place – none. I don't care how loud they cheer or how long they cheer. When they're chanting, 'Defense,' I'm happy. This is a unique, unique place."

- Ravens defensive coordinator Dean Pees on Baltimore's home crowd

"It was [in 2007], and I can remember everything – it made that much of an impression. Sometimes when you play in certain venues, you feel the audience. The electricity they have, the energy they're giving the team – you feel that in Baltimore. It's like the fans and the defense are in perfect sync together."

- ESPN analyst & former Patriots LB Tedy Bruschi on M&T Bank Stadium

M&T BANK STADIUM

On May 21, 2014, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens announced a 10-year, $60 million extension of their partnership, which includes the continuation of naming rights to M&T Bank Stadium and an array of community-focused programs, including a new initiative focused on helping at-risk children in Baltimore.

The partnership, which began as a 15-year agreement in 2003 and is now extended through 2027, has proven to reach far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives.

"M&T Bank's partnership with the Ravens isn't about a name on a building – it's about combining the strengths of our two teams to build a better, stronger Baltimore," said M&T Bank president Mark Czarnecki.

Founded in 1856, M&T Bank Corp. (www.mtb.com) is one of the 20 largest U.S. commercial bank holding companies, with more than 700 branch offices and 1,500 ATMs in New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia and Washington, D.C.

"Our partnership with M&T is based on shared values and has produced impact on both companies and this community," said Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti. "This new agreement is a natural extension of our strong relationship and mutual commitment to pursuing excellence and strengthening this region. We look forward to continuing to work with M&T and helping those in need."

A new component of the partnership will be an initiative to establish a Judith P. Hoyer Early Child Care and Family Education Center (Judy Center), which provides comprehensive services to increase school readiness for at-risk children under age five and their families. The Judy Center will be located at an elementary school in the Cherry Hill section of Baltimore City and is being organized through the Baltimore Community Foundation (BCF). The Ravens and M&T will provide a total of $600,000 in funding for the project.

Other community initiatives include the following:

M&T Bank Honor Rows:

Since 2003, M&T Bank and the Ravens have honored more than 8,000 young people from a range of organizations, including Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Greater Chesapeake, recognizing their outstanding volunteer work. For each Ravens home game, 100 young people receive tickets, Honor Rows t-shirts, a pre-game on-field visit and official in-game recognition on the RavensVision screens.

M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T Bank Touchdown for Teachers:

The Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local teachers for their outstanding service to their schools and communities. Five finalists (the inaugural 2014 group pictured right) are chosen based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and their demonstrated commitment to education. The 2014 grand prize winner was Jasmine Blanks (far right), a music teacher who received a $1,000 grant for her school and a classroom visit by Ravens DT Brandon Williams.

Ravens Foundation Partner:

Since the inception of the partnership in 2003, a total of $1 million has been allocated from M&T to the Ravens Foundation to support a range of community groups. Each year, M&T employees volunteer to work at Ravens community events including food drives, Habitat for Humanity builds, Play 60 events and Earth Day clean-ups. In 2013, M&T employees volunteered 587 hours at Ravens community events.

Partnernship Facts:

M&T Bank will continue to receive extensive corporate branding exposure combined with promotions related to being the Ravens' official bank, such as offering the exclusive Ravens debit card. On game days, M&T Bank is featured on an array of interior and exterior stadium signage and branding, seen by 70,000 fans and millions more on television. M&T Bank also provides banking services through nine ATMs located throughout the stadium and an M&T booth on Ravens Walk. There is also hospitality and special event access for M&T at the stadium, the Ravens' training facility and other Ravens-sponsored events.

THE M&T ADVANTAGE

Simply put, the Baltimore Ravens have been dominant at home since the day they arrived in Charm City. Below are the Ravens' respective home records and corresponding NFL rankings during several periods.

RAVENS HOME RECORDS
(NFL Rankings)

Time Period (Milestone)	Record	NFL Rank
Since 2010 (Past Four Seasons)	27-5	2
Since 2008 (John Harbaugh Arrival)	39-9	2
Since 2000 (Super Bowl Season)	85-27	2
Since 1998 (M&T Bank Stadium Opened)	93-35	2
Since 1996 (Team's Inception)	100-43-1	4t

Under John Harbaugh, the Ravens have won 30 of their last 35 regular season home games and are 39-9 in games played in Baltimore, ranking as the league's second-best home mark since the 2008 NFL campaign began.

NFL'S BEST REGULAR SEASON HOME RECORDS

M&T BANK STADIUM: GOLD STANDARD

In 2013, the Ravens, in partnership with the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), earned a LEED-certified Gold designation for M&T Bank Stadium from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC).

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) strives to deliver energy- and water-efficient, healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-savings buildings, homes and communities.

M&T Bank Stadium is the first existing outdoor professional sports facility in the United States – including all NFL and Major League Baseball stadiums – to receive USGBC's Gold rating. A LEED certification is recognized across the globe as the premier mark of achievement in green building.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

"I'm pleased to celebrate the LEED-certified Gold designation with our World Champions. Working together, we're meeting some of the most ambitious energy reduction goals in the nation, fostering innovation and job creation that will lead to a better, more sustainable future for our children."

- Maryland Governor Martin O'Malley

"The Ravens attempt to set a standard in everything they do, both on and off the field. Working hard to stay green and sustainable at M&T Bank Stadium is another example of the Ravens doing the right thing in their community at a consistently-high level."

- NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell

"In conjunction with and support from the Maryland Stadium Authority, the Ravens wanted to step forward as a leader in the stadium industry by pushing the envelope with efficiency and sustainability. Our staff, headed by Roy Sommerhof, used creative strategies that produced significant energy and maintenance efficiencies and cost savings."

- Baltimore Ravens President Dick Cass

"Achieving LEED status does more than showcase our commitment to the environment. This standard of excellence enhances the value of our stadium. For many sports and entertainment entities, sustainability is a key factor in selecting venues. This designation improves our chances to attract these events."

- Maryland Stadium Authority Chairman John Morton III

SUSTAINABILITY FACTS FOR M&T BANK STADIUM

- The stadium's efficient irrigation system and adaptive vegetation reduces 30% of its potable water for outside irrigation.
- Electricity at the stadium has been reduced from 15,952,984 kilowatt hours in 2005 to 10,881,579 in 2012.
- The electricity savings of 5,071,405 kilowatt hours can heat about 440 homes for a year.
- Installation of waterless urinals & water-efficient restroom fixtures saves the stadium over 3 million gallons of water per year.
- 43% water reduction with the installation of over 400 waterless urinals
- 38% of M&T Bank Stadium staff use alternative transportation to work, contributing to the stadium's carbon footprint reduction of 123,070 metric tons of greenhouse gas emissions per year.
- 71% of regularly-occupied spaces have access to outdoor views
- The stadium is 27% above the national average in energy efficiency.
- The stadium recycles 31% of its regular waste.
